

HUGE ZR-3, PASSING OVER NORTH AMERICAN SOIL, EXPECTED TO REACH LAKEHURST BY NOON TODAY.

Clemson Student Body Walks Out On Strike

FOOD CONDITIONS AND SUSPENSION OF PLAYER BLAMED

Alleged Unfair Trial of Football Star for Drunkenness Given as Chief Cause of Walkout.

ACTING PRESIDENT CONFIRMS STRIKE

Majority of Students Departed for Homes Upon Early Trains Tuesday Night.

Anderson, S. C., October 14.—(Special.)—Students at Clemson college, South Carolina's agricultural school, 18 miles northwest of here, went on strike this afternoon when the demands of the senior class, supported by the entire student body of approximately 1,200 students, were turned down.

The students early Tuesday morning handed to President Earle a number of requests, one of which asked for better food. In the same petition the reinstatement of "Butch" Hollahan, president of the senior class and captain of the football team, was requested. Hollahan was dismissed after he personally submitted a petition for better food, members of the faculty declaring that he had been drinking at the time. Hollahan denies this charge.

Mass Meeting Held.

After the demands of the senior class were flatly turned down by the president of the school a meeting of the students was held and a walkout decided upon. The withdrawal of the students began shortly before 6 o'clock and was orderly. No college property was damaged.

Early tonight scores of Clemson students were on the streets here, and they report that over 600 men had already packed up and left the campus, while the strike continues in an uninterrupted flow. The remaining number will leave Wednesday, some of them waiting for transportation from home, it was claimed.

The walkout at Clemson was caused primarily by the conditions prevailing in the mess hall and the action of the discipline committee in dismissing Hollahan, it was said. The food served in the mess hall was often unfit to eat, it is declared. The so-called "hot dogs" served were often tainted, students claim. It is complained that the food served to 32 men on a table was the same in quantity as that served from 28 to 30 men last year.

Senior Class Acts.

This state of affairs continued until last Sunday night, when the members of the senior class decided that something should be done to relieve the situation. Heretofore they had been unable to make any protests, as the college authorities had dispensed with the services of a matron who handled these matters last year. Hollahan, as president of the senior class, talked to President Earle and the commandant, Colonel Cole, about the conditions of the mess hall. The

Opportunity's Knock

Fear Only Fear

Too many men are carrying a double load on their shoulders. They could support their responsibilities, but the added weight of their worries bears them down.

A little intimate worry can beat a man when no outside force could make him yield an inch. Keep a watch over your thoughts—don't take chances on enemies within your mind.

Fear or courage comes to be a habit of thought. You can develop the positive one as easily as you can let the negative grow on you. Set yourself to thinking straight, brave thoughts. Learn to plan without fear!

You can get rid of many worries by facing them squarely—and letting The Constitution's Classified Ads help you defeat them.

Sub-Debs Seek Arm of Prince At Ford Dance

Wales Goes Through Auto Factory on Trip to Detroit.

Detroit, October 14.—Hardy frontier life on his Canadian ranch has not affected the dancing ability of the Prince of Wales.

Despite a night of terpsichorean pleasure in Chicago and a day of sight-seeing in the mammoth Ford plants here, Wales was on the dance floor again Tuesday night, this time at the home of Edsel Ford.

A select group of the Detroit younger set attended. Many sub-debs were scattered among the crowd, hopeful for an opportunity to dance with His Royal Highness. One of the surprises at the dance was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Newberry, Newberry is the son of a woman Newberry, the bitter political enemy of Henry Ford.

Wales was rushed through the day. Arriving at Highland park shortly after noon he was greeted by a mammoth crowd. He was whisked into the Ford plant and for the rest of the afternoon inspected machinery used in making Fords, in company with Henry Ford himself.

FRENCH CONDEMN GERMAN OFFICERS TO SUFFER DEATH

Atrocities Against French Civilians Early During World War Form Basis of Charges.

Paris, October 14.—Seven German war-time officers, including a division commander and a brigade commander, have been condemned to death by a French war council, sitting at Nancy, for atrocities against civilians during the world war.

The accused include General Claus, commander of an infantry brigade; General Von Berr, division commander; Captain Guichard, Colonel Hucko, Captain Fritz, Lieutenant Schrader and Sergeant Major Sennen.

They were charged with killing civilians in the Lorraine village of Gerbeville. None were present at their trial, which ended in the death sentences after the council had deliberated for three hours.

The council also sentenced General Danner to 20 years' imprisonment, Colonel Kreyenberg to five years, and Major Krim to five. Another major, named Lockemann, was exonerated. This was the only acquittal.

The investigation into the charges against the Germans had been in progress for more than a year. A hundred witnesses, many of them ex-soldiers under the accused officers, were heard by the council.

The alleged offenses were committed in August, 1914, in the first of the series of outrages against civilians with which the Germans were charged by the French.

The testimony against the accused officers included stories of the shooting of old men, women and children in the streets and the burning of buildings without giving their occupants a chance to escape.

The German offenses, it was testified, reached their height at Gerbeville. At least a hundred of the town's citizens disappeared, it was declared, and as many more were wounded.

TAXPAYERS JAM CITY HALL OFFICE AS BOOKS CLOSE

With the tax books closing tonight a steady stream of property owners is expected to crowd the office of the city tax collector today. Thousands of dollars in 1924 taxes were paid into the city treasury Monday and Tuesday, and as all general taxes, both personal property and real estate, must be paid today to escape fi. fa., a even larger amount is expected.

Under the law fi. fa. will be issued for taxes not paid by October 15, which means that $150, or the cost of a fi. fa. and 7 per cent interest will be added to the amount of the taxes.

Although tax books close today a large amount of taxes will not be received until later in the week, as many large property owners will mail checks today, officials said.

While figures cannot be completed until early next week, it is expected that the amount collected will be almost $1,000,000, short of the anticipated $5,285,000.

RECALL IS INVITED BY JOHN W. DAVIS IF PROMISES FAIL

Tells Illinois Voters He Wants Special Election If He Does Not Drive Filth From Government.

GIVES SELF 2 YEARS TO FULFILL PROMISE

Only Course To Curb Abuse of Power Is To Vote Democratic Ticket, He Tells Audiences.

Springfield, Ill., October 14.—Assurances that he would, if elected to the presidency, ask the nation to vote again and recall him from office in the event he failed to wipe privilege from the statute books and rid the country of corruption, were given Illinois voters today by John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president.

The candidate declared he would recommend a special election and invite a recall, if he failed to keep his promise after he had been president two years.

"If, when four years have elapsed, say, if when two years have gone," Mr. Davis declared, "and we have been as false to our promises as other men have been, if corruption again has raised its ugly head and thrown itself into the conduct of your government, if privilege has not been wiped off the statute books and the law that control you, I shall not only not invoke your further suffrage, but I shall commend it to you as American citizens to repeat your vote of protest and condemnation."

No Unimportant Campaign.

At another point, Davis declared there was no such thing as an unimportant presidential campaign, and reviewed past history to show that every four years the American people have taken a decision that was fraught with grave circumstances.

Much of the same thought was voiced by the candidate today in his brief speech at Mattoon. He said he never wanted to see the United States hardened into classes, groups and factions.

"What are your public officers in this country but your mere agents and servants?" he asked. "What is an election but their coming back to you and asking whether you approve or disapprove them? How will you conduct your government unless you say on the one hand, 'well, done, good and faithful servant,' or on the other, 'deport, we never knew you.'"

"There is no such thing in this country as an unimportant presidential campaign. If you go back over the history of the United States you will find that every four years the American people have taken a decision."

BRANDEGEE DEATH DUE TO FINANCES

Ill Health Also Blamed by Friends for Suicide of Republican Senator From Connecticut.

Washington, October 14.—Worried over financial difficulties involving real estate transactions, combined with ill health, is assigned by close friends as the cause for Senator Frank Brandegee, of Connecticut, committing suicide here early today.

The body of the 60-year-old senator was found in an unused room in the upper floor of his spacious residence this morning by his secretary, W. Don Lundy, and chauffeur, George Jones. They were directed to the room by a note left on his bed which gave no motive, however, for the act.

A tube attached to an open gas jet was in the hand of Mr. Brandegee, who lay fully dressed on the floor. Coroner J. Ramsey Nevitt, after an examination, issued a certificate of death which, he said, resulted from suicide, accomplished by inhaling illuminating gas.

In Best of Spirits.

Senator Brandegee, a bachelor, lived alone except for two negro servants. When last seen alive yesterday by his secretary and chauffeur he said he appeared in the best of spirits and health. He was at home alone last night.

Mr. Brandegee was the senior member of the senate from his state and in his 19 years of service there he had taken an active part in the leadership of the republican party. He was chairman of the judiciary committee and one of the leaders on the foreign relations committee. His death, coupled with that of Senator Colt, of Rhode Island, recently, cut the republican leadership in the senate to 49, a bare majority. It is expected, however, both seats will be filled before congress meets again in December for the short term.

No Close Relatives.

News of the death of the senator spread rapidly over the city, and many prominent persons connected with him in official and private life called at the residence.

The senator has no immediate blood relatives, and arrangements for his funeral were taken in charge by his secretary, W. Don Lundy.

These call for services at Mr. Brandegee's home here Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. J. J. Muir, senator-in-chief, officiating. The body will be taken to New London, Conn., his former home and birthplace, where services will be held Friday afternoon in St. James Episcopal church, of which he was a member.

TRIAL OF LINDSAY MAY RENEW ROW

Councilman Aven Warns Public To "Watch Committee" on Eve of Patrolman's Trial.

Continuing his attack on members of the police commission of city council, Dr. C. C. Aven, councilman from the Third ward, Tuesday night gave out a statement warning the public to "watch the actions of the police committee in the trial of Patrolman Guy Lindsay Wednesday night."

Lindsay's suspension was announced two weeks ago and was included in a number of transfers and re-assignments of policemen which stirred police circles.

Lindsay was charged with violating rule 84 of the police department, which forbids officers from participating in political campaigns. Later, according to Dr. Aven, charges of insubordination were substituted, growing out of an alleged attack on Councilman J. A. Beall, a member of the police committee, in an address said to have been made by Lindsay at the Pryor street school before the city primary last month.

"Let me urge the public," Dr. Aven said, "to watch the actions of the police committee in the trial of Patrolman Guy Lindsay Wednesday night. The information given news-

FINANCES CAUSED SUICIDE, WEEKS SAYS IN STATEMENT

New York, October 14.—Secretary of War John W. Weeks issued a statement today concerning the death of Senator Brandegee in Washington, in which he said, "I know that the reason for taking this rash step is due to personal financial troubles re-

Chinaboy Shrugs at Death As Fake 'Mayor' Hunts Cover

TONG WAR TO UNITE DEAD FOES IN SHIP'S HOLD

New York, October 14.—Like the gangster who has been marked for death, yet continues to walk the streets of the lower East Side until his enemies come and get him, the Chinaboy of Mott, Pell and Doyers streets are carrying on business as usual, though some of them must realize that they will have to die before the present war of the Tonghs has been fought out.

Ling Tin was Tuesday's casualty. Ling Tin was 62. He had come to America from one of the back provinces of China where the square-wheeler barrow is still the principal means of transportation. He had the honor of being shot dead by three Chinese gunmen who rode in a taxi-cab. If he had been afraid to die he would have remained in Chinatown, where the police detail has been strengthened so that the coppers are getting in each other's way. But, with the shrugging fatalism of his race, Ling Tin left the protection of the police and went to Brooklyn to help his two nephews, Ming Tong and Ming Song, catch up with some flat work in their laundry.

Boat Waits Full Load.

He was standing behind the counter, his bony old chest exposed where his ragged undershirt was unbuttoned, blowing spray on the wash with a squirt gun, when the cab hauled up at the curb and three China boys went in to shoot him. There were words, then five shots, and as Ling Tin's shriveled old frame collapsed on the heap of rough-stuff, the three men who came away from the scene were his nephews, Ming Tong and Ming Song, ran out to the curb, screaming, "My uncle! He fall; he fall," but

DEMOCRATS DECRY GOSSIP OF BRYAN AS SENATE CHOICE

Several Democratic Senators Said To Be Strongly Opposed to His Possible Selection as President

DAWES MORE LIKELY TO GET THEIR VOTES

Independent Republicans From West Also Unlikely To Support Bryan in Case of Deadlock.

Washington, October 14.—Democrats and independents resent the cry going up from republican campaigners—even including Secretary of State Hughes—that the most likely result, if the presidential election is thrown into congress, is the choice of Charles W. Bryan for president.

The prediction is based on the impossibility of an election by the house, with the senate left to choose between Bryan and Dawes. Secretary of State Hughes reiterated the charge of other republican campaigners that this was the real purpose of the La Follette campaign.

Were Political Play.

Both democrats and independents look upon the predictions of such a result by republicans as an effort to swing away certain votes. Privately, they round up the situation as follows: They say that the prediction is based, in the first place, on a false start, that is, they contend that the election, if thrown into congress, will be settled by the house, despite the apparent deadlock, and will never get as far as the senate, which, under the law, would choose between the two leading vice presidential candidates.

In the second place, it is held that even if the election should go to the senate that Bryan would not be chosen. The brother of William Jennings Bryan would have to get all 43 democratic votes, four la Follette votes and two farmer-labor votes for the necessary 49, a majority. It is known that there are several democrats who would be strongly opposed to having Bryan president. The La Follette group contains five republicans. Nor is there any confidence in the Bryan brothers. It is not known whether Senator Ladd, another member of the group, would vote for him.

Dawes Would Need Three.

There are 46 regular republicans in the senate. Only three other votes, which they might draw from the democrats, would be necessary to elect Charles G. Dawes, the republican vice presidential candidate.

But those who scoff at the republican prediction.

LA FOLLETTE RAPS FOREIGN POLICIES

Declares Traditional Course Abandoned Under Wilson and Expanded by Harding-Coolidge.

St. Louis, October 14.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, independent candidate for president, discussing foreign relations in a campaign speech here tonight, declared that "complete abandonment of the true American foreign policy came under the administration of Woodrow Wilson and has continued and expanded under the present Harding-Coolidge administration."

"It is true," said the Wisconsin senator, "that our departure from the traditional American policy began with the development of imperialism under William McKinley, following the Spanish-American war. The breach was broadened under Roosevelt and Taft."

Speaking in the coliseum, where Woodrow Wilson was renominated for the presidency in 1916, Senator La Follette told his audience that "Wilson was elected as an anti-imperialist and did, in fact, do much during the first two years of his administration to check the tendency towards imperialism by using his influence for Philippine independence, by curbing the extension of the dollar diplomacy, and by his attitude toward the Mexican revolution."

Charges Wilson Changed.

"When war was declared in Europe in the summer of 1914," continued Mr. La Follette, "President Wilson declared for absolute neutrality—neutrality in thought and word and deed. This was a true American policy. If this doctrine had been adhered to we would never have been drawn into war. We would be free from every form of foreign entanglement. We would have avoided at home the dire consequences of the last few years."

Sixty thousand American boys would still be alive. We would have been free from our heavy burden of taxation. We would have no problem of caring for hundreds of thousands of wounded, diseased and shell-shocked soldiers. We would not have American agriculture prostrate and demanding speedy relief.

We would have no such concentration of wealth in the hands of a few as we have witnessed in recent years. Above all, we should have proved our proud distinction of a nation steadfastly devoted to peace.

Had the plain principle of fair international law announced by Washington and Jefferson been followed, we would not have been called upon to declare war upon any of the belligerent nations of Europe. The fatal error came in the failure of Woodrow Wilson to treat the belligerent nations of Europe alike in the failure to reject the unlawful 'war zones' of both Germany and Great Britain.

Wilson Was Sincere.

"It do not doubt that President Wilson was sincere when he declared for absolute neutrality. I know the influence which surrounded him and

SOLDIERS OVERRUN PART OF SHANGHAI

Foreign Settlements Fear Serious Disorder May Follow the Invasion of Armed Troops.

Shanghai, October 14.—Chinese sections of Shanghai tonight were overrun with armed soldiers, raising new concern in the minds of authorities of the foreign settlements last some serious disorder occurred.

Arriving trains on the Shanghai-Nanking railway tonight brought 1,700 additional northern Hupeh province troops to reinforce those brought here to hold the city for the central Chinese government. In addition, the Chekiang troops, who had retreated into the city after their unsuccessful struggle to defend it, were said to total 5,500. Most of the soldiers are armed, and all of the Chekiang men are without leaders or fixed discipline.

Estimates were made tonight that 10,000 men who fought for the Chekiang cause have withdrawn into Shanghai and the districts around the city. Several companies, arriving in groups, brought with them from the fighting lines field and mountain artillery and their machine guns and automatic pistols.

A number of wounded arriving late today from the recent battle ground to the west reported that renewed clashes had broken out this afternoon

Hogs of Georgia Mayor Slashed By Farm Vandal

Enemy Blamed for Gashing Porkers About Sides and Backs.

Statesboro, Ga., October 14.—Mayor Charlie B. Griner, of Brooklet, found 15 fine hogs in one of his pens brutally slashed with a knife Monday.

One hog had a gash 30 inches long with an average depth of four inches across its back. Another hog had 26 gashes on its body. All 15 suffered at the hands of the marauder, every hog having a number of deep cuts on its sides and back. Mayor Griner found the hogs just a short while after they were wounded and immediately had them killed and dressed. The hogs made 2,500 pounds of dressed meat. Mr. Griner says that he has no idea who cut his hogs, but supposes that it was someone upon whom he had recently imposed a fine.

WYOMING WOMAN GETS NOMINATION AS NEXT GOVERNOR

Mrs. Ross Given Unanimous Vote From Democratic Convention—Her Opponent Withdraws.

Cheyenne, Wyo., October 14.—Mrs. Nellie G. Ross, widow of the late governor, William B. Ross, today was chosen unanimously as democratic nominee for governor. The emergency democratic state convention.

Mr. Ross was nominated by acclamation at the completion of the roll call of counties for nominating candidates.

Her name was formally placed before the convention by George W. Patterson, of Laramie. Only one other name, that of Patrick O'Connor, of Casper, was placed before the convention. Before the roll call had been two-thirds completed, however, O'Connor's name was withdrawn at his own request.

As the roll call proceeded, county after county endorsing the name of Mrs. Ross, the hall was in an uproar of applause.

When the last county had been heard from, the delegates, with a ringing chorus of "ayes," adopted the motion to make the nomination unanimous.

Although Wyoming as a territory in 1890 blazed the way for national woman suffrage by giving its women the right of the ballot, Mrs. Ross is the first woman ever to be nominated for such a high office there.

"I shall not make a campaign," Mrs. Ross declared. "My candidacy is in the hands of my friends. I shall not leave the house. If the voters of Wyoming have enough confidence in my ability to carry out the duties of governor, they will let me know at the polls."

GERMAN ZEPPELIN IS NEARING CLOSE OF HISTORIC FLIGHT

Bearings Lost for Two Hours Tuesday Night, But Radio Stations Supplied Them.

DIRIGIBLE MAY HEAD INTO MODERATE GALE

Hearty Welcomes Arranged for Naval Airmen When They Reach Landing Field.

BY UNITED NEWS.

After losing her way in a heavy mist last Tuesday night and finally guiding her course from bearings wireless from shore, the Zeppelin ZR-3 passed over North American soil for the first time and is now in the final hours of her flight across the Atlantic from Friedrichshafen.

One more weather barrier has yet to be surmounted before the ZR-3 can finish her successful trip to Lakehurst. The dirigible, at midnight, had passed the southern tip of Nova Scotia and apparently was headed in a southwesterly direction down the North American coast, about 275 miles from Boston and within 200 miles of the Maine coast.

Apparently she was headed into moderate gales, which the weather bureau has predicted will prevail between Newfoundland and New York, although a message to the Bar Harbor naval radio station, received at 12:03 and reporting the dirigible over the Seal Island lightship of Nova Scotia, failed to mention any untoward weather disturbances.

Bearings Sent Zeppelin.

For at least two hours Tuesday night the dirigible was casting about for her bearings, asking all stations and ships along her route to send her "MO," or bearings signal. The Bar Harbor station and Station WCC at Chatham complied, and soon afterward the ZR-3 was able to make known her position.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the Lakehurst flying field picked up the first definite message.

"Expect to reach Lakehurst before noon tomorrow," it said.

At 11:25 the ZR-3 reported to Station WCC that she was over the southern point of Nova Scotia.

Then at 12:09 a. m. Bar Harbor received the message placing her over the Seal Island lightship.

Previously, as the ZR-3 asked for her bearings, the naval communication office at Washington heard from the ship for the first time. It was unable, however, to establish two-way communication with her.

Meanwhile the powerful stations on shore waited anxiously for some indication as to whether the ZR-3 was about to be blown again from her course, as had happened earlier in the day when she was forced to switch from the Bermuda route and head toward Newfoundland. Heavy rains also influenced this change.

Customs Surveyor Reed, of the port

MAJOR SLASHED BY FARM VANDAL

Enemy Blamed for Gashing Porkers About Sides and Backs.

Statesboro, Ga., October 14.—Mayor Charlie B. Griner, of Brooklet, found 15 fine hogs in one of his pens brutally slashed with a knife Monday.

One hog had a gash 30 inches long with an average depth of four inches across its back. Another hog had 26 gashes on its body. All 15 suffered at the hands of the marauder, every hog having a number of deep cuts on its sides and back. Mayor Griner found the hogs just a short while after they were wounded and immediately had them killed and dressed. The hogs made 2,500 pounds of dressed meat. Mr. Griner says that he has no idea who cut his hogs, but supposes that it was someone upon whom he had recently imposed a fine.

WYOMING WOMAN GETS NOMINATION AS NEXT GOVERNOR

Mrs. Ross Given Unanimous Vote From Democratic Convention—Her Opponent Withdraws.

Cheyenne, Wyo., October 14.—Mrs. Nellie G. Ross, widow of the late governor, William B. Ross, today was chosen unanimously as democratic nominee for governor. The emergency democratic state convention.

Mr. Ross was nominated by acclamation at the completion of the roll call of counties for nominating candidates.

Her name was formally placed before the convention by George W. Patterson, of Laramie. Only one other name, that of Patrick O'Connor, of Casper, was placed before the convention. Before the roll call had been two-thirds completed, however, O'Connor's name was withdrawn at his own request.

As the roll call proceeded, county after county endorsing the name of Mrs. Ross, the hall was in an uproar of applause.

When the last county had been heard from, the delegates, with a ringing chorus of "ayes," adopted the motion to make the nomination unanimous.

Although Wyoming as a territory in 1890 blazed the way for national woman suffrage by giving its women the right of the ballot, Mrs. Ross is the first woman ever to be nominated for such a high office there.

"I shall not make a campaign," Mrs. Ross declared. "My candidacy is in the hands of my friends. I shall not leave the house. If the voters of Wyoming have enough confidence in my ability to carry out the duties of governor, they will let me know at the polls."

GERMAN ZEPPELIN IS NEARING CLOSE OF HISTORIC FLIGHT

Bearings Lost for Two Hours Tuesday Night, But Radio Stations Supplied Them.

DIRIGIBLE MAY HEAD INTO MODERATE GALE

Hearty Welcomes Arranged for Naval Airmen When They Reach Landing Field.

BY UNITED NEWS.

After losing her way in a heavy mist last Tuesday night and finally guiding her course from bearings wireless from shore, the Zeppelin ZR-3 passed over North American soil for the first time and is now in the final hours of her flight across the Atlantic from Friedrichshafen.

One more weather barrier has yet to be surmounted before the ZR-3 can finish her successful trip to Lakehurst. The dirigible, at midnight, had passed the southern tip of Nova Scotia and apparently was headed in a southwesterly direction down the North American coast, about 275 miles from Boston and within 200 miles of the Maine coast.

Apparently she was headed into moderate gales, which the weather bureau has predicted will prevail between Newfoundland and New York, although a message to the Bar Harbor naval radio station, received at 12:03 and reporting the dirigible over the Seal Island lightship of Nova Scotia, failed to mention any untoward weather disturbances.

Bearings Sent Zeppelin.

For at least two hours Tuesday night the dirigible was casting about for her bearings, asking all stations and ships along her route to send her "MO," or bearings signal. The Bar Harbor station and Station WCC at Chatham complied, and soon afterward the ZR-3 was able to make known her position.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the Lakehurst flying field picked up the first definite message.

"Expect to reach Lakehurst before noon tomorrow," it said.

At 11:25 the ZR-3 reported to Station WCC that she was over the southern point of Nova Scotia.

Then at 12:09 a. m. Bar Harbor received the message placing her over the Seal Island lightship.

Previously, as the ZR-3 asked for her bearings, the naval communication office at Washington heard from the ship for the first time. It was unable, however, to establish two-way communication with her.

Meanwhile the powerful stations on shore waited anxiously for some indication as to whether the ZR-3 was about to be blown again from her course, as had happened earlier in the day when she was forced to switch from the Bermuda route and head toward Newfoundland. Heavy rains also influenced this change.

Customs Surveyor Reed, of the port

The Weather FAIR.

Washington Forecast, October 14—Georgia: Fair Wednesday and Thursday; little change in temperature.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature..... 80
Lowest temperature..... 57
Mean temperature..... 68
Normal temperature..... 64
Rainfall in past 24 hours, in..... .00
Deficiency since 1st of month, in..... 1.84
Deficiency since Jan. 1, in..... 1.84

7 a. m. Noon. 7 p. m.

Dry bulb..... 58 76 75
Wet bulb..... 54 62 60
Relative humidity..... 78 83 81

SUES FOR $100,000 AFTER MUTILATION BY LEOPOLD, LOEB

Chicago, October 14.—A suit for $100,000 damages for mutilation alleged to have been incurred at the hands of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb was filed in circuit court today by Charles Ream, a taxi-cab driver.

Ream was attacked by two men last November 21, blindfolded, drugged and mutilated. After the arrest of Loeb and Leopold, now serving life terms in prison for the murder of Robert Franks, Ream claimed to identify the two rich men's sons as his assailants.

Young Leopold and Loeb, each of whom is 19 years old, are made defendants in the suit, in which Ream charges that they were the men who injured him after capturing and drugging him. He came to his senses in a prairie on the south side of the city, he said. Ream now claims that since the injury he has been unable to work.

SENSATIONAL Canned Fruit Sale!

4 CAR LOADS
DEL MONTE
FRUITS

4 CAR LOADS
DEL MONTE
FRUITS

Direct from Pacific Coast
For Our Atlanta Customers

Get Your Share at These Rock-Bottom Prices

WEDNESDAY — THURSDAY — FRIDAY

--- Or as Long as Our Stock Lasts

PRICES SHOT TO PIECES!

Never Before in History Have Our Atlanta Customers Had an Opportunity to Realize Such Savings on These High-Quality Canned Fruits as A&P, Through Its Large Buying Power and SUPER VALUE GIVING POLICY, Has Made Possible.

All Choicest New Pack—Direct From Coast

Compare These Prices With Our Regular Prices and Prices Elsewhere—You Save From 5c to 15c Per Can—BUY IN CASE LOTS—You Will Not Be Able to Duplicate These Prices This Season. NONE SOLD TO DEALERS OR MERCHANTS

These Prices Good in Adjacent Towns

In Order That Our Friends in Nearby Towns May Take Advantage of These Big Savings We Are Making These Same Prices in Newnan, Griffin, LaGrange, Rome, Marietta, Gainesville, Dalton and Opelika.

Del Monte PEACHES SLICED No. 1 Can 17c
SLICED or No. 2½ Can 24c
HALVES

Try These Delicious, Luscious Sliced Peaches—You Save 5c to 10c Per Can at This Price

Del Monte APRICOTS No. 2½ Can 24c
SAVE 8c PER CAN

Del Monte Fruits for Salad No. 2½ Can 39c
SAVE 10c PER CAN

Del Monte Royal Anne CHERRIES No. 1 Can 20c
SAVE 6c PER CAN

No. 2½ Can 29½c
SAVE 13c CAN

Del Monte ASPARAGUS Medium TIPS No. 1 Can 35c
SAVE 15c CAN

Sultana Red-Pitted PIE CHERRIES No. 2 Can 23c
SAVE 7c CAN

Del Monte PINEAPPLE SLICED No. 2 Can 23c
SAVE 9c CAN
No. 2½ Can 29c
SAVE 10c CAN
CRUSHED No. 2 Can 20c
SAVE 6c CAN
No. 1 Can 14c
SAVE 3c CAN

Lombard PLUMS No. 2 Can 14c
SAVE 11c CAN

"Safe Quality Assured"

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC CO.

"Where Economy
Rules"

ATLANTA BAPTISTS END SESSIONS TODAY

Spurred on by the enthusiasm manifested in sessions already held, the 16th annual convention of the Atlanta Baptist association will open its second-day session Wednesday with a devotional service to be conducted by R. K. Redwine, at the Second Baptist church at 1 o'clock.

Following this service Mrs. John S. Spaulding, active in Parent-Teacher and club circles of the city, will address the convention and report activities of the committee on education, of which she is chairman.

A discussion in regard to work to be undertaken by the association along Christian education lines will be heard.

At noon L. E. Roberts will make the principal address of the day on "The Atlanta Baptist Association in the Role of Spiritual Leadership." Other reports and short talks will be heard from the following prominent leaders in church and Sunday school activities: W. H. Faust, president of the Atlanta Baptist Sunday School association; Mrs. Harry Etheridge, acting superintendent of the Woman's Missionary union; Frank A. Hooper, Jr., president of the Atlanta Baptist Young Peoples' union; and Louie D. Newton, president of the Atlanta Baptist council.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session beginning at 2:30 o'clock, will be devoted to reports from the committee on convention missions, followed by a discussion of the future work to be undertaken along these lines. Mrs. C. W. King, is chairman of the committee and will make the report. Carlton W. Binns, chairman of the Bible Study and Training committee will submit his report to the convention and will lead in a discussion that will follow pertaining to the training of young people. The convention will close with reports from other committees on miscellaneous activities at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

The opening session of the convention was held Tuesday morning at the Second Baptist church, when Rev. L. E. Roberts, pastor of the College Park Baptist church, was elected moderator. About 800 Baptists, representing 59 Baptist churches in Atlanta and vicinity, were present at the opening session.

Leading features of the first day's session were adoption of resolutions calling upon the Georgia legislature to pass constructive legislation for the abolishment of child labor and providing pasteurization of milk, which was proposed by Bro. Eugene E. Johnson, pastor of the Oakdale City Baptist church and discussion of violations of the 18th amendment.

Mr. Jones stated that conditions in the country in regard to the amendment were 25 per cent better this year than last, but that there was a great deal of improvement yet to be made and urged that the association foster the movement. Juvenile crime also was discussed and he stated that the influence of a Christian home was a splendid solution for the curbing of juvenile crime.

Social Work Reports.

Reports on benevolent institutions and social service committees were also features of the morning session. Among the reports submitted to the convention were from the Georgia Baptist hospital, the Baptist orphanage and a committee on temperance. Dr. C. W. Daniels made an address concerning the work of the hospital. "The hospital is in good condition financially but in great need of more equipment," American College of Surgeons has rated the institution and the training. During the past year there were 3,295 persons treated, 273 of this number being charity patients.

Dr. W. H. Faust, pastor of Gordon Street Baptist church, made a report on the Orphan's Home, in Hapeville. According to the report the home is $26,000 in debt and this amount is increasing daily.

Rev. Luke Rader, pastor of Central Baptist church, conducted devotional services.

The associational sermon was delivered by Rev. J. L. Jackson.

Mission Budget O.K'd.

A devotional service conducted by J. P. Gore, opened the afternoon session of the convention. W. Lee Curtis submitted a report to the association from the executive committee, of which he is chairman. Addresses were heard from W. H. Major, associational director in Atlanta, and President D. J. Blocker, of Shorter college, Rome. The association voted a total budget of $187,000 for missions, education and benevolences for the coming year. Heretofore at the convention a budget was voted for a term of five years but the association adopted a resolution making a budget every year. The program outlined also was in conformity with the one-year resolution.

Dinner was served visitors at the church at noon by the ladies of the Second Baptist church.

Four new churches, were admitted to membership in the association, making a total of 63 churches at the present date. The churches admitted were Merritts Avenue church, Sylvester church, Northwest church and Richardson street church. T. J. Daniel, chairman of the application for membership committee, proposed the admittance of the new churches to the convention.

BROOKS AND LOWNDES WILL REBUILD BRIDGE

Valdosta, Ga., October 14.—(Special.)—County commissioners of Brooks and Lowndes counties have entered an agreement to rebuild the bridge joining the two counties and known as the Rocky Ford bridge. The cost of the bridge will be shared by the two counties on a basis of tax valuation.

Lowndes county has $12,000,000 valuation against $8,000,000 for Brooks. This will place about 60 per cent of the cost on Lowndes county and 40 per cent on Brooks. The bridge and its approaches have been in bad condition for several months.

One-Strap House Slippers
Rubber Heels
Sizes 3 to 8

$1

$2.50 to $2.95 House Slippers, one day only $1.95

Black Kid Boudoirs
Solid Leather
Today Only

$1

1,200 Pairs Dress or Tailored Slippers, drawn from Main Floor and Downstairs stocks, on account of incomplete size ranges in each style. Your choice for one day. Satins, Patents, Suedes, Kids. Today Only $2.95 Pr.

Extra values! Black Kid, two-strap slippers or low-heeled Black Lace Oxfords, $3.50 and $3.95 grades, one day only $2.95

DOWNSTAIRS
TODAY ONLY

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

Heat Your Office

Gas Steam Radiators
Will Do the Job

Each Gas Steam Radiator Is an Independent Steam Heating Plant. Turn One on or Turn All on. Each works by Itself. And You Pay Only for the Heat You Actually Need and Use.

Phone Us Today

Georgia Railway & Power Co.

RETAIL STORES:
ATLANTA — — — — 75 MARIETTA ST.
DECATUR — — — — 136 SYCAMORE ST.

HUBIG'S
FAMOUS HONEY-FRUIT
PIES
THE MORE YOU EAT—THE MORE YOU WANT
10¢ 20¢ 30¢
AT YOUR GROCERS

VITAMINE-EAT-FOOD
SKINNERS
The Superior
MACARONI

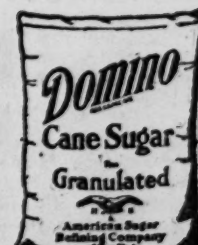

PIGGLY WIGGLY

FOR WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY ONLY

Domino Cane Sugar

5-lb. Cotton Bag 40c
10-lb. Cotton Bag 79c
25-lb. Cotton Bag $1.97

2 GEORGIANS' FATE RESTS WITH JURY

Warrenton, Ga., October 14.—The jury in the trial of Eugene Snider and Charlie Hattaway, charged with the murder of Hattie Wimberly, of Augusta, was still out at midnight. The case was given to the jury this morning by Judge E. T. Shurley.

Nine state witnesses testified that Snider and Hattie Wimberly had an altercation in Green county in which the girl was badly beaten, and that she later swore out a warrant for Snider at Greensboro. Other witnesses testified that on the Sunday before the killing Snider and Hattaway had remarked in their presence that unless the girl refrained from talking they would put her in the river.

Both Snider and Hattaway told the jury that the shot that killed Hattie Wimberly was fired accidentally. The state introduced expert testimony to show that the pistol used in the killing could not be fired by having the hammer struck as the defendants claimed.

BRANDEGEE DEATH DUE TO FINANCES

Continued From Page 1.

sulting from investments in real estate.

The following statement was issued by Secretary Weeks through the republican national committee:

"I exceedingly regret to learn that Senator Frank B. Brandegee has committed suicide. I have been entirely familiar with his personal business affairs, and I know that the reason for taking this rash step is due to personal financial troubles resulting from investments in real estate."

Representative John Q. Tilson, of New Haven, Conn., in charge of the republican speakers' bureau of the eastern states, said: "I am very much shocked, when informed by The Associated Press of the death of Senator Brandegee."

FINANCIAL WORRIES CAUSE HIS SUICIDE

SENATOR BRANDEGEE.

"I knew for some time of his failing health and his financial troubles," Mr. Tilson said. "It is a great shock to all of us in Connecticut. Senator Brandegee became strong and influential and came to be recognized as one of the leaders of the senate."

COOLIDGE TELEGRAPHS ATLANTA RELATIVE.

Washington, October 14.—President Coolidge expressed his sympathy over the death of Senator Brandegee in a message to Colonel M. G. Zalinski of Atlanta, Ga., a brother-in-law of the senator.

"The loss of Senator Brandegee," the president said, "is a deep grief to all of us who have been associated with him. He had been one of the active and energetic leaders of the senate for years and one of the prominent men of Connecticut for a long time. He had a high appreciation of the requirements of public service. He was a faithful friend and a most industrious and painstaking legislator. With respect to you my sincere sympathy."

Colonel M. G. Zalinski, brother-in-law of the deceased senator, is quartermaster colonel for the fourth corps area of the United States army, with headquarters here, and is well known in Atlanta military and social circles. He was transferred to Atlanta from Washington early in July of this year and lives with his wife at the Atlanta Biltmore.

SPECIAL ELECTION WILL BE NECESSARY.

New Haven, Conn., October 14.—The death of Senator Frank B. Brandegee in Washington today necessitates the holding of a special election to fill the vacancy. The time for filing nominations for the regular election on November 4 expired today.

LA FOLLETTE LAMENTS DEATH OF BRANDEGEE.

St. Louis, October 14.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, independent presidential candidate, issued this statement today: "I am greatly shocked to learn of Senator Frank Brandegee's sudden death. He and I never were in agreement on economic issues, but through years of association we had established a friendship which makes his death a personal loss."

BRANDEGEE'S COLLEAGUE PAYS FERVID TRIBUTE.

Hartford, Conn., October 14.—Senator George P. McLean, of Simsbury, Senator Brandegee's colleague in the upper house in Washington, speaking of the latter's death, said:

"Senator Brandegee's tragic death is inexpressible sad. Two years ago more, his health was greatly impaired by an obscure disease following an attack of influenza. For months his temperature was above normal and his physicians were unable to locate the cause. At that time he wanted to resign, and it was only at the earnest solicitation of his friends that he remained in the senate. He was somewhat better in the summer of 1923, but last winter the trouble returned with renewed vigor. I met him in New York about the middle of August last, and I was startled at his appearance. He told me then that he was fast losing his courage. If he laid his burdens down voluntarily, his fellow citizens may rest assured that disease and misfortune had driven reason from one of the brightest and bravest minds in the senate."

BORAH LIKELY TO HEAD JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

Washington, October 14.—Through the death of Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, by suicide, Senator Borah, of Idaho, will succeed to a place of greater power in the senate. Under the rule of priority, Borah will move up to the chairmanship of the judiciary committee, one of the most powerful committees in the senate, which handles all questions of constitutionality. Borah was second in line of this committee, of which Brandegee was chairman.

Borah is already chairman of the committee on education and labor, another important post, and is ranking republican member on the foreign relations committee, of which Senator Lodge is chairman. With Borah's accession to its chairmanship, the judiciary committee will be controlled by irregular republicans and democrats, since Norris, of Nebraska, is also a member. Borah and Norris will hold the balance of power among seven regular republicans and seven democrats, among the latter senators as Reed, of Missouri; Walsh, of Montana; and Caraway, of Arkansas.

DEMOCRATS DECRY GOSSIP OF BRYAN

Continued From Page 1.

can prediction say there is no chance of the election going the senate if it is thrown into congress.

There is a deadlock in the house at present, with 22 votes republican, 20 democratic, and one Wisconsin, for La Follette, with five states deadlocked because of an even number of democrats and republicans in their delegations. One representative of each of these deadlocked delegations can break the deadlock and change the vote, and it is held that this will be done in some sort of a deal, so that the election will be decided in the house.

"Nick Longworth will never let the election go to the senate—he will work out some kind of a compromise," one observer said.

Longworth is compromiser. Longworth is republican floor leader. His ability to secure compromises against great odds was shown last session, when he swung the La Follette forces in the house for a compromise tax plan against the democratic schedules.

Of course, there will be much passing of words between leaders of the house and senate while the election is going on in the house. Senators, knowing the alternative of a choice of vice presidential candidates, if it is left to them, are expected to lend their aid in working out a solution by the lower body of the tangle which would result if there were no election at the polls.

PROPERTY RIGHTS HAVE LIMITATIONS, HIGH COURT RULES

The constitutional guarantee of protection to property does not extend to property held for unlawful purposes, according to a decision Tuesday morning by the Georgia supreme court in the case of Jack Lynch vs. the State, appealed from Bibb superior court.

Lynch was indicted for having in his possession dynamite, use of which and other paraphernalia commonly used in safe-blowing. He entered a demurrer to the indictment, claiming his rights as a citizen for protection to his property and liberty. The lower court overruled the demurrer and Lynch was convicted.

The supreme court upheld the lower court in its action on the demurrer as well as in the verdict and sentence after the trial.

ZR-3 IS EXPECTED AT LAKEHURST TODAY

Continued From Page 1.

of Philadelphia, within whose jurisdiction Lakehurst falls, will be on hand to examine the ZR-3 and issue clean bills of health for her crew, just as he does when an ocean liner reaches port.

Examination Is Formality.

Reed's procedure, of course, will be a mere formality. Hearty welcomes have been arranged by the naval air men for their German comrades. Quarters of both the officers and crew of the incoming ship have been banked with flowers. City Magistrate Oberwager, of New York, president of the United German societies, was delegated by Mayor Hyman to deliver to the visitors a letter expressing New York's greetings.

MESSAGE ABOUT FLIGHT RECEIVED AT CAPITAL.

Washington, October 14.—The first description of the flight of the ZR-3, sailing how the giant dirigible had to change its course, how the hot weather bothered those aboard, and of messages to passing ships as she winged her way toward the shores of this country came in a radio message to Admiral Eberle, chief of naval operations, from Captain George W. Steele, naval observer aboard.

The message, which described the ZR-3 as the "stadiest it has ever been," was relayed to Admiral Eberle here Monday night by the Radio Corporation of America at New York. The message from Captain Steele said:

"ZR-3 continued during night under four engines, making 27 knots air speed, but held back by southwesterly winds to 30 knots or less over the ground of course. 2000 miles.

Changed Course Northward.

"On account of unfavorable local conditions and reports indicating better conditions to the northward, changed at 8 a. m. zone three time, to northward. Weather clearing on this course."

"Passed above British steamer 'Robert Doherty' at 9:20. She hoisted colors and steamer 'President Harding' radioed last night, tendering assistance. The ZR-3 answered: 'Thank you, captain, we don't need help yet. We have fuel left for about 56 hours, half of original supply.'

"Rose to 8,000 feet height at 9:30 and blew 50 valves until gas cells contained about 80 per cent more of hydrogen. This height took us above the lower clouds. Glad to get up where it's cooler. So hot at night, hardly slept. Temperature 72 outside, 75 in cabin."

"Dropped to 1,000 altitude at 10:30. This airship steadiest ever been."

No Message All Day.

The navy department waited all day Tuesday for a direct message from the dirigible, but there was no word.

It was expected that direct communication would be established during the night. Though it had not been receiving direct reports from the Z-3, the navy department relayed weather observations from the weather bureau which prepared a special forecast. Fresh northerly winds, which probably would bring showers, would be encountered by the ZR-3 along her last dash across the ocean to Lakehurst, N. J., according to the weather bureau.

TOUR OF SEVERAL CITIES PLANNED BEFORE LANDING.

Lakehurst, N. J., October 14.—(By The Associated Press.)—Captain Anton Heinen, who took the Shenandoah on her maiden flight, and P. W. von Meister, American representative of the Meibach Motor company, declared today upon arriving here to await the coming of the ZR-3, that they had definite information she would make a considerable tour of the Atlantic coast cities before landing here.

The ZR-3 will reach the American coast in the early hours tomorrow morning," said Captain Heinen. "She is headed for New York. She will pass over that city, probably Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and intervening cities, and will return here to land just before dusk tomorrow night."

Captain Heinen declared he was convinced the dirigible was running on three motors, according to plan, and that before she berthed here she would total more than 5,000 miles, thus breaking the record of 3,750 miles made during a war-time invasion of enemy territory by the German Zeppelin L-33.

Captain Heinen declared he had intimate knowledge of the plans of the Zeppelin company and of Dr. Hugo Eckener, president and commander of the Zeppelin on this flight. His statements were corroborated by Mr. von Meister, here in the interests of the German corporation, which manufactured the motors carried by the ZR-3.

GERMANS TO RETAIN 25 PER CENT INTEREST.

Lakehurst, N. J., October 14.—German aeronautics experts here to await the ZR-3 reported today the conclusion of a contract whereby heads of the dirigible industry in Germany would retain a 25 per cent interest in Zeppelin-type craft to be manufactured in the United States by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company.

The agreement was said to have been reached only after the Germans had relinquished their original demand for a 50 per cent interest in the American end of the industry. Information here was that the contract included the prospective formation of a Goodyear-Zeppelin corporation. It has been known for some time that the Goodyear interests were negotiating for Zeppelin patents, which would become useless to the holders when the Friedrichshafen plant is demolished, in accordance with the allies' stipulation, upon completion of the ZR-3.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS PUT INTO EFFECT.

Lakehurst, N. J., October 14.—(By The Associated Press.)—Drastic safeguards against possible inflammation and explosion of the hydrogen-inflated ZR-3 went into force at this station on orders of Acting Commander Pierce today.

From now until the giant dirigible arrives and can be emptied of the treacherous gas, every lesson taught by the tragic fates of her predecessor, the R-38, the Roma, and the Dixmude, will be kept in mind by every man on Lakehurst field.

When the ZR-3's 2,500,000 cubic feet of hydrogen are let into the air and the capacity chamber between her ribs are refilled with non-explosive helium, such as floats the Shenandoah, the safety precautions will remain rigidly in force.

FIVE MEALS SERVED DAILY TO ZR-3 CREW.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, October 14.—(By The Associated Press.)—The German crew of the ZR-3 and their American officer passengers are enjoying the following menus, according to the arrangements worked out in detail before the dirigible left Friedrichshafen:

Breakfast—Coffee, cocoa, zwieback, porridge, apple jelly and braunschweiger mettwurst.

Dinner—Raisin soup, sirloin steak, carrots, peas, potatoes, apple sauce, Vienna cakes.

4 O'clock luncheon—Tea cakes, Bavarian beer and wurst.

Supper—Irish stew and tea.

Midnight luncheon—Coffee, cocoa, zwieback, ribs of pork, frankfurter with mustard.

As tomorrow may be the last day prior to landing, a captain's dinner will be served and there are several extras scheduled which might complicate affairs if the ship happens to be above the American 12-mile limit. These extras, however, do not appear on the printed menu for the dinner.

In the event the voyage should be prolonged beyond the scheduled time, there are plenty of rations aboard to care for the contingency.

Beneficial loans

QUICK LOANS on House Furniture Without Removal

Your money needs can be privately and quickly adjusted by a BENEFICIAL loan up to $300. We finance housekeepers, property owners, salaried men. Self-respecting loans at low rates repaid in 10 to 20 months. Financed and directed by local business men.

"True Story of a Loan" in picture most interesting. Your copy mailed on request.

BENEFICIAL LOAN SOCIETY

Phone Walnut 555-9
Marion and Fourth Sts.
Room 421 Palmer Bldg.

J. M. HIGH CO.

For Wednesday, Oct. 15th

Good Materials Are the Foundation of the Captivating Charm of These Unusual Fall Frocks

HERE are dresses with that indescribable something we call charm. But all their charm would be of no avail if their materials were unworthy. And that is not the case!

$24⁷⁵

These dresses, like all frocks at High's were carefully chosen. They're as good as they look—which is indeed good!

There are silk dresses and wool dresses to choose from. The silk frocks are fashioned of lustrous satin faced crepe, dull crepe, flat crepe or bengaline. These are slim and straight—in tunic, coat, Russian or straight, belted styles. Beaded, embroidered, appliqued and trimmed with bands of self materials—satin on dull crepe or dull crepe on satin. The wool frocks are of charmeuse, twillocheen and wool rep. In stunning coat styles, simulated tunic effects and straight, belted models. In brown, navy and black. Trimmed with embroidery, tucks, silk and contrasting self material.

Here Are New Dresses That Are Both Practical and Pretty---Economical, Too

Wool Flannel Frocks

TWELVE-FIFTY — one would hardly expect more than a house frock for such a little price. It seems scarcely possible that one could buy goodness of material and smartness for so little!

$12⁵⁰

These are smart frocks for the business woman to wear every day; for the teacher; for the college miss and the matron.

There are many styles to choose from. Some of them have V necks, some round necks and some square necks. Some of them have small round collars. Some of them have mannish ties. Some have buttons all the way down the front—or in tailored groups at the side. Some have the stripes turned circular-wise on the skirts and there are some of these dresses in plaids. You'll find them in various color combinations—in fact, you can find just about any combination of color that you choose.

High's Dress Section—Second Floor

YOU may know something of the Elks National Memorial Headquarters Building. We show above an illustration of this beautiful structure now rising in Chicago.

It is a memorial to the members of this Order—more than 1200—who gave their lives to their country during the Great War; and the more than 70,000 who showed their willingness to do so by entering the service of their country.

It is to be also the National Headquarters of the Order; an imposing and significant monument to the aims and ideals of a great company of men whose interest in the affairs of peace are as great as in the affairs of war; men who seek to promote better communities where they live; better citizenship, better homes.

The Elks Magazine is the medium by which these members of a great Order—850,000 of them—keep in touch with the work of the Order. It is a good magazine for the home; it goes to homes. It is a good "advertising medium" because of these things.

The Elks Magazine

850,000 identified reader-owners

50 EAST 42ND STREET - NEW YORK CITY

HEARTBURN

Gas, belching, sour risings and such distresses that rob you of life's chief delight—a relish for the good things of the table—are so quickly relieved with one or two

STUART'S Dyspepsia Tablets

that you then tackle pie, cheese, pickles, milk, fried eggs, bacon, onions, sausage and buckwheat cakes with the utmost unconcern. These tablets give your stomach the alkaline effect, they aid digestion, they give the stomach a rest, you really enjoy meals that you were afraid to even look at.

AT ALL DRUGGISTS

NEW MODEL 10

"Your New Model 10 occupies an important place in our organization."—Arthur May, Pres. American Mills, Atlanta.

See it and listen to it at your office or ours.

Walnut 5419

430 Metropolitan Bldg.

Atlanta

TAE DICTAPHONE

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

This is Different from all other laxatives and reliefs for

Defective Elimination Constipation
Biliousness

The action of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is more natural and thorough. The effects will be a revelation—you will feel so good. Make the test. You will appreciate this difference.

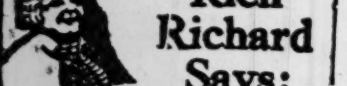

Used For Over
Thirty Years

Chips off the Old Block

NR TABLETS—Little NRs

The same NR—in one-third dose, candy-coated. For children and adults.

SOLD BY YOUR DRUGGIST

Rich Richard Says:

A LITTLE too late, much too late. There's only one way to meet opportunities on the dot—and that's through the Classified Ads.

Read them today!

(Copyright, 1924.)

EXPOSITION DATES FIXED FOR SAVANNAH

As the result of the first official meeting of the world's fair and maritime exposition commission, appointed by the Georgia general assembly two years ago, a definite program was mapped out Tuesday for the furtherance of the two exhibitions at Savannah.

Members of the commission present were Mills B. Lane, Savannah, chairman; F. M. Oliver, of Savannah; H. M. Stanley, Georgia commissioner of commerce and labor; Dr. Clarence J. Owens, president of the Southern Commercial congress, and others.

Dr. Owens was appointed director general of the movement, and will leave shortly for Washington where he will confer with government and Latin-American officials.

It was decided to have separate anniversaries, the maritime exposition, which proposed to commemorate the birth of steam navigation at Savannah, to be staged from October, 1926, to October, 1927, while the proposed world's fair is scheduled for 1922 and will likewise commemorate the founding of the first Georgia settlement of the port city.

The meeting Tuesday went on record as requesting congress to invite all nations of the world to participate in the maritime exposition by sending their ships to the event. Every state in the union will also be invited to participate.

F. M. Oliver, of Savannah, was appointed vice chairman, succeeding Clement S. Ucker, also of Savannah. Thomas J. Hamilton, editor of The Augusta Chronicle, was named to succeed Jacob Phinizie, deceased; L. A. Downs, president of the Central of Georgia railway, succeeded W. A. Winburn, deceased; and S. G. McLenon, succeeded J. R. Howard, who has moved from Atlanta to Memphis, Tenn.

The next meeting of the commission will be held November 18.

INSURANCE PREMIUM HIKE TO BE DEBATED

Hearing on a proposed increase average of 20.3 per cent in premiums on workmen's compensation insurance in Georgia will be held in the senate chamber at the state capitol Tuesday, October 28, it was announced Tuesday at the office of General William A. Wright, state insurance commissioner.

Increased rates were originally requested by the insurance companies in January, 1924, according to a statement given out Tuesday. The latest available experience on file with the National Council of Workmen's compensation, of New York, whereby each industry is treated upon its own merits.

"While the majority of the rates," said Mr. Watson, "are recommended by carriers for increase there are some that will receive the benefit of a reduction. The insurance commissioner, who is vested with authority by law to approve or disapprove all rates for the form of coverage, neither officially approved nor disapproved the increase when originally filed, but permitted the carriers to use the new rates subject to objection by the policyholders."

Objections to the new rates, however, were filed by the Georgia Manufacturers' association and the Cotton Manufacturers' association of Georgia, on March 1, 1924, alleging that Georgia manufacturers had not been given an opportunity to present their side of the case. The new rates were then suspended by the commissioner until such time as the manufacturers could prepare data to refute the companies' arguments for increase.

All available data has been collected by the insurance commissioner on the subject, and it is hoped, said Mr. Watson, that a final decision may be reached at the hearing on October 28.

Formal creation of the Benning national forest, the third in Georgia, near Columbus, by proclamation of the president, was announced here Tuesday in a communication from the department of agriculture. This forest is within the area of the Fort Benning military reservation, its boundaries including about 80 per cent of the 78,500 acres included in the reservation.

This new forest was created under authority of the Clarke-Murphy act of June 1924, which provides that national forests may be created on existing military and naval reservations with consent of the cabinet officers whose department controls such reservation and subject to military regulation mutually agreed upon. Use of the Benning forest for military operations by the war department is provided under the agreement.

Southern pine timber is growing on the Benning area and the forest service expects to harvest products both for military use and for sale. One-fourth of the receipts from the forest will be turned back to the counties in which the forest is situated for school and road funds. An additional 10 per cent of the receipts will be spent by the forest service on roads and trails within the area.

Other national forests in Georgia are the Cherokee and the Nantahala, both located in the northeastern section of the state.

Auto Turns Ram Battering House And Cars in Wake

R. A. Burke, 30, of 219 West Peachtree street, and his automobile ran amuck Tuesday night. The result was that Bob Hunter, a negro of 253 Piedmont avenue, had a goodly portion of his personal property seriously damaged, including two automobiles and the front section of his home.

According to Motorcycle Officers D. J. Taylor and R. E. Pettis, who finally halted the automobile which was transformed into a veritable battering ram, this is the way it happened: Burke, in his car, was traveling along Piedmont avenue without an obstacle until he crashed into and badly damaged a Packard automobile belonging to Hunter. He righted his car and continued down Piedmont avenue, but had gone only a short distance when he had another crash. This time it was another of Hunter's cars, a Ford. Stopping only momentarily to untangle his car, Burke turned into Harris street and the car stopped on a slight incline. He cranked up the machine, which happened to be in reverse gear at the time, and the car backed into the front porch of a house on Piedmont avenue. The house, too, belonged to Hunter.

Officers Taylor and Pettis, after turning off the motor of the car, carried Burke to a police station, where he was held under $500 bond on a charge of operating an automobile under the influence of whisky.

The damage to the three automobiles and the front portion of Hunter's home is estimated at $2,000.

POLITICS TO STAY OFF M'ADOO DIET FOR A WEEK MORE

Baltimore, October 14.—William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, who is a patient at Johns Hopkins hospital here, probably will have to remain at the institution another week, his physician, Dr. Hugh H. Young, said tonight. The physician added that McAdoo should not undertake work in the presidential campaign until some time after his release.

McAdoo underwent an operation for the removal of gravel from the bladder about nine days ago. His convalescence, Dr. Young said, is necessarily slow, although the operation was entirely satisfactory.

Shorter Students Feted.

Rome, Ga., October 14.—(Special.) Dr. D. J. Blocker, president of Shorter college, and Mrs. Blocker were hosts Monday evening, entertaining with a dinner in the college dining hall the student body. The affair, which celebrated the birthday anniversary of the host, was the outstanding social event of the fall at Shorter. A program of toasts and brief addresses was carried out. The Nixon orchestra furnished music. Miss Louise Dye, president of the student council, offered a toast to Dr. Blocker.

Custodian of U. S.

Building on Trial On Liquor Charge

Charged with violating the national prohibition law, specific charges being that one pint of liquor was found in his possession, and that he gave information leading to the purchase of a quart of liquor, U. S. Seals, assistant custodian of the Atlanta postoffice building, went on trial yesterday before Judge Samuel H. Sibley, in district federal court.

Seals was arrested in his office several months ago by George E. Golding, special officer for the intelligence unit of the bureau of internal revenue, and Prohibition Agent A. C. Sowell, after the officers are alleged to have found a pint of liquor in the assistant custodian's office.

John J. Hickey, of Washington, D. C., alias William H. Frye, who is said to have worked up a friendship with Seals during several days preceding the bureau of internal revenue, and Prohibition Agent A. C. Sowell, after the officers are alleged to have found a pint of liquor in the assistant custodian's office.

While the defense had introduced no evidence Tuesday, statements made by Seals at the time of his arrest are expected to form the basis of his defense. He alleges that Hickey, known to him as "Frye," represented himself as a second-hand automobile dealer and that he lingered about his office much while in Atlanta.

Seals claimed that "Frye" asked about the possibility of purchasing some liquor and that a janitor was called and requested to purchase the desired quantity of liquid. It is claimed by the prosecution that Seals supplied the information upon which this purchase was made. Seals denies this. He admits that the pint of liquor was found in his office by the arresting officers, but declares that this liquor was brought to him by a janitor, who said he found it in the building.

Hickey Is Indicted.

Government officers admitted on the stand Tuesday that Hickey has been indicted by a District of Columbia grand jury on charges of violating the prohibition law. Officer Golding, answering a furious fire of questions from Attorney W. Paul Carpenter, defense attorney declared that Hickey was indicted as an aid to a warding off suspicion from bootleggers among whom this "undercover man" was sent to work.

The circumstance under which Seals was arrested lends color to the legal battle now being waged, and both government officials and others are attending the trial in large numbers. District Attorney Clint W. Hager is conducting the prosecution of Seals.

GEORGIA TECH LEADS WITH 2,830 STUDENTS

Despite the loss of many government rehabilitation students the Georgia School of Technology again leads schools and colleges of the south-east in early fall registration with 2,830. Because of insufficient maintenance funds, administration officials declare that more than 300 students were turned away in one department.

Loss in government rehabilitation students is explained by the fact that the government is gradually discontinuing this phase of bureau work. However, it is was discovered, when all registrants had been entered that the senior class for this year will number nearly 300 students, or 27 more than graduated last year.

Regular collegiate department enrollment, 1,867; Evening School of Commerce, 305; Evening School of Applied Science, 185; Rehabilitation students, 348; listed as extra summer school students, 125.

Departments are: Electrical engineering, 595; School of Commerce, 474; Co-Op courses, 283; Civil engineering, 163; Chemical engineering, 159; Mechanical engineering, 132; Architecture, 103; Specials, 52; General Science 39; Graduate students, 4.

1:00 P. M. Daily
Fast Train to Macon. Steel
Coaches and Parlor Car.
Central of Georgia Railway.

1891—Atlanta—Chattanooga—1924
Columbus

32 Years' Experience in High Class Dental Practice

Always pursuing a policy of doing best grade work at the lowest possible prices

Set of Teeth $7

Crown and Bridge Work
$3.50 Per Tooth

All Other Work in Proportion

SPECIAL NOTICE

DR. E. G. GRIFFIN'S

Gate City Dental Parlors

63½ Whitehall St.

Lady Attendant. Phone MAin 1708. Hours 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN

SAY "BAYER ASPIRIN" and INSIST!

Unless you see the "Bayer Cross" on tablets you are not getting the genuine Bayer Aspirin proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians 24 years for

Colds Headache Neuralgia Lumbago
Pain Toothache Neuritis Rheumatism

Safe Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.
Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets
Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monosodiumsalicylate of Salicylicacid

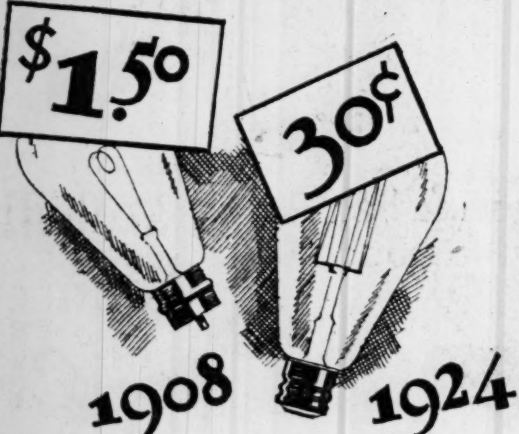

"When You Pay Cash You Pay Less" PAINT---GLASS

Save 15% to 30% on every purchase and be sure of quality merchandise.

Cash Paint and Glass Co.

85 Marietta St. WALnut 2434

4 Doors Beyond Gas and Electric Building

Twenty-one Times As Much for the Money

The 40-watt lamp of today gives twenty-one times as much light for the money as the original 16-candle-power carbon lamps.

The price of lamps has decreased steadily as their efficiency and use have increased.

Keep your Electric Sockets supplied with new, clear lamps, and get more for your money.

GEORGIA RAILWAY & POWER CO.

ATLANTA—75 Marietta St.

DECATUR CORNELIA CARROLLTON CONYERS GAINESVILLE LITHONIA HARTWELL SUMMERVILLE

Established 1860

Buy the best
—it pays!

WINDOW
SHADE
FABRICS

Hartshorn
SHADE
ROLLERS

Permanent roads are a good investment
—not an expense

How the Motor Industry Set the Pace for Highway Building

The "horseless carriage" of yesterday is now being produced as the modern automobile at the rate of 4,000,000 a year. The total number of motor vehicles registered in the United States is over 16,000,000.

And automobiles built today are more than ever capable of economically serving both business and recreation needs.

But there is an obstacle standing in the way of their maximum service to owners.

For while the automobile industry made paved highways an economic necessity, the mileage of such roads is today years behind the requirements of modern traffic.

Happily motorists everywhere are boosting for more and wider paved highways.

And extensive experience has taught them that Concrete Highways are one of the best all-around investments they can make—an investment that pays big dividends.

As one of our 16,000,000 motorists you know better than anyone else the need for more and wider Concrete Roads. Start now to help your local officials provide them.

PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION

Hurt Building
ATLANTA, GA.

A National Organization to Improve and Extend the Uses of Concrete

OFFICES IN 29 CITIES

Here is one of Grant's Big Values

64 inch
Mercerized
Table
Damask
(Cotton)

A real substitute for linen. Highly finished in beautiful patterns—
a 69c value.

Grant Price

50c yd.

Not an ordinary towel, but Cannon Bath Towels.

TURKISH TOWEL

29c

Size 24x48. First Quality.

A rare opportunity is offered here to the woman who knows!

36" LONG CLOTH

10 yard pieces.

14c yard

Regular 25c quality.

Next to silk in appearance.

Washable Fibre
Vests

A real substitute for silk. White only.
Ribbon straps.

89c

Ginghams which will stand continuous washing.

Girls Gingham
Dresses
$1.00

Sizes 7 to 14. Pockets, belts, and stylish, too.

Here is real loveliness combined with true economy!
PANTY DRESS
$1.00

A genuine English print in high colors. It is hand-embroidered, white linen trimming. Sizes 2 to 6. Usually sells for much more.

Good Looking—Well
Made of Fine Suitings
—and Economical

Men's Caps

fall styles, fall materials, ready now when you need them. For dress or play.

$1.00

New for Schoolwear

Boys'
CAPS

Well made of quality suitings.

Boys' sizes.

59c

M 118

MEN'S

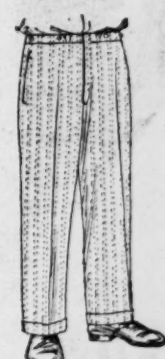

VERY SPECIAL

Silk and Wool Ties

50c

Latest Colors and Patterns

Of substantial workmanship—they will save your more expensive ones.

MEN'S PANTS
$1.00

Plain striped, cuff bottoms. Sizes 36 to 44, assorted colors.

Not Only Wear Well — But Look
Well — They're So Correctly Made

BOYS'
KNICKERS

Either long wearing corduroy or more dressy cashmere.

$1.00

Sizes 6 to 16.

Warm, good-looking and an amazingly low price!

BOYS' CORDUROY SUITS
$1.00

Blue and brown only.
Sizes 3 to 8 years. Usually sell for $2.00. A limited quantity only—come early.

Atlanta's New Economy Store

W. T. Grant Co.

52-54-56 Whitehall Street

Rich's Basement Harvest Sale

$1.25 Gowns 98c

Women's flannellette gowns. White, pink and blue stripes; with or without collars. Regular and extra sizes.

Hose, 49c

Women's silk fibre hose. Lisle tops, toes and heel for extra service. All colors. Slightly irregular.

Corsets, 98c

Thomson's glove-fitting girdles and corsets. Made of excellent quality flesh coutil, fitted with four hose supporters. 32 to 30.

Confiners 39c

Bust confiners in flesh brocade and wash satin. Elastic and fastening in back. Super values you'll admit. 32 to 40.

Sox, 5c

300 pairs children's cotton sox. Fine ribbed turn back cuffs. Pongee, cardinal, navy and white. 4 1/2 to 9.

Gowns, 75c

Children's flannellette gowns. White with pink or blue stripes. With or without collars. 4 to 14 years.

Bulbs, Doz. 29c

Holland bulbs—paper white narcissus—Darwin and early tulips. Less than half the usual price. 29c doz.

Purses, 98c

Pocketbooks of marvelous value! Harvest gifts from a well-known manufacturer. Patent leather and assorted leathers. Both black and brown.

SALE OF HOUSE FROCKS

A House Frock Sensation No Woman Can Afford To Miss

95c

Newest Fashions

In every one of these graceful House Frocks you will find an irresistible style—smarter and more advanced than those you ordinarily see. All the smart models are extremely well cut. Blouse Frocks in dignified treatments especially designed for the women's figure. They are the low-waisted, straight-line styles so much in vogue.

Stout women will find specially designed slenderizing models.

These House Frocks possess every feature that the most particular woman could ask for in cut and finish.

Materials

95c

All the House Frocks are fashioned of Amoskeag ginghams and Scout percales in guaranteed fast colors.

There are hundreds of pretty new patterns now so much in the limelight of fashion.

All women are familiar with the well-known fabrics found in these garments. They enjoy a firmly established reputation for colors that are sun-fast and tub-fast.

Styles

Included in this assortment of House Frocks are styles and sizes for young maids, comely matrons and stout women.

The style assortment is so complete that any woman, regardless of her taste, can find just the type model best suited to her.

Each one of the House Frocks is a masterpiece in both workmanship and design. Their finish and smart design are the acme of perfection.

Trimmings are most desirable. Different applications of dainty piques, organdies, ric-rac and combination pipings in harmonizing and contrasting colors give distinction to the models. Unusual sleeves and large novel pockets increase the beauty and charm of styles.

Come early and make your selection from original assortment.

95c

Mail Orders Filled. Parcel Post Prepaid.

Carefully Tailored

These House Frocks are not merely sewed but are carefully tailored and have the same finish you insist on having in selecting your street apparel.

Natural sloping shaped shoulders fashioned to show natural contour of shoulders—comfortable well fitting sleeves—new style extension cuffs—perfect fitting collar—desirable neckline—felled seams—full length sash in fashionable width. And liberal wide hems.

Gathered at front and back—joined at waist—and shirred at hips—creating a most perfect fit. Carefully designed to insure maximum style, comfort and service.

Mail Orders Filled. Parcel Post Prepaid.

HIGHWAY FATALITIES FOR 1923 TOTAL 22,621

Washington, October 14.—Highway fatalities in the United States are estimated by the census bureau at 22,621 for 1923, or an increase of 3,255 over the previous year.

The 1923 death rate from highway accidents was 20.4 per 100,000 population as compared with 17.6 in 1922. This increase was largely due to the increase of 2,776 deaths in the estimated number of fatalities from automobile accidents.

But even the 16,452 deaths charged against the automobile, do not tell the whole story, as death resulting from collisions between automobiles and railroad trains and between automobiles and street cars are charged to the heavier vehicle. Two thousand fatalities from such collisions in 1923 is a conservative estimate for the United States, the bureau said. If this figure and the fatalities from motorcycle accidents be added to the

Baker's Cocoa

There are twenty-five to thirty different grades of cocoa beans, but Baker's Cocoa is made of high-grade beans only. That is one reason why it is better.

Walter Baker & Co. Ltd.
ESTABLISHED 1760
Dorchester, Mass. Montreal, Can.
BOOKLET OF CHOICE RECIPES SENT FREE

Growing Sicker and Sicker Can't Hold His Own!

Tell Him to Try This Wonderful Remedy

This man is just like thousands who are all run down and yet are trying to keep up with active, healthy fellows.

He is like an engine with a leaky valve which can't deliver its full power. How can he expect to do his part unless he builds his health up to normal? What he needs is the old tried remedy which has given renewed strength to millions.

For years doctors have prescribed iron, quinine and strychnine to restore strength and energy to men and women suffering from weakness

Dr. West's I-Que-S

Let it help you to get back to normal as it has helped others. Your druggist has it, or you can send $1 to us and we will see you are supplied at once. Address Dr. West, 22nd Street and Millard Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Standardized Design

Oldsmobile Coach

$1195

Delivered

FOR $1195 we give you the OLDSMOBILE COACH. Six cylinder flexibility, "Body by Fisher," Duco Satin Finish, 40-Horse Power Motor. It is a really wonderful Automobile value and we will gladly demonstrate it to you.

Olds Motor Works

Factory Branch
264 Peachtree S. Phone IVy 0642

figure for automobile accidents the final 1923 toll from motor machines on highway becomes 18,788, or 83 per cent of all highway fatalities.

The highway fatalities are estimated as follows:

Train grade crossing accidents, 2,208; street car accidents, 2,006; automobile accidents, 16,452; motorcycle accidents, 336; and injuries by other vehicles, 3,559.

Disorder Reigns In City of Mecca As Arabs Pillage

Jerusalem, October 14.—(Jewish Telegraph Agency.)—The city of Mecca, according to messages received here, is completely without food. Since the retirement of King Ali and of his army and government, complete disorder has reigned in the city. Bedouins are said to be plundering and pillaging the city.

A group of prominent citizens of Mecca has sent an appeal to the British government urging that further bloodshed be prevented in the Holy City.

Bin Saud, leader of the Wabani tribesmen who now are on the outskirts of Mecca, warring against the Hashimite dynasty, has obtained the support of Iman Yahya of Yemen and Sultan Said Idrisi of the principality of Asir. The triple alliance demands the evacuation of the entire Hashimite family.

The principality of Asir is on the west coast of Arabia, between the Hedjaz and Yemen. The immanate of Yemen, with its center at Sanaa, lying south of Asir along the southeast coast of the Red sea, is of considerable antiquity. The immanate claims ancestry to the Caliph Ali. It exports coffee, the center of the trade at one time having been Mecca.

SHENANDOAH TOUR OF PACIFIC COAST WILL START TODAY

San Diego, Cal., October 14.—The U. S. S. Shenandoah will cast off from her mooring mast at North Island Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock, when the flight will begin. Weather conditions are expected to be favorable.

The wisdom of the first postponement of the dirigible's departure was seen Tuesday when North Head, Oregon, reported a 64-mile wind blustering down the coast-line.

Delayed here since last Friday, first by repairs and later by warnings of heavy weather, the Shenandoah is completely ready for the jump which will take her to Camp Lewis, near Tacoma, Wash. The flight will carry the ship over Los Angeles and San Francisco in daylight, it is expected, and Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne has promised to fly above as many cities as practicable. The coast-line will be followed.

Eph Kelson, of Newport, writes to say it's getting so with him he's almost ready to offer a reward for the capture of the first buckwheat cake.

—Harrisburg Telegraph.

WHITNEY CLEARED IN $1,000,000 SUIT FILED BY DANCER

San Francisco, Cal., October 14.—A verdict completely exonerating Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney from all charges brought against him by Evan Harrows Fontaine, dancer, in a $1,000,000 breach of promise suit and holding that he had been the victim of a conspiracy was returned by a jury today in United States district court here.

Whitney took the stand to deny he was the father of "Sonny" Wilton, the dancer's child. The defense presented letters which it said were written by Miss Fontaine to her husband, Sterling Adair, and which it said indicate that "Sonny" was the offspring of the Fontaine-Adair union. "Sonny" was born in 1920. Adair died in 1921.

Recently Miss Fontaine petitioned the court to have the case dismissed. Whitney objected, stating he desired to have certain points in Miss Fontaine's claims adjudicated.

DRUG OF VERACITY GIVEN TO WIDOW HELD FOR MURDER

Middleburg, Pa., October 14.—Dr. E. R. Decker, of Selins Grove, Pa., testified today in the trial of Mrs. E. R. Decker, charged with being an accessory to the murder of her husband, Harvey C. Willow, that he gave her a drug believed to have truth-telling powers and that she was either innocent or the drug did not work, as she did not tell him what he had expected to hear.

Dr. Decker testified that he had given the drug to Mrs. Willow in her cell and that she reacted to its effects normally, so far as he was able to judge. Dr. Decker said he administered the drug voluntarily and without the knowledge of anyone.

District Attorney William E. Miller, in his opening address to the jury, charged that Mrs. Willow had been plotting the murder of her husband, and then forced her 18-year-old lover, Ralph Shadel, to commit the deed. Shadel, who was sentenced to ten to twenty years for the killing, may be a witness against Mrs. Willow. He has confessed that he shot Willow while on a hunting trip at the urging of Mrs. Willow. Shadel was a farm hand employed by Willow.

NEW GRAND JURY TO HEAR CHARGES AGAINST MCANTS

Butler, Ga., October 14.—Judge George P. Munro, of Taylor superior court, will convene a new grand jury tomorrow morning for the purpose of considering indictment of O. G. McCants, former cashier of the Butler Banking company, it was announced tonight.

Three indictments, charging embezzlement, forgery and false entry on bank records, were quashed Monday by the court upon action by McCants' counsel seeking demurrers on grounds that the grand jurors, who returned the bills, were related directly or indirectly to the defendant.

TRIAL OF COL. FORBES SET FOR NOVEMBER 24

Chicago, October 14.—Trial of Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director of the veterans' bureau, and John W. Thompson, St. Louis and Chicago contractor, on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government and bribery charges, was set for November 24 by Federal Judge Carpenter today.

A formidable array of legal talent addressed the court as to the feasibility of trying the case before election day, November 4. Some time ago, when former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of counsel for Forbes, declared there were political phases of the case and that it should not be tried before election, Judge Carpenter remarked briefly that "there is no politics in this court."

Today the judge expressed some doubt whether a fair jury could be obtained in the heat of an election campaign and November 24 was fixed as the date.

LAST SERVICES HELD FOR MISS TROUTMAN

Athens, Ga., October 14.—(Special.)—Funeral services for Miss Mary C. Troutman, 60, sister of the late Rev. M. L. Troutman, Methodist minister who preached here several years, who died at the home of her niece, Mrs. R. C. Wilson, on Herndon avenue Sunday night, were held from the residence of R. C. Wilson yesterday afternoon.

Miss Troutman was graduated from Wesleyan college in 1882 and taught in the University School for Boys at Stone Mountain several years. She was a member of the Riverside academy faculty at the time of her death.

FAIRBANKS PLANS NEW FILM COMBINE

Los Angeles, October 14.—Rumors of a new merger in the motion picture industry gained support here today in an admission by Douglas Fairbanks that United Artists, an organization including him, Mary Pickford and Charles Chaplin, had been negotiating with Joseph Schenck, producer, concerning the feasibility of a film combine involving the United Artists, Schenck and others.

The actor-producer did not reveal whether any definite agreement had been reached.

SECRETARY WALLACE TO GO UNDER KNIFE

Washington, October 14.—Secretary Wallace, of the department of agriculture, will enter a hospital tomorrow for a surgical operation seeking to remove the cause of sciatica which has caused him much pain.

Mr. Wallace had been seeking to avoid the operation at this time because of the pressure of his official duties. Pain became more intense, however, and it was found necessary to have it performed without delay.

BISHOP OF NATCHEZ CONSECRATED TODAY

Mobile, Ala., October 14.—Rev. Father Richard O. Gerow, appointed bishop of Natchez, Miss., to succeed the late Bishop John E. Gunn, will be consecrated here tomorrow morning. The ceremony will be held at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, with Right Rev. Bishop Edward Pallen, D.D., officiating.

Visiting bishops, clergymen and laymen from various parts of the country are here for the ceremony. Over 100 members of the Mississippi diocese will be here for the consecration. The new bishop is a native of Mobile.

At the Wembley exposition at London this year the Palace of Arts was the most popular attraction, with the miniature, que's doll house, the never-stop railway, model coal mine and the "Attack on Zebrugge" following in the order named.

Atlanta Students To Organize Clubs To Aid Democrats

Plans for the formation of Davis-Bryan clubs at Emory university and Agnes Scott college will be laid when students meet in the auditoriums of the respective institutions tonight. It was announced Tuesday by leaders in the movement.

Judge John S. Candler will address Emory students at 7:30 o'clock on "The Duties of Citizenship" and Reuben Arnold will speak on "Vital Issues in the Presidential Election." George Miller and C. G. Catell are making preparations for the meeting, to which students and faculty members have been invited.

Mr. Edgar Alexander, Georgia national committeeman, and Judge Marcus Beck, of the Georgia supreme court, will speak in the interest of the Davis-Bryan campaign to Agnes Scott meeting is being promoted by the International Relations club, of which Miss Herron is faculty adviser.

Leaders of the meetings said Tuesday night that they are being held in line with hundreds of others throughout the country at the suggestion of Mrs. W. M. Adams, daughter of John W. Davis, democratic nominee. The clubs at Emory and Agnes Scott are expected to send a delegation to the national meeting of the football club in colleges in the southeast.

ESCAPED LEPER SHOCKS POLICE OF WASHINGTON

Washington, October 14.—The night force at police headquarters here received a shock early today when Willard Centilever, escaped leper from the federal colony at Carrville, La., walked in and said he had been confined by the 180 inmates there to come to Washington and protest against conditions in the colony.

Before he was hustled off to the quarantine station here, a lonely two-room structure on the river bank, Centilever, who did not explain why he put police headquarters first on his visiting list, said the inmates at Carrville had chipped in to pay his expenses. He had stopped off at a number of cities on his way up, he said, but refused to name them, or tell how he escaped.

Macon Clubwomen To Raise $3,000 Fund For Tallulah School

Macon, Ga., October 14.—(Special.)—Macon club women today pledged themselves to raise $3,000 for a new school for the Tallulah Indian reservation on the river bank. Plans for the campaign were made and committees appointed, Mrs. Walter D. Harcombe, chairman, general chairman. Articles made at the school were displayed at today's meeting.

LINCOLN FOUND SANE; FACES MURDER TRIAL

Geneva, Ill., October 14.—The jury which has been hearing evidence as to the mental condition of Wargen J. Lincoln, who killed his wife and her brother and sealed their heads in a concrete block, returned a verdict tonight finding Lincoln to be sane "at this time." The verdict means that Lincoln, the Aurora (Ill.) hotelier and lawyer, must stand trial for the slayings.

BANK SUPERINTENDENT OF ALABAMA INDICTED

Montgomery, Ala., October 14.—A. E. Jackson, state superintendent of banks, was arrested here this afternoon upon advice of Sheriff Lane, of Madison county, in connection with the investigation of a defunct Huntsville (Ala.) bank about a year ago. Two indictments charging violation of the banking laws were returned by the grand jury in Madison county today, the message stated. John Stone, Montevallo banker, who aided in the investigation, was also arrested on the same charges and released on bond, Sheriff Lane stated.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT IN NICARAGUA

San Salvador, Republic of Salvador, October 14.—A revolution led by General Emiliano Chamorro has broken out in Nicaragua, according to reports reaching here. The Nicaraguan government, however, claims control of the situation.

CLEMSON STUDENTS GO OUT ON STRIKE

Continued From Page 1.

discussion became a heated one and was ended by Hollahan being placed under arrest on the charge of drinking. Monday afternoon Hollahan was tried by the college authorities and dismissed. The testimony of Colonel Cole and Captain Higgins was that that liquor had been smelled on the accused's breath and that he had admitted taking a drink on Sunday night.

Hollahan denied that he had either taken a drink, or admitted taking one. The senior class felt that Hollahan had not received a fair trial and that his dismissal had been caused by his stand in protesting against conditions and not on the evidence shown in the case. Consequently, they demanded that:

1. Better food be served in the mess hall;
2. That a matron be secured;
3. That the mess officer, J. D. Harcombe, be asked to resign;
4. That Hollahan be reinstated as a student, or be given a fair trial.

Requests are refused.

These requests were refused by the president, forming the immediate cause of the walkout.

All this would not have resulted in

BETTER THAN WHISKEY

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls. With your watch in your hand, take the walkout had there not been general dissatisfaction about the way in which the military department had conducted the case, says the student body. The student body, the commandant had set out to put down hazing, and with the cooperation of the upper classes especially, the walkout had met with excellent success.

The military department then undertook to start an era of iron-clad rules. An order was issued making it a violation of college rules to be within 20 paces of the roads of the campus, but was repealed on the grounds of common sense.

Statement of Earle.

The following statement regarding the walkout of the cadets was issued tonight by Acting President Earle:

"On yesterday morning, some of the cadets went to the mess hall and complained about certain things served in the mess hall for supper on Saturday night previous and on Sunday for dinner. The complaint was investigated, and that if anything was found to be wrong it would be corrected."

The same morning, at a meeting of the senior class in chapel, Colonel Cole, commandant of cadets, smelled liquor on the breath of Cadet Hollahan, president of the senior class, a prominent member of the football team. Cadet Hollahan was tried by the discipline committee and found guilty of having drunk liquor and was suspended for one year. I told Cadet Hollahan this morning of his suspension and explained to him the method of appeal.

Is Handed Petition.

"About 2:30 o'clock the vice president of the senior class presented me with a petition which reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned members of the senior class, demand the following changes and modifications of rules and orders now existing, to take effect one-half hour after the presentation of this petition to the president of Clemson college: (Before presentation, 'one half hour' was scratched out and 'at 6 o'clock' was inserted.)

- 1.—An assurance that the food served in the college mess hall be of better quality and in sufficient quantities.
- 2.—The resignation of J. D. Harcombe, mess officer.
- 3.—The services of a matron.
- 4.—The reinstatement of R. F. Hollahan as cadet."

"The petition was signed by 137 seniors, 113 of whom later came to the president's office and asked permission to withdraw their names, which permission was given.

"As to number 1, I confirmed my statement made on Monday that I was investigating the matter and would do all in my power to see that they not only had enough to eat, but have sufficient quantity properly prepared.

"As to number 2, I told them I would not ask for the resignation of J. D. Harcombe, mess officer.

"As to number 3, I told them we had not decided whether or not we would have another matron, that I was not going to get a matron until I was sure of getting the right kind.

"As to number 4, I told them how Cadet Hollahan could appeal from the decision of the discipline committee. The sanitary engineer, Mr. Filby, of the state board of health, paid us a visit on October 10 and without my knowledge inspected the mess hall and kitchen. He voluntarily told me that no institution in the state could compare with us so far as the kitchen and mess hall are concerned."

TWO PREVIOUS STRIKES STAGED BY STUDENTS.

Columbia, S. C., October 14.—Twice before the walkout reported today from Clemson college, the students of the state's agricultural and mechanical college have participated in major "strikes," according to W. D. Barnett, of Columbia, a trustee of the institution.

In 1908, about 400 of the 700 cadets enrolled took part in an "April fool" prank in the shape of a desertion from the campus and a trip to the neighboring town of Paulden. The participants were suspended for the remainder of the year, and many of them never returned to the college, although some of them did go back the following year and finished their courses, it was stated.

Four years ago, the freshmen and sophomore classes left the institution, threatening to join them when the juniors and seniors were granted leaves of absence pending an adjustment of the trouble. An investigation by the trustees brought from the students varying expressions as to the reasons for the walkout, according to Mr. Barnett, one of them being "lack of confidence" in the then president, Dr. W. M. Riggs.

Dr. Riggs preferred charges against himself in accordance with the complaints made by the students, and was on trial for three days before the trustees. The students were finally permitted to return upon signing a statement to the effect that they had not intended to be insubordinate by their conduct. They had been absent from classes from 10 to 15 days.

SOLDIERS OVERRUN PART OF SHANGHAI

Continued From Page 1.

between the armed forces near Nansiang, the old concentration point for the Chinese armies. There was considerable firing, they said.

GENERAL LU ARRIVES SAFELY IN JAPAN.

Tokio, October 14.—General Lu Yung-hsiang, deposed military governor of Chekiang province, China, and leader of the defeated armies which defended Shanghai, found sanctuary in Japan today when he arrived at Nagasaki with his family and Ho Ping-Ling, former defense commissioner of Shanghai. The party fled from Shanghai by water.

The Japanese foreign office today sent warning notes to the Peking government and the Mukden headquarters of General Chang Tso-lin, whose army is attacking the forces of the central government at Peking.

The notes from the Japanese foreign office reiterate Japan's policy of non-interference in the present conflict, but add that Japan will not tolerate damage to her property in Manchuria or injury to her citizens engaged there.

SHANAIKWAN CAUTION NOT YET COMPLETED.

Mukden, Manchuria, October 13.—

Shanaikwang, key city near the Chihli-Manchurian border, is not yet entirely in the hands of Chang Tso-Lin's Manchurian troops. It was admitted here today by Chang's chief adjutant, Yang Chi-San.

The Chihli troops, Adjutant Yang said, still hold the Shanaikwang railway station while the Manchus possess the rest of the city. An attempt by the Manchurians to encircle the city completely has not yet proved successful, the Chihli soldiers resisting them stubbornly.

Adjutant Yang said he had been advised that Wu Pei-Fu, commander-in-chief of the central Chinese government armies, against which the Manchurians are fighting, reached Shanaikwang station at 6 p. m. Sunday to assume personal command of the central troops defending the ancient city. He brought with him, it was reported, three picked battalions of the third division to assist in the defense.

LA FOLLETTE RAPS FOREIGN POLICIES

Continued From Page 1.

which, day after day, month after month, brought the heaviest imaginable pressure to induce him to abandon his position of neutrality and throw the strength of the United States openly on the side of the allied governments.

Asserting that the foreign policy of the United States at present is being "dictated and controlled by the same forces which were responsible for the abandonment and withdrawal of American neutrality during the world war," Mr. La Follette continued:

"It is my opinion that the private monopoly system was primarily responsible for the abandonment of our traditional foreign policy; that this system forced us into the world war; that this system is now driving us at break-neck speed along the paths of imperialism that lead inevitably to war and to the ending of free government at home as well.

"I am convinced—I was convinced at the beginning—that we abandoned our policy of neutrality through the influence of J. P. Morgan & Co., the fiscal agent of the British empire, who, in the early spring of 1917 turned to war and to the ending of free government to drive us into war.

Morgan in Peril.

"At this time, the credit of the allies with the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. had been overdrawn to the extent of $400,000,000, while contracts to the amount of $800,000,000 more were maturing, which could only be paid by bringing America into the war. Hundreds of other banks were in the same perilous position. They too, had underwritten British and French bonds.

"If the allies were defeated, these debts would not be paid. The bonds of the allied countries would fall in value, and might possibly be worthless. The house of Morgan could only be saved by being underwritten by the United States government.

"This was done. . . .

"Then came the treaty of Versailles. It was a bad war. Instead, it is the mother of war. It gave Great Britain command of the seas and of Africa, Asia and the resources of the world as well. It made France a militaristic, imperialistic power. It violated the terms of the armistice—an armistice entered into in good faith, by Germany at least, and to which the victorious nations were in honor pledged.

"The treaty of Versailles is a treaty of shame. By reason of it, the assurance of the American people to a defeated foe became a scrap of paper. All Europe was made a tinder box ready to burst into flame as a result of this dishonorable treaty which must be revised if peace is to again reign on the earth.

"Who were President Wilson's close advisers during the making of this treaty? Thomas W. Lamont, of the firm of Morgan & Co., and other affiliated international bankers. Have you forgotten that the bankers had copies of the treaties before the senate was permitted to see them? The international bankers used every influence at their command to force American ratification of this treaty and thus involved us inextricably in the intrigues and wars of Europe."

Steamed Clams

never tasted so good until you try them with a dressing made of four parts of hot melted butter, one part of catsup, and two parts of the famous

EA&PERRIN'S SAUCE THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE

Atlanta's Real Bargain Shoe Store

Quality Shoes

Low Prices

EDWARDS

SHOE STORES, INC.

IN W. T. GRANT DEPARTMENT STORE

52-54-56 WHITEHALL ST.

MISSES' DRESS OR SCHOOL SHOES

Tan Calf or Patent with black or beaver tops. Leather soles—rubber heels—

Size 11 1/2 to 2

$2.95

Stitchdown Shoes

Solid Leather; Sizes 5 to 8, 8 1/2 to 11, 11 1/2 to 12

$1.95

Brown Calf Lace

$2.95

Army Shoes for Boys

Sizes 13 to 6

$1.95

Visit EDWARDS For Greater Shoe Values
Basement W. T. Grant Department Store
52-54-56 Whitehall Street

Congress was Swamped

with 251 Bills Affecting the Railroads

WHEN Congress adjourned last June this large number of proposed laws affecting the railroads was receiving the attention of members of the House and Senate. Fortunately for the American people, for you who are reading this newspaper, none of the bills was passed, but many of them are now on the calendar and will be considered without further preliminary action when Congress convenes on December 1st.

Congress generally wishes to do right, but certain interests are now proposing railroad legislation, which, if enacted, would not only impair the railroad service but would be seriously hurtful to the general business interests of the country.

The railroads should have further trial under the existing laws. They need a prolonged respite from legislative agitation, during which the railroad managers and other forces can devote themselves to plain transportation and the people can enjoy the high-class railway service and prosperity which they now have without risk from experimental tinkering.

Railroad managers feel that it is their duty to acquaint the public with the facts about the railroads, and in that way, through the building up of a sound public sentiment, hold up the hands of fair-minded Congressmen and Senators, who are willing that the railroads shall have their fighting chance at this time of crisis in their affairs; that they shall have an opportunity to work out their salvation under our statute books, and that their operations shall not be further hampered through obstructive legislation.

SEEK TO OVERRIDE MILK FUND VETO

Attempts are expected to be made in city council next Monday to override vetoes of Mayor Walter A. Sims on at least two measures—one of which provides for an appropriation to send Dr. John P. Kennedy, city health officer, on a tour of milk pasteurization plants of Chicago, St. Louis and Detroit, and one other for salary increases for several city employees.

Both passed council by substantial majorities last week and their adherents have expressed confidence that the necessary two-thirds majorities can be obtained if attempts to override are brought up Monday.

Dr. W. E. Duvall, alderman from the first ward, who introduced the resolution asking the appropriation for Dr. Kennedy's trip, Tuesday stated that he will make every attempt between now and Saturday to finance the proposed trip which will send Dr. Kennedy as the authorized representative of the city of Atlanta.

"I hope it will not be necessary to wait until Monday to override the mayor's veto in order to get the money from the city," he said. "Even though council succeeds in rallying a two-thirds majority Monday, just a little more than two months before members of council will have to look to the mayor for committee appointments, the money could not be paid and Dr. Kennedy could not start on his trip in time to meet and discuss the milk questions with the 1,000 leading health experts who will gather in Detroit the latter part of this week for a discussion of milk questions and other municipal problems."

At the time he vetoed the measure Mayor Sims explained his action by stating that arrangements already had been made to receive a similar report from a government expert who will furnish all information free of charge.

Agitation also has been started to override the mayor's veto of several salary hikes, which would have amounted to $845 for the remainder of this year. Salaries included in the proposed increase were those of a number of Carnegie library employees, the stenographer in the city building, inspector's office and the secretary of the park committee.

LYON IS NEW HEAD OF LOCAL FLORISTS

R. A. Lyon, of the H. G. Hastings Seed company, was elected president of the Atlanta Florists and Horticulturists' association at its annual meeting.

Other officers elected were Ralph Deans, president of the florists which is to be held in Atlanta in September, 1925.

Ralph Deans is chairman of the arrangements committee for the convention for the entertainment of the thousands of florists who will attend the convention from all over the world.

The association highly commended E. R. Wachendorf, retiring president, for his work in staging the flower show at the Southeastern fair last week.

More than 100 members were present at the meeting.

Other officers elected were Ralph Deans, vice president; S. J. Gibbs, secretary; and P. V. Jacobs, treasurer. C. V. Hohenstein was re-elected executive secretary.

Supreme Court of Georgia

Judgments Affirmed.

American Railway Express company v. Barrett, from Toombs—on certiorari from Court of Appeals, Atlanta. Foster & Moore, Lantz & Rogers, for plaintiff in error; Enoch J. Gillet, contra.

Bloodworth et al. v. State, from Taylor superior court—Judge Munro, Chas. W. Joy, W. E. Reed, Homer Beeland, for plaintiffs in error; George M. Napier, attorney general; W. E. Reed, contra.

General v. T. R. Green, assistant attorney general; G. C. Robinson, C. G. Daniel, contra.

Lynch v. State, from Bibb superior court—Judge Jones, W. O. Cooper, Jr., for plaintiff in error; Charles H. Garrett, solicitor general, contra.

Dismissed.

Whitten v. Barrett, from Harrison superior court—Judge Irwin, M. J. Heald, Nims & Watkins, for plaintiff; Edwards & Edwards, for defendant.

B. L. BUGG TO SPEAK AT MASONIC MEET

An address by B. L. Bugg, receiver of the A. B. & A. railway, and interesting preface by Miss Helen Greenway and Miss Mildred Adams, pupils of Mrs. C. E. LaFontaine, will be principal features of a program given in honor of fifty Masons of the A. B. & A. railway at the Atlanta Masonic club luncheon at Peacock cafe today at 12:30 o'clock.

Mr. Bugg will use as the subject of a short address "Practical Fraternity in Industry."

GATE CITY MASONS STAGE BIG SMOKER

An address by E. P. King, secretary of the Scottish Rite bodies of Atlanta, and readings by Oscar B. Cole were features of the smoker of members of Gate City lodge No. 2, F. and A. M., held at the Masonic temple Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

No degrees were conferred at this meeting.

Price Difference Halts Purchase Of Landing Site

Although in all probability the Nichols property on Brown's Mill road ultimately will be selected as the site for Atlanta's airplane landing field, members of the special committee of city council and a committee representing Fulton county commissioners failed to reach a final decision at a joint meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Instead of narrowing down the number of proposed sites, another was added when Mayor Walter A. Sims suggested the 200-acre city dairy farm near Constitution, in DeKalb county. However, Dr. C. C. Aven, chairman of the councilmanic committee, and Edwin F. Johnson, chairman of the county board, were named to confer with trustees of the Nichols property and real estate agents handling the deal, to obtain the lowest figure on the tract and report back to the committee.

There is some possibility that a deal may be consummated today, as members of the city committee have expressed themselves as favoring the Brown's Mill site, and it is understood that at least two of the county officials also favor selection of that land.

Inspection Planned.

Before definite action is taken members of the committee, accompanied by Mayor Sims and Colonel Charles H. Danforth, head of the air forces of the fourth corps area, will visit the three proposed sites today.

Of the three sites the Nichols property has been named as the best suit, with the tract near the county poor farm, on Powers' Ferry road, second, and the city dairy farm, third. It is expected that negotiations will be opened today for purchase of the Brown's Mill property, with the understanding that if a satisfactory purchase price cannot be agreed upon an attempt will be made to buy the Powers' Ferry road land. In event that neither is selected the dairy farm will be utilized.

Reported price for the Nichols property is $65,000. Members of the committee contend that that is not excessive in view of the fact that the land includes 208 acres and is located only about four miles from the city. Very little work will be necessary to put the property in shape for use as a landing field, it is said, and Colonel Panforth already has approved the site.

Differ On Prices.

On the other hand, members of the committee explained, the property near the county poor farm will cost approximately $100 per acre and will cost an additional $400 per acre to put it in condition. However, the exact amount of work necessary and the approximate cost of grading will be learned at the inspection trip today.

Both city and county have agreed to pay half of the purchase price of the field and the selection of the special committee is subject to ratification of council. The committee was given authority to complete the purchase at last week's meeting of general council.

RAILROADS PROTEST NEW FERTILIZER RATES

At its hearing Tuesday the Georgia public service commission considered a protest on the part of carriers against the revised scale of rates on fertilizer shipments in Georgia, which was ordered by the commission recently, to become effective November 15, next.

At the time the new schedule was adopted minutes of the commission show that three different rate schedules on fertilizer were offered. One, recommended by the carriers, was drawn up by the rate expert of the commission in his report of September 20, he adopted. This proposal was voted down, 3 to 1.

Commissioner Price then made a motion that rates in effect prior to 1918 be restored. These rates are much lower, it is stated, than those contained in the schedules urged by Commissioner Perry. The commission voted 2 to 2 on this proposal, those favoring Commissioner Price's low rate schedule being Vice Chairman John T. Boileau and Commissioner Price.

New Rate Offered.

Commissioners Perry and McDonald voted against restoration of these low rates and Commissioner Perry stated that he would file a dissenting statement explaining his vote.

Commissioner McDonald then offered a motion offering a third schedule of rates which, while higher than those recommended by Commissioner Price, were not as high as those advocated in Commissioner Perry's motion. This motion was the one finally adopted. Price, McDonald and Boileau voted for it, while Perry voted against it. Commissioner Perry again stated that he would file a dissenting statement explaining his vote.

It is the rates adopted under the McDonald motion that the railroads protested at Tuesday's meeting, claiming that they are too high.

Furniture Rates Argued.

The commission also heard argument for and against the proposed new schedules on furniture rates in Georgia. Attorney Harry Thurtell, of Washington, D. C., represented the trunk line railroads, in opposition to the new rates which are a reduction from present charges, while Attorney J. A. Strever, of Atlanta, represented the short lines. Furniture shippers were represented by Harry T. Moore and E. L. Hart, of the Atlanta Freight Bureau, and C. J. Heath, of the Macon Lumber and Manufacturing company.

The shippers maintain that the new rates proposed are too high, while carriers argued for the restoration of higher rates which were in effect until last March.

The commission did not make any decisions on Tuesday.

CITY DETECTIVE KILLS NEGRO WHO RESISTED

Ivy Evans, negro, was shot to death Tuesday morning by city detective E. J. Pate, when the negro, according to reports, fired point-blank at him when cornered in a restaurant at 168 Edgewood avenue.

Evans, a negro woman, was stopped by Detective Pate and fired at the officer as he attempted to escape through a rear door, it is said.

DEALERS IN TIRES TO NAME DELEGATES

A meeting of the Atlanta Retail Tire Dealers' association will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the executive office of the Atlanta Automobile association in the Gould building. The purpose of the meeting is to select delegates to the annual convention of the retail tire dealers of America to be held in Akron, Ohio, November 18-20.

EDUCATORS STUDY CERTIFICATE PLAN

Following a lengthy executive session held by the state board of education Tuesday for the purpose of determining a system of certification of public school teachers in Georgia, a committee composed of Dr. Rufus W. Weaver, president of Mercer university, Macon; State School Superintendent-elect Fort E. Land and E. A. Pound, state supervisor of certification, was appointed to further study the matter and report back at the January meeting of the education department.

Supervisor Pound was requested to consult with educational authorities in other southern states to ascertain the system in effect regarding the issuance of teachers' certificates with a view of having a uniform system throughout the south. Final action on the matter, however, will not be taken until the January, 1925, meeting.

Heretofore counties have issued their own teachers' certificates, but the proposed new plan discussed contemplates the issuance of two grades of certificates by the state board, professional and general elementary.

The committee composed of Professor E. H. Scott, chairman; Superintendent Willis A. Sutton, of the Atlanta public schools, and Superintendent Roland Bowers, of the Deatur county schools, which was appointed recently to report on the certification plan, made such a report, but this was not made public.

Members of the state board who attended the meeting were: Dr. Rufus W. Weaver, acting chairman; Superintendent N. H. Ballard, E. E. McCarty, of Blakely, and J. H. Saxton, of Moultrie.

Cotton Association President Speaks To Local Credit Men

Addresses by J. E. Conwell, president of the Georgia Cotton Growers' association and W. L. Percy, national director of the National Association of Credit Men, were features of the meeting of the Atlanta Association of Credit Men, held Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock at the Elk's club.

Mr. Conwell urged cooperative marketing for the betterment of farmers, and stressed the necessity of a diversified program. There is a "missing link" in cooperative farming, he said, "which must be eliminated before the farmer can enjoy the full benefits of cooperative marketing. This missing link is the attitude of bankers toward granting farmers long-time loans."

Mr. Percy reported activities of the national association which in the latter part of September held an annual conference at Atlantic City. He urged that local credit men cultivate a broader vision and look beyond the bounds of their local credit association. Credit is, he declared, a national thing, and must be looked upon as such by local credit men.

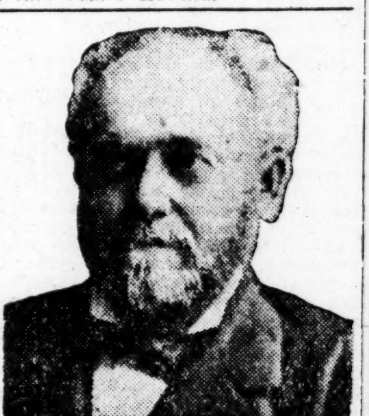

Members of the association were treated to an informal welcome in the lobby of the Elk's club, when a quartette, playing at Keith's Follies this week, and members of the Philadelphia Elks No. 2, sang two numbers. They were introduced by Judge L. F. McClelland, of Atlanta.

The banquet was attended by more than 200 members of the local association.

GARAKITZ FREED OF SLAYING NEGRO

Pete Garakitz, restaurant keeper of 437 South Pryor street, was acquitted Tuesday afternoon of a charge of murder in connection with the death of Nathaniel Johnson, 27-year-old negro, who died Saturday night following an altercation between him and Garakitz.

It was brought out at the hearing, according to testimony of Garakitz and witnesses, that the restaurant keeper was struck by the negro after he had ordered Johnson out of his store for cursing before a white woman. Garakitz then hit the negro with his fist, he says, after which unknown parties killed him (Johnson) after he had gone into the street. Garakitz was represented at the hearing by Attorney Schlev Howard.

A MAN OF INTEGRITY

A physician who reaches out to benefit humanity leaves a record behind him that is worth while. Such a man was Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. He was an eminent physician, a leading and honored citizen, known for his honesty and executive ability. His study along medical lines, and his knowledge of the remedial qualities of herbs and plants led to the discovery of his wonderful herbal remedy, Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the woman's tonic which has had the greatest number of supporters in the past fifty years. It is just the herbal tonic required if a woman is borne down by pain and sufferings at regular or irregular intervals, by nervousness or dizzy spells, headache or backache. Favorite Prescription can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid at most drug stores.

Send 10c for trial sample to Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Destroys Malarial Germs in the Blood and Restores Energy

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

60c.

HOOD Brick ARE

GOOD Brick

PARTY OF TEXANS WILL BE GUESTS ON TOUR OF CITY

A motor tour of Atlanta, which will include modern farms near the city and points of interest in and around Atlanta, and a trip to Stone Mountain will be given in honor of 32 men and women, representing the Valley Horticultural club, of San Benito, Texas.

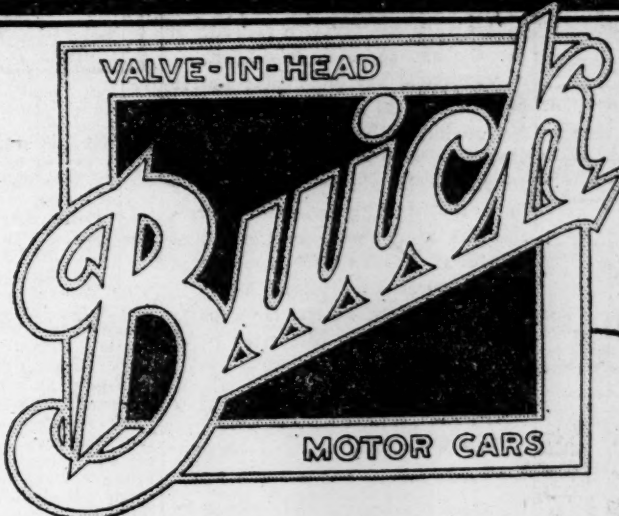

under the auspices of the service committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, it was announced Tuesday by officials of the committee.

The Texas party arrived in Atlanta Tuesday afternoon and are making a tour of citrus regions of Georgia and Florida. The purpose of the tour is to make a study of the agricultural regions of this belt with a view to making Texas citrus industry improvements. The citrus industry in that state is fast gaining a stronghold in the last few years, state officials of the party.

DRINK OR DRUG

POISONING requires ELIMINATION. The New Treatment acts as an ANTIDOTE to these poisons, creates a longing for drink and overcomes the diseased condition. (No Hyoscine used). Dr. J. H. Cusway, 10 years with the "Reefer," in charge New Institute, 220 Woodward Ave., Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

The same design of cantilever springs—third member drive—floating rear axle—four-wheel brakes—which are found on the world's best and costliest cars—are standard on every Buick model

Buick leads in Chassis design

F-30-11-B

Atlanta Branch
241-243 Peachtree Street

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them

A Short Story—With a Moral

In September 11,865,412 lines of advertising were carried by all the New York newspapers combined.

Of this 11,865,412 lines, 7,507,982 lines—or about 63 per cent—were carried by morning newspapers.

Of all the papers in New York, the first three in point of advertising volume were morning papers.

Competition is keen in New York, and advertisers spend their money judiciously.

Atlanta Is the New York of the South

Oil burning locomotives and rock ballasted roadbed have banished them! New sleeping cars of the latest type—Observation car with ladies' lounge, shower bath, maid and valet service—Club car with barber shop, shower bath and valet service—Through dining cars with unexcelled cuisine. Daily after Nov. 1st on the

Sunset Limited

California

Sunset Route

New Orleans Los Angeles San Diego San Francisco

For further information address D. ASBURY, General Agent, Healey Building—Phone Walnut 4889.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager.
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager.

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.
Telephone Main 3000
ATLANTA, GA., OCT. 15, 1924.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier or Mail
Daily and Sunday, 10c per copy.
Daily, 10c per copy.
Sunday, 10c per copy.
By Mail only
Daily, 10c per copy.
Sunday, 10c per copy.
By Mail only
Daily, 10c per copy.
Sunday, 10c per copy.

J. H. HOLLAND, Constitution Building, 100 Peachtree Street, N. E., Atlanta, Ga. Advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

The Constitution is on sale in New York City by 2 D. M. the day after issue. It can be had by mail, the day after issue, by sending 10c to the publisher, The Constitution, 100 Peachtree Street, N. E., Atlanta, Ga. The publisher is not responsible for the loss of unsolicited manuscripts, but will return them if accompanied by return postage. The publisher is not responsible for the loss of unsolicited manuscripts, but will return them if accompanied by return postage.

Member of North American Newspaper Alliance.
The N. A. N. A. occupies the same position in the future field that the A. P. does in the news field. The Constitution is the only member in this section.

STORMING INDIANA.

With Secretary of State Hughes making a campaign address for the republican ticket in Indianapolis, and John W. Davis speaking for the democratic ticket at the same hour in Terre Haute, Indiana, the home of Tom Marshall, Tom Taggart, and Sam Ralston, and other democratic notables; and of Albert Beveridge and Jim Watson and other republican notables—and the hotbed of alleged klan activities for the G. O. P.—has suddenly become the battle ground and the storm center of American politics.

The secretary of state, who has undergone a most remarkable change of sentiment regarding the nation's foreign policy since he accepted the premiership of the Harding cabinet, again affirms that this country will have nothing to do with an international peace protocol, signed by all the major nations of the world except the United States, basing his objection now on the Japanese amendment which he alleges interferes with states' rights.

By "States" here he means nations and not the governmental subdivisions of a nation; but it behooves any republican to talk of "states rights," when the whole tendency of the party, and its traditional policy since its organization in 1854, has been in contravention to the autonomy of governmental units.

Federalization and centralization have been the outstanding party tenets of the republican faith; and this, in spirit, applies as much to nations as to the separate sovereign commonwealths united into a nation.

It is tommyrot to attempt to fasten such an excuse upon the so-called Japanese amendment, and is merely another attempt, as in 1920, to take advantage of popular ignorance to fool and prejudice the people.

The Japanese amendment, dealing with the question of immigration purely, simply permits of an appeal to the general council of the league under certain conditions, and no state—that is no member of the league—is bound by any action that is not unanimous. Therefore a veto from the United States, should this government hold a league membership, would settle the matter so far as the United States is concerned. It is simple and plain as a pot-lug, involving no infringement upon internal affairs, and no other except a solemn pledge, one nation to another, not to go to war.

And yet, through the avenue of prejudice and for party expediency, so great and good a man as Secretary Hughes, who used to be one of the nation's strongest advocates of the league of nations, seeks to pull the republican chestnuts out of the fire, and to subvert the heart to possible party success. It is a sorry day when the great issue of peace shall be subverted to politics in this manner.

Mr. Davis, on the other hand, stands squarely for the cooperation of this nation in the movements for universal peace, and for the economic welfare of his own nation through the economic welfare of all nations.

It is the course of wisdom, common sense, prudence, good judgment—the Christian course.

WILL MACDONALD FALL?

On October 29 Great Britain will hold a general election on an issue that seemed trifling in its inception. The fate of government by a labor cabinet hangs in the balance. To say that Premier MacDonald has fallen—as seems to have been accepted by the American public—is merely to anticipate a possibility. It may even be said a probability. But most certainly he has not fallen yet, and contrary to much apprehension at his election, the labor premier has served most acceptably in all except two or three issues. He has demonstrated a rather pure type of old English democracy and has aroused the friendship and admiration of many of the allied nations. In the campaign, of course, the original issue is largely obscured by other greater issues, the soviet loan perhaps being the most important. This has been roundly criticized, and has weakened MacDonald more than the strength he built up by his very constructive attitude in the German reparations matter.

MacDonald has undeniably gotten himself into all kinds of a muss by his soviet attitude, but he is so strong aside from this, and has been so pleasingly constructive in many lines, that it is by no means certain that he is doomed, as the cables represent. Since the liberals and conservatives have joined hands in a common fight on the labor party the situation as to the latter is, of course, less secure.

APPEAL TO DEMOCRATS.

The democratic national committee needs money and needs it badly. As against a fund acknowledged by the chairman of the republican committee to have amounted to a great deal more than a million dollars several days ago, the democrats had collected on the 1st of October only $160,000. It will not exceed $350,000 all told to date, possibly; and yet the democratic party has the right magnificently in hand with extremely hopeful prospects of the election of Mr. Davis. If it goes into the house of representatives it is practically assured that Mr. Davis will be elected.

Chairman Victor Allen, of the committee named to raise funds in Georgia, or Chairman Walter McElreath, of the Georgia Davis Bryan clubs, or Chairman Gambrell, of the young men's democratic league will either receive contributions to the cause, and forward the same through Mr. Allen's organization direct to the treasurer of the national committee.

For those in the "fifth district"—and Atlanta alone should give half of Georgia's quota, or $12,500—District Chairman Asa Warren Candler, who has contributed his time and talents for the next few days to the good work, will receive the contributions for the state finance committee.

The point is—give and give as liberally as convenient to this cause of democracy; give unselfishly and in the spirit of helping a cause that is near to every true democrat's heart—the cause of victory three weeks hence.

There is no time to lose in this. A contribution of $100 today will be of more service than one of $500 two weeks from now.

MUSCLE SHOALS STATUS.

The withdrawal of the offer of Henry Ford for Muscle Shoals was to have been expected. And his statement that business cannot wait upon politics is entirely correct and thoroughly justifies his action. Mr. Ford wanted to develop a great power project somewhere, and he felt keenly interested in the potentialities of the Tennessee river power in the Florence-Sheffield territory. The government, during the war, had chosen the same site and had spent several millions in the development of an emergency nitrate plant. It was proper that it should have done so, for the end of the war was not in sight at the time of the investment in this great undertaking. The armistice, however, came before the Muscle Shoals plant was completed.

Then it was that the Detroit manufacturer was appealed to to look it over. He made an offer, and promised to do certain things, among them manufacture cheap nitrates for the farmers. Naturally the power and the fertilizer interests of the country became antagonistic. They organized, and a powerful lobby was carried to congress to defeat the Ford proposition. The southern members fought for the Ford offer. It got into politics, bitterly so.

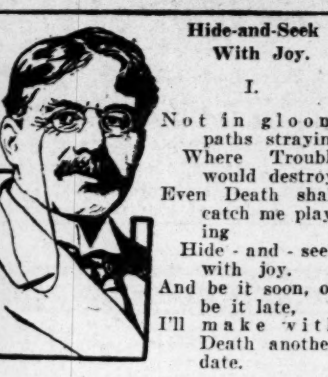

And then, as the people became more familiar with the exact terms of the Ford offer, the first wave of hysteria disappeared and there was less enthusiasm than before. In the meantime congress ordered work resumed on the great plant looking to its completion according to the original plans. The work is progressing today with satisfactory speed.

Therefore, regardless of the Ford offer or its withdrawal, Muscle Shoals will be developed to its full capacity, and it will be utilized in times of peace, in part certainly, for the manufacture of cheap fertilizers. A combination of the various southern hydro-electric companies has been found and a really better offer made for the plant than that made by Mr. Ford. It also carries the same, or even more definite, fertilizer guarantees.

Therefore, there need be no alarm about the withdrawal of the Ford offer. The great power at Muscle Shoals will be utilized in times of peace not only in the interest of farmers but for the development of industry in the territory reached by its possible lines of transmission.

Just From Georgia

DE FRANK L. STANTON

Hide-and-Seek With Joy.
I.
Not in gloom—paths straying
Where Trouble would destroy.
Even Death shall catch me playing
Hide-and-Seek with Joy.
And he it soon, or be it late,
I'll make with Death another date.

II.
If darkness round me closes
I'll say to him: "Behold,
Love's Goodnight to the roses
Has never yet been told."
Will make with Death another date.

"Save the Pieces!"
Of interest to writers who perhaps see "Faint" waiting just around the corner is this statement by W. Orton Tewson in the New York Evening Post:
"I have proof of the works of modern authors, corrected by them, have acquired a considerable value. Not long ago a first corrected proof of an early Kipling short story brought $300 in a New York sales room. Rudyard Kipling, for one, has long been aware of the commercial value attached to his handwriting and does not scatter it around promiscuously. I am told that his contracts contain a clause requiring the return to him of all manuscripts to which they relate, typed or otherwise."

On the Last Journey.

I.
O for the sleeper
On the lonely way!
Wake from your dreaming—
It is Judgment Day!
Your Love waits, weeping—
Shall she be denied?
She must face high judgment
With you at her side.

II.
O for the sleeper
On the storm-dark way!
No hills shall hide you
And no woods shall slay!
Your Love waits, weeping—
Where the last dream died!
She must stand at judgment
With you at her side.

Another "Riley Day."
They had a later and a lovelier "Riley Day" in Indiana recently, and speaking of it, the Indianapolis News said:

"They are celebrating the 75th anniversary of the birth of James Whitcomb Riley, who knew the Hoosier heart better than any one, and who sang of Hoosier joys and sorrows, and hopes and dreams, and the strains of a born poet and the finish of a diligent craftsman. Riley's great virtue was that he applied his talents to the simple things about him. He sang of the things he and his neighbors knew all about. And his singing was so pure and true that through him the world came to know the heart of a Hoosier. These eight years, he is already the subject of Hoosier myth and legend. To the children he is something more than mortal."

A Hurrah Time.

Tribulation told me:
"I've come to spend the day."
But here came Joy, a-shouting,
"Hip-hip-hooray!"
And when the jubilation
"When we danced the day away!"

Remarks of Br'er Williams.

Of you kin send yo' voice round round de worl';
If de airships kin fly 'round de sea, an' de man kin almost raise de dead, what does you think must waitin' on us in de worl' ter come? W'y, jes' studyin' 'bout it is 'nuff ter give you de ol' time fibberlights an' de rattlin' of de brain!

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

ALIVE BUT NOT BREATHING.

It used to be the rule and still is in some hospitals that a nurse might report to the physician that a patient had "stopped breathing," it was left for the physician to pronounce the man dead, after an examination. Persons who have stopped breathing are not always dead. In cases of electrical shock, illuminating or natural gas poisoning, opium or morphine poisoning, gasoline engine exhaust gas poisoning, drowning, and other forms of asphyxiation, there is always a chance of restoration to life and health even after the lapse of hours, a chance which should never be denied the victim, at least never by the chance of a physician.

Unlike the gradual failure of respiration in the termination of exhausting disease, the cessation of breathing in these cases is in itself the main cause of death, and it should be kept in mind that in these conditions, once the breathing is restored the organs are sound and life can go on as though nothing had happened. This is the reason why artificial respiration, of course by the most effective method, the prone-pressure or manual method should be kept up for hours if necessary, desisting only when the victim resumes breathing or rigor mortis sets in. The wisdom of this becomes more apparent when we consider that life has been restored in many cases on record after prolonged effort. Wills Macdonald, a Toronto electrical engineer, reports a case of successful resuscitation from death after two or three hours of Schaefer's manual respiration, that of a man submerged for 15 to 20 minutes, taken out of the water and resuscitated by this method of artificial respiration after an hour and five minutes. Of course the victims were not moved from the spot until they had been resuscitated. A victim never should be moved to a hospital or anywhere else while there is hope, unless the artificial respiration is kept up constantly on the way, without a moment's interruption. Stopping the effort for even a minute while transporting the victim is unavailing.

Dr. J. H. Wills, of Cincinnati, tells of a case of laudanum poisoning. Artificial respiration was kept up for nine hours, by operators working in shifts, and the man was finally resuscitated. Dr. Williams believes that patients are sometimes allowed to die from ether or chloroform anesthesia when they might be resuscitated by artificial respiration kept up long enough.

In severe cases of wood alcohol poisoning, now notorious among the cause of blindness if the victim survives, artificial respiration should be kept up for a long time.

Canning Compound.

Is Mrs. Rice's canning compound harmful to use in canning vegetables? (Mrs. P. J.)
Answer—Yes. Why enbalm the vegetables? I think it would be dangerous to eat vegetables which have been treated with this canning compound. It is a question of the condition when canning to use or not to use chemicals to preserve them. Select only fresh, clean vegetables, and see that your canning is properly done, and

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

"Live and Let Live."
Raisuli, chief of the Rif tribesmen, who has been doing some successful fighting against the Spanish colonial army in north Africa, says he will not oppose the withdrawal of Spanish forces. After all, everybody tells, professor at the Protestant university of Rome, in a letter to this department sees in the erection of the golden cross the signal for a renewal of the state of Italian patriots against the temporal power of the Holy See. "Inch by inch the Vatican is trying to recover lost ground and to undo the work of Garibaldi, Cavour and Mazzini," says the professor, "and are ever on the alert," he says.

"Blood of an Englishman."
The dirty blood of the British will be shortly sprinkled throughout the country," so reads the first line of a circular going the rounds in Egypt. The circular is being published by the White Flag, a nationalist Egyptian paper, which has for its object the total elimination of Egypt and the Sudan of all people of British nationality. The Egyptian government, taking the White Flag as a challenge to the movement, the White Flag nationalist movement. It will not hesitate to resort to the police and military forces to suppress the movement. The Egyptian government, however, has set itself an absolutely similar goal, but it will not go to the extent of using force or terrorism. Egypt lays claims to the Sudan, and would like to see the British evacuate. But then the Sudan and Palestine are of great strategic importance to the British empire. Both are within striking distance of the main route to India. It is not likely that the English will soon relinquish these territories.

Undercurrents.
When M. Herriot, French premier, arrived at the railway station of Rambois, he was met by a woman who was immediately seized by some bystanders. Later she handed over a letter to the premier, and said she had intended to kill the prime minister. In 1912 she had set out to shoot Premier Briand and also intended to assassinate M. Clemenceau. The woman declared that she wanted to rid the country of all "defeatists," the men who believed in a European unity and reconciliation with Germany. She spoke with satisfaction of the murder of Jaures. It was discovered that the woman had lost her husband in the war. She was a widow, and was overwhelmed by her personal grief she could not bear the idea of forgiveness and friendship with the Germans as advocated by the statesmen of the day. It will never be estimated what incalculable misery and grief the war brought about. Millions are still mourning in silence. The world is still a world of grief and tragedy under the surface.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Sign of the Times?

During the revolution in Rome in the year 1848, when Pope Pius IX was forced to flee, a sign was seen on the huge iron cross that surmounted the capitol. It has now been decided to replace the cross, but the sign of the times is still there.

Do All Twins Look Alike?

This is a question about which experts differ and in order to make a public contest The Constitution is asking for a photograph of Georgia twins for publication in its Pictorial Gallery section.
We want photographs of twins of any age—babies, children, middle-aged or elders will be used—the only condition being that each single photograph of twins should be plainly on the back of the names of the twins, indicating each by "right" and "left"—also giving the names and addresses of their parents.

Where photographs of twins are sent separately the name of the twin should be given plainly on the back of the photograph with the address of the parents.
Mail all photographs to "TWIN PICTURE DEPARTMENT," THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA. The twin contest is open to the state of Georgia, here in Atlanta. The Constitution will be glad to have photographs taken of twins upon hearing from their parents, giving name and address in a letter to "Twin Picture Department," Atlanta, Ga. No charge for this will be made.

By studying these photographs the public will be able to judge for itself whether or not all twins look alike.

Americanism or Radicalism—It's Up to the Voters, Says Son of "Bill Arp"

Editor Constitution: There need be no such thing as radicalism in America if those who oppose it will use their ballots to defeat it. If they do not, radicalism, now rearing its menacing head, will become a deadly power through the organized votes of the minority at the polls. If that happens, some Americans who oppose radicalism, special privilege, block and other un-American policies, will have themselves only to blame.

Radicalism is as ridiculous as it is futile. We know that the organized majority elects the president of the United States, and that it also elects every other officer who gets his job, large or small, at the polls. Immediately after the election, from the country farthest from the president, is heralded as "the choice of the people." It is an insult to the intelligence of Americans that some of our office holders should be so referred to. "The choice of the people" is a political phrase, effective and all inclusive by suggestion, but the exact opposite of that in fact. It should be the "choice of the majority"—meaning the choice of those who go to the polls and vote in every election. It is nearly as conscienceless, but as the machine does.

Yes, the minority because the majority does not vote, as the following figures—giving the vote facts of the 1920 presidential election—will show:
Total eligible voters, 54,163,967
Total votes cast, 26,640,273
Eligible uncast votes, 27,523,694
Who was it that failed to cast those 27,523,694 votes? It was the unorganized majority who refused to elect a leader.

Who was it that failed to cast those 27,523,694 votes? It was the unorganized majority who refused to elect a leader. America 100 per cent American, but who, through individual indifference, selfishness, the lack of patriotism (failure to vote) cannot be truthfully defined in any other way than as a thousand and one "ifs" that do not excuse, "failed to go to the polls and vote for the perpetuation of their country as they know the love it."

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The month, due to its geographical position, is perhaps still more remote from the rest of the world. Due to this fact, there is, in the south a power at the polls that will go far toward correcting our present political ills.

The Daily Mirror of Washington

By Clinton W. Gilbert

Campaign Scouts and How They Go About Their Work.

You can tell something about the uncertainty of a national election by the number of newspaper pilgrims that pass through Chicago. When the result is certain, as it was in 1920, few of the "gentlemen of the press" make the rounds of the state. This year reporters are going all the way to the Pacific coast. Usually Nebraska and Kansas are the furthest points west of the eastern newspapers' curiosity. Between Nebraska and Minnesota and the Pacific coast states lie the states with only three or four electoral votes apiece, and the whole coast there are only 25 electoral votes. So it is taking a long trip to find out very little, and ordinarily a dozen or so votes make the difference. But this year the election may turn on the result in Washington or California, or even on Wyoming's three votes and Idaho's four.

Every day two or three traveling correspondents arrive in Chicago. They arrange for their itineraries to go together for it is lonely business exploring North Dakota, Montana and Idaho. Or if they cannot go out together they arrange to meet where their itineraries cross. They are going to see Dante Pierce, J. N. H. Phillips, Senator Rawson, in Iowa. They will see Ed Smith and George Akerson in Minnesota. They will see Curtis Betts, Harry Hawes and the managing editors of the St. Louis Globe Democrat in Missouri. They are like tourists, with lists of pensions in which to stop on their travels. You give them 25 cents, a name or two and then write them down in a little notebook.

How do they tell how a state is going by a brief stop in it? They talk to both sides, for usually even if there are three parties the contest is between two of them. Sometimes they sense confidence in one party that does not exist in the other. Sometimes a good state political reporter is the best judge of his state's prospects. This year it is hard to gauge there are not any precedents or records to go on. You can't measure the La Follette movement in the west exactly. Has it more enthusiasm than votes? New movements often have. Are you in danger of expecting too much from the organization of the republicans? Read their dispatches carefully for qualifying phrases and you will see that they are asking themselves those two questions.

I have been taking a poll of the traveling correspondents. Most of them expect Mr. Coolidge to win, but they can't say from just which state he will get his electoral votes. A few have been doubtful. One felt sure the election was going into congress.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Any reader may obtain a personal reply to any answerable question of fact or opinion by sending it to Washington Bureau, Atlanta Constitution, 1222 New York Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., enclosing 2 cents in stamps. Legal, medical and marital advice can not be given. No questions can be extended. Unsigned letters can not be answered. All letters are confidential.

Will a steel range for home use last longer than an iron range? Will it crack from heat as does the iron range; is it considered a better investment for the home than an iron range? The relative standing qualities depend upon the conditions of use and the design of the range; a steel range will not crack so readily from heat as an iron range. It is impossible to compare the two ranges in general terms; either type may be well or poorly built, and this factor has as great a relation to the initial cost and to the life of the range as the material used.

On what day did April 17, 1905, come? Monday.
Is it possible to buy surplus wagons from the war department? No, they have all been disposed of.

Why do aviators bleed at the nose at high altitudes? Because the lessened atmospheric pressure at high altitudes results in added pressure on the valves, organs and blood vessels supplying and circulating the blood.

Which is the best steel for gun barrels, Siemens-Martin steel or Krupp fluid steel? Siemens-Martin steel is the term used abroad for open-hearth steel. Krupp is a German steel-maker and the term "Krupp steel" gives no information as to the melting process used. The suitability of a steel for gun barrels depends on its composition and on the care used in its manufacture. The two general terms "Siemens-Martin steel" and "Krupp steel" relate to neither of these factors, hence it is impossible to answer the question.

Where is Rarotonga island; who controls it? It is one of the Cook Islands in the South Pacific. It is in the possession of New Zealand. The port of Rarotonga is the capital of the island.

What is the significance and use of the red and green lights on the sides of vessels? Why was one color chosen for one side and another for the other side? When a vessel can see only the green light on an approaching ship, it is an indication that the oncoming vessel is presenting her right side; when the red light is visible, the ship is presenting her left side; when both lights are visible, the ship is presenting straight ahead. Thus the course of an approaching vessel can be determined and collisions avoided at night. When these lights were first used, the green was chosen for the right and the red for the left; it might have been decided vice versa.

Which the nation is built. A conscientious, careful, conservative man; wise enough to look ahead; a man who can be trusted enough to listen to advice and broad enough to take it if it is good. We want a man in Washington who will work in the interests of all of the people of this nation and who will show no preference to any class to the detriment of the whole people.

Such a man is John W. Davis. In him democracy has a leader and with him the country has a future. The power to elect him lies in the hands of the people, and if they will go to the polls and vote for their country, he will be elected.

VICTOR A. SMITH, 609 West 141st Street, New York.

Today's Talk.

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ALL'S WELL.
We need to be kept reassured. There must have been something very reassuring about the old watchman of bygone days when he used to call out in the silence of the night: "All's well."

I have a friend who did only half his best because he imagined that he had something serious the matter with his stomach. He went to a doctor who told him that his stomach was perfectly normal and healthy. The diagnosis made all the difference in the world. A new smile appeared upon his friend's face and the sun came out from his work.

Chauncey Depew gave an interesting talk to his friends upon entering his ninetieth year. He said that the middle part of the road was the place to keep. He remarked that he never got excited over changes, new things, radical suggestions. He had lived to see the Federal Reserve act of the banking system, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank.

He said that he never got excited over changes, new things, radical suggestions. He had lived to see the Federal Reserve act of the banking system, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank.

He said that he never got excited over changes, new things, radical suggestions. He had lived to see the Federal Reserve act of the banking system, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank.

He said that he never got excited over changes, new things, radical suggestions. He had lived to see the Federal Reserve act of the banking system, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank.

He said that he never got excited over changes, new things, radical suggestions. He had lived to see the Federal Reserve act of the banking system, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank, the creation of the Federal Reserve bank

EX-ATLANTAN WINS HIGH RAILWAY JOB

Richmond, Va., October 14.—(Special.)—Following the annual meeting of the stockholders of Southern Railway company here today, the directors met and re-elected the officers of the company, electing Elmer R. Oliver, formerly freight traffic manager, as vice president in charge of traffic, succeeding the late Edward H. Shaw.

At the stockholders' meeting, Casper G. Bacon, of Massachusetts; Guy

Picture Frames
To Order
Good Work—Prompt Delivery.
SOU. BOOK CONCERN
71 WHITEHALL ST.

Merchants
THE Atlanta
Market will pay your railroad fare when you buy an adequate bill. Particulars on request.

For best selling merchandise buy from members of the
ATLANTA MERCHANTS AND MANUFACTURERS ASSN.
508 Chamber of Commerce Bldg.
ATLANTA

Cuticura Talcum
Unadulterated
Exquisitely Scented

CALIFORNIA
for the
COTTON-PLANTER
Write for free literature booklet telling about California's splendid cotton climate and the advantages of the land, where the soil itself never has been known.

Passenger-Traffic Dept., Southern Pacific Ry.
San Francisco, Calif.

This Man Intends to Keep It in the House

"In May or June, 1913, I sent to you and got four bottles which were worth many dollars to me. They enabled me to go to work again. I had lost 40 pounds, but these 4 bottles of May's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble gained back all I had lost and I feel like a new man since. I shall keep it in the house all the time. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will relieve or remove the trouble. Jacobs' Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.—(adv.)"

BreathBad?
Constipation may be causing it. Pluto Water safely and quickly flushes all the congested waste out of the bowels. Acts in 30 minutes to two hours. Never gripes. Prescribed by physicians, sold by druggists and bottled at French Lake Springs, Ind.

PLUTO WATER
America's Physic

MEN AND WOMEN
If you are sick of being sick, tired of taking medicine, tired of experimenting, do not put the matter off another day, but consult me at once. I will give you my opinion of your case.
Practice Limited to Nerve, Blood, Kidney, Stomach, Skin and all chronic diseases of men and women. Hours, 9 to 6, Sundays, 10 to 1.
DR. J. L. ROBAK, Specialist
29 1/2 Marietta St., Atlanta, Ga.

CHINABOY SHRUGS AT DEATH THREAT
Continued From Page 1.
with all the squeals and wails of bedlam.
KILLING MAY OPEN PHILADELPHIA WAR.
Philadelphia, October 14.—What the police believe was the opening gun in the threatened tong war here was

The Bride's Necessary Silver
6 Knives—medium size
6 Forks
6 Salad Forks
6 Butter Spreaders
6 After Dinner Coffee Spoons
6 Orange Spoons
6 Soup Spoons
6 Bouillon Spoons
6 Iced Tea Spoons
6 Ice Cream Forks
4 Tablespoons
12 Teaspoons
Steak Set
Serving Spoon and Fork
Gravy Ladle
Cold Meat Fork
Jelly Server
Salts and Peppers
Bread and Butter Plates
Sandwich Plate
Candlesticks
Fruit Bowl
Coffee Set
Chop Plate or Entree Dish

Buy Solid Silver!
MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.
For Thirty-Seven Years Gold and Silversmiths

MAJOR MCGREGOR REPORTED DYING

Warrenton, Ga., October 14.—C. E. McGregor, 84, pension commissioner of Georgia, is believed to be dying. Doctors at midnight said that he could

Elmer R. Oliver, whose election as vice president in charge of traffic of the Southern Railway company was announced in dispatches from Richmond, Va., Tuesday, was formerly resident of Atlanta, having been located here for a number of years prior to March 1, 1920 as assistant general freight agent of the company. He entered the service of the Southern as a clerk in the freight station at Greenville, Miss., on September 1, 1898. After holding various positions in the freight traffic department, he was made general freight agent at Cincinnati, Ohio, on March 1, 1920; executive general agent at New Orleans, La., April 15, 1922, and freight traffic manager of the system at Washington, D. C., October 11, 1923, which position he held at the time of his election as vice president in charge of traffic.

RECALL IS INVITED IF PROMISES FAIL

Continued From Page 1.

tion that was not only fraught with great consequences to themselves, but great consequences to the entire world.
Can Not Read Future.
"Nobody thought in 1890, when you chose that great Illinoisan, Abraham Lincoln, as president, that it was to lie in his hands to preserve the American union. Nobody thought in 1884, when that great citizen of New York, Grover Cleveland, was made president, that he was to set a new standard in American public life and to give his life and vigor and meaning to the great motto that a public office is a public trust. In 1912, while we believed that the election that year was one of vast consequence, none of us dreamed that we were choosing in that election a man who was to become commander-in-chief of the mightiest army that the American people ever raised, who was to hold up the ideals of America to all the world and to give all mankind a new idea of American valor and courage and idealism and determination. Nobody thought that in that election we were choosing not only the leader of America, but the voice of mankind in Woodrow Wilson. And no one can tell what lies ahead of us in the years that are to come, but this we do know: that to make a choice of the course which the American people, the greatest nation in the world, shall take for four years and to choose the man into whose hands that great responsibility of power shall be placed, is not a light or trivial thing for any man or woman or child in these United States."

Crowds Stand Four-Deep.

Every seat in the arena was occupied and people stood three and four deep about walls, waiting 15 minutes before Davis arrived.
The candidate reiterated his belief that this is indeed a democratic year. He added that the state democratic nominees would be elected to the offices they sought in congress and Governor L. Jones would be governor of Illinois. Davis asked his audience to reflect whether it had a "good government" today, adding that no government could be a good government unless it possessed honesty, courage, efficiency and justice.

"I say we must have honest government," he said, "and I assert we have not had it."

He questioned whether the time had not come when the people should not register against dishonesty, which, he charged, prevailed.
Discussing the quality of "courage in government" the candidate said he was not sure but that was the greatest of all virtues, even more necessary than honesty.

"And," he added, "I make no charge against the personal integrity or honesty of President Coolidge. But I ask, who put out of office all the republicans the democrats caught?"

LOCKWOOD DENIES CHARGES OF DAVIS.

Washington, October 14.—George Lockwood, former secretary of the republican national committee, today accused John W. Davis, the democratic presidential nominee, of having made "outrageously false and criminally libelous" statements in his references at Terre Haute yesterday to the indictment of Senator Wheeler, of Montana.
In the Terre Haute speech, Mr. Davis declared Mr. Lockwood's agents had helped "put on foot and procure" the indictment. Mr. Lockwood's reply was a telegram to the democratic nominee denying the charge made and challenging Mr. Davis to prove that there had been a "frame-up."

CHINABOY SHRUGS AT DEATH THREAT

Continued From Page 1.

Washington, October 14.—The Washington police announced today that they averted serious developments in the Chinese section of lower Pennsylvania avenue in connection with the nation-wide tong disturbances. They declared one of the rival Chinese factions had gone the length of negotiating for machine guns in preparation for open hostilities, but expressed a belief that the whole plot had been nipped in the bud.

TRIAL OF LINDSAY MAY RENEW ROW

Continued From Page 1.

paper reporters from the office of the chief of police on the night of October 1 was that he was suspended for alleged violations of rule 84, after threats against members of their own ward—helping group of political supporters in the department, the committee has substituted charges of lying and insubordination. It is just another of the same old tricks to cover their tracks."

In the speech out of which grew the present charges, Dr. Aven stated, Lindsay claimed that he was discharged behind closed doors, later qualifying his statement by saying that he was demoted and that Councilman Reall was responsible, adding that he "didn't want to tell the public the dirty methods by which his demotion was brought about."

Chairman Ed H. Inman, of the police committee, in a statement made last week on the floor of the council, answered Aven's attack by inviting "Dr. Aven to take his charges and statements and to go to hell with them." Chairman Inman could not be reached Tuesday for comment on Dr. Aven's statement.

Movie Stars Wed.

Hollywood, Cal., October 14.—Kenneth Harlan and Marie Prevost, members of the motion picture colony, were married today.

Attendance Records Broken as Thousands Throng Columbus Fair

Columbus, Ga., October 14.—(Special.)—Early tonight it was estimated that 12,000 had passed through the gates of the Chattahoochee Valley fair on its second day. Indications are that all attendance records in the history of the association would be broken when the official count is made.

The attendance today was swelled by hundreds of school children who thronged to Children's day.

DEMOCRATS LAUNCH INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN

With the appointment Tuesday afternoon of finance committees for all Georgia districts, plans for the financing of the democratic campaign in Georgia were perfected and preparations for actual work got under way. These committees were appointed by an appointment committee named by Asa Warren Candler, financial director for the fifth Georgia district.

Tuesday afternoon's meeting, which was held in the office of Mr. Candler in the Candler building, completed the preliminary program and a concerted drive for contributions is the next step.
At a meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Kimball house, addresses were made by prominent workers for the democratic cause in Georgia.
Victor Allen, finance director for Georgia, spoke enthusiastically of the Davis-Bryan ticket and declared that victory seemed assured. James A. Holloman, of the Constitution, told the gathering of his belief that Davis would be elected after the election was thrown into congress. Miss Beasie Kempton, Fulton county representative to the legislature, warned against the bolting of voters who registered in the primaries as being supporters of the democratic party.

Miss Troutman Interred.

Rome, Ga., October 14.—(Special.) The body of Miss Mary Cornelia Troutman, who died in Athens Sunday night, was brought to Rome today. She was buried in Myrtle Hill cemetery this morning.

Smoot at Wife's Side.

Washington, October 14.—Senator Smoot, of Utah, arrived in Washington today to be at the bedside of Mrs. Smoot, who is seriously ill here. He canceled a number of speaking engagements in the west.

Large Prints from Small Negatives

Let us make large prints from your favorite negatives—no matter what their size. As you add to the size, you add to the interest to an astonishing degree.

Eastman Kodak Co.

(Glenn Photo Stock Co.)
183 Peachtree St.

Tokyo, Japan, will use automatic telephones entirely hereafter, 50,000 having been ordered from England.

3 ALLEGED ROBBERS FACE MANY CHARGES

Constitution Bureau, Masonic Temple Annex, Phone 1069.
Rome, Ga., October 14.—(Special.) The trio arrested at Trion Sunday morning and brought here on charges of robbery following the holding up of a candy store and several filling stations here Sunday are wanted in Athens for the alleged robbery of a gasoline filling station and for holding up the policeman, who attempted to arrest them, and taking his pistol. Messages to this effect were received here today. It was also disclosed that several cars were stolen recently in New York and Philadelphia, and that the two men and the woman arrested here have been connected with the thefts.

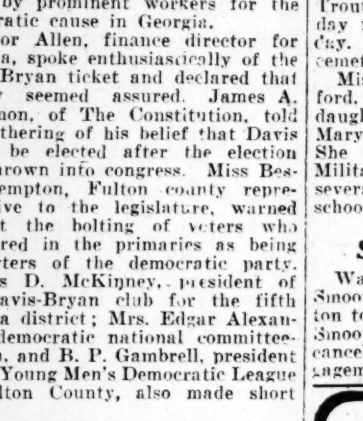

The three alleged bandits, robbers and automobile thieves may face a series of charges in several parts of the country, officers announced tonight. It was indicated that they are connected with a theft syndicate, when license tags of cars reported to have been stolen in New York and Pennsylvania were found in the machine they were driving.

When the prisoners were arrested, they gave their names as Ed Carey, Albert Malone and Mrs. Ed Carey. Warrants have been taken out for them and they are held in Floyd county jail.

Business Leaders AID CHEST APPEAL

Leading industrial, business and banking institutions of Atlanta, employing an aggregate of 22,000 people, are cooperating with the Community Chest in preparation for the chest campaign which will begin November 5 and continue through November 12, according to W. W. Orr, chairman of the groups division of the campaign.
From now until the campaign begins these firms have agreed to use pay envelopes carrying the message of the Community Chest and the dates of the campaign, so that for each of the three remaining weeks before the campaign a large percentage of Atlanta's population will read the appeal, it is stated.

There is no simpler solution of the heating problem

EACH RADIATOR AN INDEPENDENT STEAM HEATING PLANT

There is no heating system that is easier to install and use than Clow "Gasteam."

With Clow Gasteam Radiators you simply turn on the gas and light a match. You have a full head of steam inside of half an hour.

You need no water pipe connections. The water is contained in a chamber which you re-fill about every two weeks, if you are using the radiators constantly. There is no danger of bursting a radiator by freezing when not in use.

The water chamber is over a burner which emits a multitude of tiny Bunsen flames—clean, sootless heat which does not dry out but actually humidifies the air, keeping it healthful.

Each radiator is a separate heating unit. You can turn on as many or as few as you please.

Clow Gasteam is not merely "auxiliary" heating apparatus; it is designed to operate perfectly even when the gas supply is at its lowest pressure.

Inquire about Clow Gasteam before deciding on your heating equipment. Thousands of satisfied users everywhere.

Do you not want to know more about this modern, clean, convenient and healthful method of heating? Write or call us today.

GEORGIA RAILWAY & POWER CO.
75 Marietta St. IVy 4400

CLOW "GASTEAM" HEATING SYSTEMS

Mid. by JAMES B. CLOW & SONS, Chicago

MISSING BANKER RETURNS TO COURT TO FACE CHARGES

Columbus, Ga., October 14.—A. M. Hendricks, who did not appear in Taylor superior court at 9 o'clock this morning for trial on charges of embezzlement, returned to the courthouse about 3 o'clock this afternoon and the presentation of testimony was immediately begun, according to long distance telephone advices from Butler tonight.

Hendricks was present when the jury in his fourth trial was selected yesterday afternoon, but when court was reconvened this morning he was not in the court room. Officers were immediately dispatched to hunt the former Bank of Maun cashier, who is charged with embezzling approximately $22,000. This afternoon he

Child Dies of Burns.

Hattiesburg, Miss., October 14.—Sherbert Blackwell, aged three years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blackwell, died at Sunrise, Miss., today from burns. The child was playing near a fire when its clothing caught fire and he was horribly burned, death resulting a few hours later.

FEDERAL PARDON BOARD CONSIDERS IN SESSION HERE

Deliberating upon the question of possible freedom for many of the 1,800 inmates of the Atlanta federal prison the pardon board for this institution, headed by Superintendent of Prisons H. H. Votaw, was in session Tuesday and will continue in session each day during the week, or until judgment has been passed upon the cases under consideration.

Superintendent Votaw pays regular visits to the Atlanta prison, usually timing his visits so as to call a meeting of the pardon board while here. The board is composed of Superintendent Votaw, Warden A. E. Sarntain and Dr. Andrew Quillian, prison physician.

Fall and Winter Creations

Where Smartness—Comfort And Durability Reigns—
Showing Today The EDWIN CLAPP Winter OXFORDS In Light And Heavy Leathers—Both Tan And Black—In The New Holland Grain And Russian Calf-skins—
Smart Brogues And $13.50 Lighter Pattern Effects...
Edwin Clapp Palm Beach
High Shoe—A Conservative English Model In Tan Russia Calf—$13.50 skin—Very Dressy Pattern
Same Style In Black Glazed Kangaroo At $15.

Complete Range Of "Our Own Make" Shoes.
In All Latest Lasts And Leathers, . . . $8 To $10

PARKS-CHAMBERS- HARDWICK CO.

This store specializes in enlarging of the superior kind. You may be sure that your negatives will receive the careful treatment they deserve.

Eastman Kodak Co.
(Glenn Photo Stock Co.)
183 Peachtree St.

Tokyo, Japan, will use automatic telephones entirely hereafter, 50,000 having been ordered from England.

There is no simpler solution of the heating problem

This woman is shopping now

NOT all shopping is done in stores.

More buying is done in the home than is done at the retail counter or in front of the shop window.

The customer may go to the store to get the goods and pay for them—but the real sale takes place in her home, where she sits with the week's pay envelope and the savings bank book and the catalogs with pictures of the things she would love to have.

A woman doesn't just walk in off the street and buy a piano or a chest of silver or a set of furs, or an automobile robe or a pair of evening shoes.

better paper
better printing

The simple way to prepare effective direct mail advertising is described in a series of books published by S. D. Warren Company. These books are known as the "More Business Series." You can obtain them as they are issued, without cost to you, from any distributor of Warren's Standard Printing Papers.

S. D. WARREN COMPANY . BOSTON, MASS.

WARREN'S STANDARD PRINTING PAPERS

Tested for printing, folding, and binding qualities

Warren's Standard Printing Papers are Distributed by

SLOAN PAPER COMPANY

ATLANTA, GA.

PAPER FOR THE PRINTER

Telephone: Walnut 0653 and 0654

Warren's Standard Printing Papers

AMUSEMENTS

Lyric Theater—The Lyric Players in "Oh Boy," musical comedy.

Loew's Grand—Vendell and pictures (See advertisements for complete program).

Ferris Theater—Vendell and new reels. (See advertisements for complete program).

Howard Theater—(Feature pictures). Ramon Novarro in "The Red Lily."

Metropolitan Theater—(Feature pictures). Glenn Hunter in "The Silent Watcher."

Alamo Theater—(Feature pictures). Viola Dana and star cast in "Open All Night."

Alamo No. 2—(Feature pictures). Frederick and Lou Tellegen in "Let No Man Put Asunder."

Palace Theater—Drama—Barbara La Marr in "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

Tudor Theater—Peculiarly Dean in "The White Tiger."

Alpha Theater—"Hit and Run," starring Root Gibson.

"Oh, Boy!"

(At the Lyric.)

"Oh, Boy," the smartest, snappiest, most useful and sprightliest musical comedy that the Lyric theater could find on the play market, is making Lyric patrons pat their feet, sway their shoulders and laugh loud and long each night this week and on Thursday and Saturday matinee.

ALAMO THEATRE

3 NIGHTS, STARTING TOMORROW (THURS.) MATINEE SATURDAY.

OTIS SKINNER

AND COMPANY OF 40 PEOPLE

THE MERRY, SPECTACULAR "SANCHEZ PANZA"

Prices: Nights, 50c to $2.50. Sat. Mat., 50c to $2.50.

ON SALE AT BOX OFFICE

OF THEATRE AND AT THE "ASK MR. FOSTER" SERVICE AT M. RICH & BROS. CO. STORE

ALL NEXT WEEK

MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

RETURN OF

BRILLIANT

BEAUTIFUL

MEMORABLE

BLOSSOM TIME

THE MUSICAL HIT OF THE AGES

EXCEPTIONAL CAST

Augmented Orchestra

Prices: Nights, 50c to $2.50. Mat., 50c to $2.50.

Mail Orders Now. Seat Sale Friday

BYRON WARNER

NELLIE SULLIVAN'S DANCERS

LYRIC OH BOY!

MUSICAL COMEDY

WITH CALVIN ROYCE'S RAINBOW ORCHESTRA

Watch for New Prices

Mat. Tomorrow at 2:30

Pretty Girls Catchy Music

LOEW'S GRAND

Continues 1 to 11 P. M.

Vandeville 3:30-6:45-9:00 P. M.

FRED LAREINE & CO.

FOUR OTHER 4

LOEW'S GRAND

Photoplay 2:00-4:30-8:00-10:00 P. M.

METRO-GOLDWYN Presents

LAURETTE TAYLOR

—IN—

"One Night in Rome"

Afts., 15c-25c. Nights, 15c-30c-50c

KEITH'S VAUDEVILLE

BILLY "SWEDE" HALL

WITH JENNIE COLBURN "HILDA"

EMERSON & CO.

The Four Pals

Male Quartette "That's My Brother"

MURDOCK & KENNEDY SISTERS

"STUFF AND NONSENSE"

Three Shows Daily—2:30-7:30-9:15

Mat., 25c-35c. Nights, 30c-40c-50c

Howard

All Week

RAMON NOVARRO

ENID BENNETT

In

"THE RED LILY"

PERFORMANCES

11:30-1:00-2:30-4:00-5:45-7:30-9:15

METROPOLITAN

Daily 11:00-12:30-2:15-4:00-5:45-7:30-9:15

THE SILENT WATCHER

By Mary Roberts Rinehart

With Bessie Love and Glenn Hunter

Loew's Grand

RALTO

VIOLA DANA, ADOLPH MENJOU, JETTA GUDAL, and RAYMOND GRIFITH

"OPEN ALL NIGHT"

25 ORPHANS STRICKEN

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

Macon, Ga., October 14.—Ten little girls from the Methodist Orphan's home were rushed to a local hospital shortly before midnight tonight, suffering from ptomaine poisoning.

Half an hour later the ambulance was called for a second load of children.

It was said that more than 25 inmates of the home were taken suddenly ill during the night.

Those admitted to the hospital are: Gertrude Oakes, 12; Margaret Miller, 9; Alice Smith, 10; Kathleen Miller, 11; Lillian McInerney, 11; Olive Stansell, 10; Lucille Freeman, 13; Louise Massey, 15; Hazel Smith, 16; and Margaret Binford, 15.

Only one child was brought to the hospital on the return of an ambulance in answer to the second call from the institution.

Authorities here say there are about 15 more children, all girls, suffering from the poisoning, but it was not found necessary to remove them to a hospital.

Vaudeville.

(Keith's Forsyth.)

Audiences at Keith's Forsyth are showing their appreciation of the first three days of this week for the splendid act of melody and fun being offered by "The Four Pals" male quartet, as the headline feature of the vaudeville program.

In addition the bill includes the act of Billy "Suede" Hall, Murdock and the Kennedy sisters, Emerson and company and the Three Salsos, all highly entertaining acts.

Loew's Vaudeville.

(At Loew's Grand Theater.)

An electrical novelty and cyclone of the best pictures at Loew's Grand theater this week and is one of the most unusual vaudeville acts seen here in some time. Fred La Reine and his assistants are offering a form of real entertainment in this novelty act. George Lane and Byrd Byron are comical pair who they cause many a laugh when they meet on a side street. This is one of the funniest acts of the season. Milla Nina and company in a snappy song and dance number. The three Salsos, two other splendid acts complete the vaudeville bill. Laurette Taylor and Tom Moore are seen in the feature picture "One Night in Rome."

Ramon Novarro.

(At the Howard.)

"The Red Lily," the latest Fred Niblo production starring that adorable lover, Ramon Novarro, is one of the best pictures of the season. Novarro does some very interesting work in this picture and with the support of Enid Bennett, the theatergoers are assured of real entertainment in "The Red Lily." Buel B. Risinger is presenting Irving Berlin's latest hit, "What'll I Do?" as overture.

"Blossom Time."

(Coming to the Atlanta.)

That beautiful operetta, "Blossom Time," has the longest run to its credit of any musical attraction that has ever played in New York City. A reason for its success is the music of the immortal Schubert, its story a romance in the great composer's life, its characters the famous figures of Vienna of 1800. Superbly sung and acted, it represents one of the most artistic musical productions in the annals of the theater. The Atlanta theater for the week commencing October 20.

"The Silent Watcher."

(At the Metropolitan.)

Aggie Herring, who plays the gossiping Mrs. Jim Tully in "The Silent Watcher," is the latest attraction at the Metropolitan theater, enjoys the distinction of being one of the foremost Irish comedienne.

"Open All Night."

(At the Rialto.)

Hollywood now possesses the greatest enigma of the screen. Her name is Jettie Gould. Comparatively little is known about her, but she has become a stage play "Simon Called Peter." Her fame spread as she scored triumph after triumph on both stage and screen. Now she is under contract with Paramount and has an important role in "Open All Night," which is at the Rialto theater, featuring herself, Viola Dana, Adolphe Menjou, Raymond Griffith and Maurice Flynn.

Helpless Victim

Jeered by Bandits

As They Get Cash

Three unidentified white men early Wednesday morning entered the soft drink establishment of F. A. Barker, at 4 Memphis avenue, held up the proprietor at the point of a pistol and rifled the cash register of $150, according to police.

The men, Mr. Barker said, lingered in his store several minutes following the robbery, chewing gum, smoking cigars and drinking beer while he held his hands above his head.

NOTED TEXAS HOTEL

THREATENED BY FIRE

San Antonio, October 14.—Fire, starting before midnight in the rear of the Menger hotel, quickly spreading to the third story, appeared, after burning 30 minutes without being controlled, to have doomed the entire building. So far as known all guests escaped but a complete check has been made of the Menger hotel and it was one of the oldest in Texas and has been in continuous use since the sixties.

BOY KILLS FATHER

TO PROTECT MOTHER

Knoxville, Tenn., October 14.—William H. Hood, 18, crossing watchman for the Southern Railway, was shot and killed here tonight by his son, Elmer Hood, 19, at their home, 225 East North avenue, and carried off a revolver and several articles of women's clothing while the family was away from home, according to police reports.

BURGLARS ROB HOME

ON NORTH AVENUE

Burglars early Tuesday night entered the residence of O. F. Williams, at 225 East North avenue, and carried off a revolver and several articles of women's clothing while the family was away from home, according to police reports.

LISBON PROTESTS TAX

ON BOTTLED LIQUOR

Lisbon, Portugal, October 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—All of the shops and offices of Lisbon were closed today in a 24-hour protest against the arrest of the director of the chamber of commerce. The industrial association will join in the protest tomorrow and all factories will follow suit by closing for a day, it is stated.

Two merchants have been arrested charged with inciting resistance to the tax on bottled goods, which only 40 merchants in Lisbon have consented to accept. Other merchants withdrew their goods from sale to avoid paying the tax and avoid severe penalties for failure to conform with the new tax law.

United States Pays Freight

On International Trophies

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

New York, October 14.—When Earl McNeely, of California, sailed a boulder over Freddie Lindstrom's cap in the last moment of the world series, he also slapped the summer sport program of 1924 into the past tense, for the series was the last outstanding business of a crowded athletic docket. As this was an Olympic summer, there was more international competition than usual, and the wrenching and straining of the amateur athletes quite made up for the sulking of the prizefight champions, who refused to accept half a loaf from the customers and consequently were allowed to loaf all season.

The United States, the most efficiently trained and organized nation in the world of athletics, again was the chief actor in the majority of the gray boats, zeids, sauce-pans and other silver vessels which were awarded for the championships played in the land of his nativity, and it should apply everywhere.

Walter Hagen's second annexation of the British open championship compensated for what Walker did at Detroit. In the land of his nativity, but the title belongs to England for the year. The Olympic rule in such cases is that the athlete competes for the land of his nativity and it should apply everywhere.

America didn't claim the British open title when Jock Hutchison, a born Scot, won it.

Hagen's Feat.

Walter Hagen's second annexation of the British open championship compensated for what Walker did at Detroit. In the land of his nativity, but the title belongs to England for the year. The Olympic rule in such cases is that the athlete competes for the land of his nativity and it should apply everywhere.

America didn't claim the British open title when Jock Hutchison, a born Scot, won it.

Tilden Unbeaten.

The strife was warm enough between the two champions, but there was no answer to Tilden's racket. He defended the national singles title without snapping any tendons and without a single error in his play.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

Victor Richards was hushed off in the men's singles at Wimbledon, which confers no very smart title, but he won the championship in the Olympics, which was more important than the Wimbledon title.

AUBURN MEETS

HOWARD NEXT

Auburn, Ala., October 14.—(Special.)—Monday was a busy day for the Auburn Plainsmen when they started the week's grind for the coming of the Howard Bulldog to the Tiger campus next Saturday, October 18. The squad was divided into two teams, who were hustling up and down the greenward on Drake field working on new formations and smoothing up others that have been on the calendar for some time.

The Tigers came back from Richmond, arriving Sunday night, where they took an even break with the V. P. I. gobs, in a nothing to nothing tie, Saturday afternoon. Judging from the pace established by the coaches Monday afternoon, the Orange and Blue squad apparently did not fare badly at the hands of the Virginia Techmen, as every member of the squad was in the drill and every one was stretching out to "keep on the ball."

From reports from the Tiger-Gobler affair Saturday the Auburnites showed considerable strength on the defensive but a lack of consistent ability on the offensive threatened the Virginia stronghold.

TOLLEY, JONES, RIDLEY, ADAIR SQUARE GOLF MATCH

Tech Freshmen Defeat Second Varsity Team

Freshmen Score Twice

BY JULIAN GRIFFIN.

The freshmen at Tech stepped out yesterday afternoon and beat the second varsity, won an honest victory, 12 to 6. Something got into the yearlings and they couldn't be stopped. Wright, a freshman who hails from the same section of the country as "Buck" Flowers, and John Brewer, who starred on teams at Griffin High for three years, were not in a mood to be halted and each of these boys had the temerity to carry the ball across the goal, the former on a beautiful 70-yard end run and the latter trotting 25 yards for his touchdown.

Wright, in addition to being brought up in the same state as Flowers, resembles the famous Tech star of a few years back, and his prep school record and showing on the freshman team, point to a place among Tech stars similar to that attained by "Buck," which is just about as high as stars can soar on the southern gridiron.

Brewer made a great prep-school record at Griffin High, where he was a four-letter man and a star in every department. His passes, thrown with his left hand, gained considerable ground for the frosh. He will also be further heard from before completing his education at Tech.

Scrimmage Today.

The first varsity team was again let off yesterday without scrimmage, but went through with a snappy signal drill, going into all details of the plays thoroughly and getting ready for the scrimmage that is scheduled for this afternoon.

The team that the freshmen defeated yesterday lined up with Angley and Parrish, Irvin, quarter, and Holland, full. The work of Parrish in the backfield continues to look good. His cutting back on end runs was a method of gaining a good portion of his team's ground yesterday.

Not only did the freshmen score two touchdowns to one by the varsity, but the frosh also broke through and spilled the older boys for loss on several occasions during the afternoon.

Moore was again running at quarter for the first varsity and is handling that position well. It is likely that he will start there Saturday against Penn State.

Light Up Field.

It has been announced that the playing field will be equipped with electric lights after November 1, which will give the team a good many extra minutes of practice every afternoon during the last month of football when the afternoons grow much shorter.

The seating capacity of Grant field for the Penn State game will be 27,000, although the seats at the north end of the field will not be erected. The stands will hold 40,000 persons when these stands are erected.

In all probability there will be no public sale of tickets to the Auburn and Vanderbilt games. Tickets to these games may be secured by application to the Tech Athletic office. The demand for these games is one of the largest in history. Applications are being made for them already.

FAMOUS STARTER READY FOR RACE

Charlotte, N. C., October 14.—Fred Wagner, famous starter and car of American automobile speedways during the progress of a race, has arrived in Charlotte to take charge of the big auto classic that will be staged on the Charlotte bowl on October 25.

When Mr. Wagner had visited the track in company with C. Lane Edger, president, and B. D. Heath, Jr., secretary and treasurer, his enthusiasm was expressed as follows: "It is the best-built, best-sped, best-way in America. It has the most practical safety measures and I believe it will be the fastest of all the tracks constructed to date."

"Judging from the advance sale of tickets, I predict an attendance to the Charlotte opening second only to Indianapolis or Los Angeles. You can count on the drivers doing their level best on such a track. It would not surprise me to see an average speed of 118 or 120 miles an hour for the 250-mile grind, and such speed would be a record for a one and one-quarter-mile speedway."

Stewart's Men's and Boys' Department
8 W. Alabama St.

"See these exceptional values in our windows—then let us fit you."

at 6.75 Pr.

at 8.75 Pr.

Young Men's OXFORDS of Light Tan—Medium Tan or Brown Russia Calf

—these are just from the express office, in every size and width.

Stewart's
FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.
25 Whitehall St.

The "Big Four" Foursome

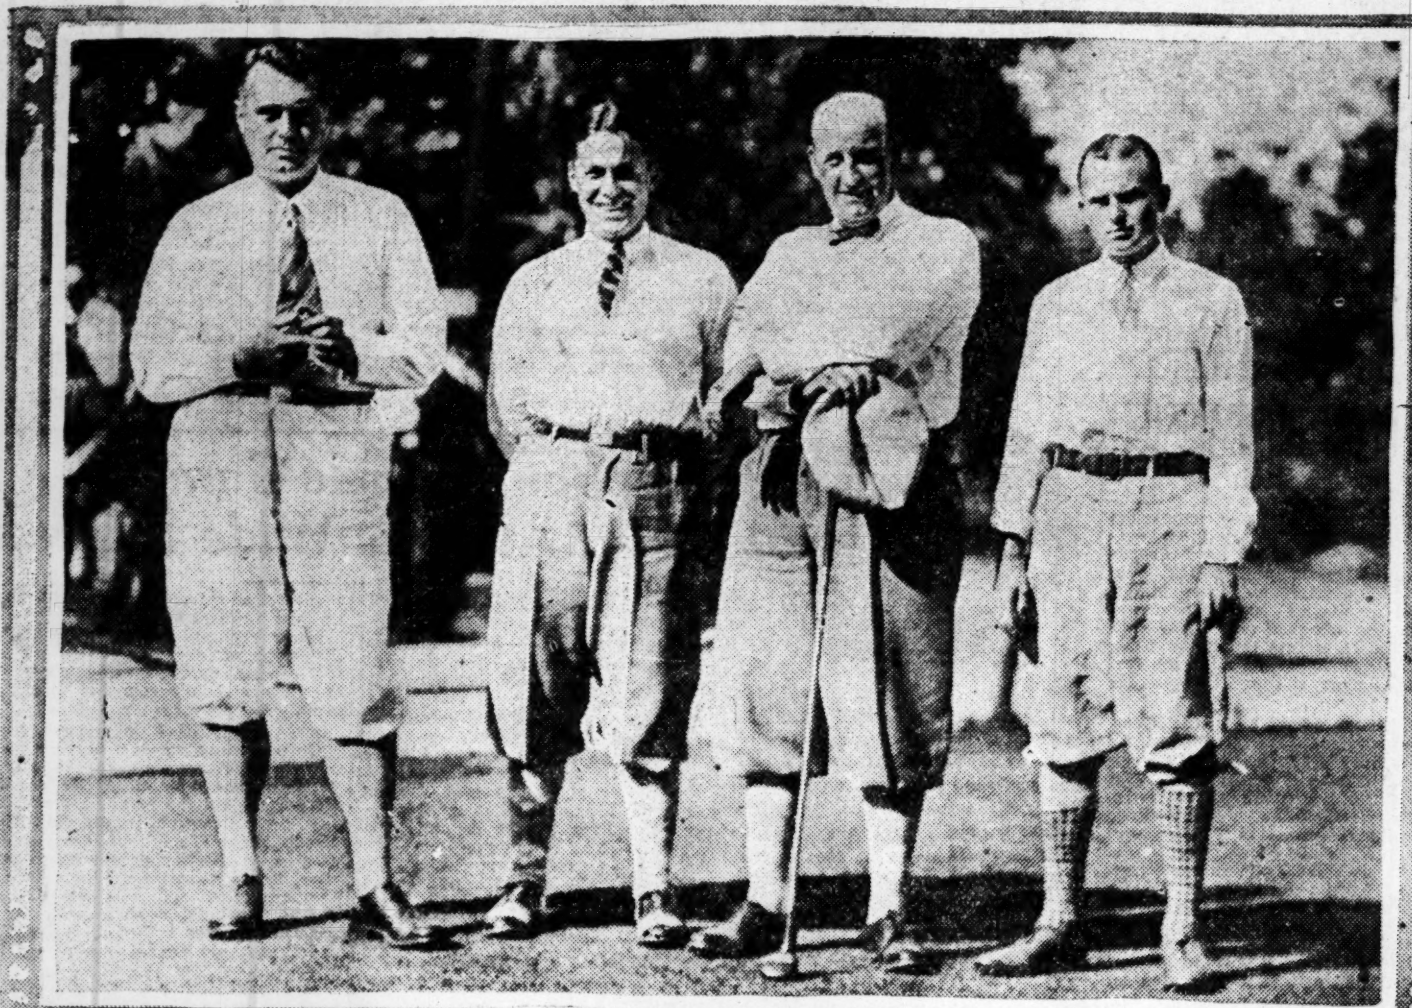

Photo by Mathewson & Price, Staff Photographers.

Cyril J. H. Tolley, former British golf champion; Bobby Jones, amateur champion; Chick Ridley, southern champion, and Perry Adair, former southern champion, who staged a charity tournament yesterday. Below, Tolley putting on the second green at East Lake. Jones and Ridley played Tolley and Adair, the match ending all square.

GRIDIRON LURE CALLS YOST BACK

Ann Arbor, Mich., October 14.—Coach Yost, whose retirement from active direction of Michigan's football destinies several times has been announced, has found the lure of the gridiron too great to withstand.

In a gridiron suit, the famous mentor appeared on Perry field last night and took direct charge of preparing the squad for the struggle with Illinois at Urbana next Saturday.

In spite of his 53 years, "Hurricane" Yost worked as hard as any member of the team and the famous voice can count on the drivers doing their level best on such a track. It would not surprise me to see an average speed of 118 or 120 miles an hour for the 250-mile grind, and such speed would be a record for a one and one-quarter-mile speedway."

Hard work, Yost told the squad, was necessary for the Illinois game. He then showed coaches and players alike what hard work really was.

True, Notre Dame has a veteran backfield too, but it has not nearly so much power in the line as has the army. It will take cleverness, untried even for Rockne, to turn the trick against army again this year.

His chance, so far as the writer can see, will lie in West Point's slowness to get going and his unwillingness to put everything she has into the game at the very start and keep it there as long as she can.

We shall certainly see some new forward passing features, but the greatest trick Rockne has lies in the clever use of his hands.

Other Games.

Another good game next Saturday will be the Syracuse-Boston college game at Syracuse, where Chick Meehan will line his men up against Cavanaugh's hard-fighting Bostonians. This should be a mighty close struggle, with the odds slightly favoring Syracuse in spite of the losses that Meehan has suffered in his backfield.

A very vital game will be played at New Haven between Yale and Dartmouth, which are renewing relations after a lapse of some 30 years. Jesse Hawley and Campbell have been pointing for this contest, and judging from the power Dartmouth showed against Vermont last Saturday and the lack of scoring power unearthed by Yale against Georgia, the Bulldogs are going to be in for a busy gridiron session.

Dartmouth lost only one game last season, that with Cornell, and is not likely to lose many this season.

Another really big, hard game will be played at Atlanta between Penn State and Georgia Tech. The Penn State eleven won only by 7-0 last year, and Beale is likely to have his hands full winning this time. Alexander has been coaching Georgia Tech now for some years and developing good teams.

Odds Favor West Point In Notre Dame Contest

BY WALTER CAMP.
(Copyright, 1924.) Special Leased Wire.

New York, October 14.—If Notre Dame can beat West Point again next Saturday, Knute Rockne will be deserving of all the encomiums that are showered upon him—provided, of course, that the army uses all the available strength it can put into the field.

Army's back trio, Wood, Wilson and Hewitt, is a combination capable of more characters of play than almost any that can be got together so far this season. It includes a steady, reliable kicker and passer, as good an open-field runner as they have, and a piled-driving line smasher.

The army has a fine line, too, and Garbush for field kicks.

True, Notre Dame has a veteran backfield too, but it has not nearly so much power in the line as has the army. It will take cleverness, untried even for Rockne, to turn the trick against army again this year.

His chance, so far as the writer can see, will lie in West Point's slowness to get going and his unwillingness to put everything she has into the game at the very start and keep it there as long as she can.

We shall certainly see some new forward passing features, but the greatest trick Rockne has lies in the clever use of his hands.

Other Games.

Another good game next Saturday will be the Syracuse-Boston college game at Syracuse, where Chick Meehan will line his men up against Cavanaugh's hard-fighting Bostonians. This should be a mighty close struggle, with the odds slightly favoring Syracuse in spite of the losses that Meehan has suffered in his backfield.

A very vital game will be played at New Haven between Yale and Dartmouth, which are renewing relations after a lapse of some 30 years. Jesse Hawley and Campbell have been pointing for this contest, and judging from the power Dartmouth showed against Vermont last Saturday and the lack of scoring power unearthed by Yale against Georgia, the Bulldogs are going to be in for a busy gridiron session.

Dartmouth lost only one game last season, that with Cornell, and is not likely to lose many this season.

Another really big, hard game will be played at Atlanta between Penn State and Georgia Tech. The Penn State eleven won only by 7-0 last year, and Beale is likely to have his hands full winning this time. Alexander has been coaching Georgia Tech now for some years and developing good teams.

GYM ACTIVITIES START AT Y.M.C.A.

Activities in the senior gym class of Central "Y" started with a rush Monday night with the opening events of the Annual Gymnastic and Athletic league. Events are held each week throughout the season and some very warm competition is to be had for those taking part.

The class has been divided into clubs this year, which will be permanent. The following clubs have been organized and elected officers as follows: The "Y's" Guys club have Everett Clarke as their president, with H. W. Carter as vice president and L. E. Abernathy as secretary-treasurer.

The club headed by Clarence Cochran as president has selected for its name the "Boosters club," with J. C. Williamson as vice president and W. C. Baggett as secretary-treasurer.

Dick Rosier, of Tech High fame, heads the "Win 1 club" and is backed by Adolphus Freeman as vice president.

The "Triangle club" has J. R. Byrum as president, V. H. Cordell, vice president, and W. H. O'Connor as secretary-treasurer.

The events of last Monday were the 50-yard dash and volley ball. The "Y's" Guys defeated the Boosters in a great volley-ball match, and the Triangle club defeated the Win 1 club. In the 50-yard dash Bronberg of the Triangles made the best time covering the distance in 7.2 seconds.

The senior class meets at 7:30 p. m. and is open for enrollment to any member of the association between the ages of 18 and 25 years.

STECHER THROWS HENRY ORDEMAN

Nashville, October 14.—Joe Stecher, former heavyweight champion of the world, won in straight falls from Henry Ordeaman, at one time rated as one of the best matmen in the

Brave the Wind and Storm in the best wet weather togs ever invented the FISH BRAND REFLEX SLICKER

(PATENTED) TOWERS' FISH BRAND SLICKER

The Rainy Day Pal A.J. TOWER CO. BOSTON

M'GRAW MAKES ADDITIONS TO HURLERS

New York, October 14.—(By The Associated Press).—John McGraw, veteran manager of the New York Giants, already is figuring upon his 1925 campaign and a bid for his fifth straight National league pennant.

Temporarily, the Giant chieftain will take a vacation in connection with the European tour of the Giants and White Sox, but upon his return he intends to line up his forces for the coming year. He left tonight for Quebec, where he will join the tourists and sail tomorrow night.

Discussing the 1925 prospects today, McGraw expressed confidence that his team would be more formidable. The Giants finished the season and went through the world's series with two rookies, Lindstrom and Terry in the infield and another, Wilson, in the outfield. In addition, McGraw figures that such newcomers as Dean, Maun and Baldwin in the pitching box will strengthen his hurling corps for 1925.

Dean, obtained from Louisville, was something of a disappointment this year, but McGraw believes he has the stuff and that the year's experience will have benefited him greatly.

Get New Catcher.

"I probably will bolster the catching department before another campaign opens," McGraw continued. "Frank Snyder was of little use during the closing part of the past season and I can't tell what shape he'll be in for 1925. Hank Gowdy stood up nobly this year under the heavy work, but you know Hank can't go on forever."

McGraw would not say whether he intends to displace Heinie Groh with Lindstrom at third base regularly. The condition of Groh's injured knee will be a factor in his decision, but baseball men generally predict that Lindstrom has demonstrated he has unusual natural ability.

As it played through the world's series, McGraw's infield is one of the youngest combinations that ever participated in the championship. Lindstrom will not be 19 and Travis Jackson, shortstop, will not be 21 until November. Frisch has just passed his 26th birthday and Bill Terry, who replaced George Kelly most of the time at first base, is only 24.

Pittsburg, McGraw figures, will be the Giants' principal rival in 1925. The Pirates have also acquired an unusual array of promising young material, notably Cuyler and Moore, outfielders, Wright, star shortstop, and Kremer and Yode, pitchers.

world here tonight. Stecher used a body-scissors and arm-lock for both falls. The match lasted 35 minutes.

Jack Fisher, world's lightweight champion, won a handicap match from Soldier Mack, claimant of the southern welterweight title.

There were some people after the match who did a little quiet insisting that an extra hole be played to name the winners, but what was the use? Here were four friends, champions, who went out there to show their stuff for charity. They showed it and why hold them down to a decision? At a dollar a head that match made Tuesday bargain day at East Lake.

After Hagen's Crown.

The matter of which is the better golfer, Jones or Tolley, probably will be shown in 1925 when they will meet in the British amateur tournament, each gunning for the crown Walter Hagen now holds. It leaked out yesterday that Jones will make the trip

Large Crowd Follows Famous Foursome Around; Proceeds Go to Charity

BY GEORGE CONGDON.

Cyril Tolley, Bob Jones, Perry Adair and Chick Ridley, at 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon were in the same relative position as they were at 1:30 regarding the golf superiority of Tolley and Adair against Bob and Ridley, but between these hours they furnished 700 or 800 Atlanta society people and golf bugs with probably the most startlingly good exhibition of pasture pool that has been the portion of an East Lake gallery in some time.

Jones, by sending his second on No. 18 across a trap and the green dead to the pin for an easy three, squared the match and everybody was happy, including the women of the East Lake club, as they looked around and visualized the dollars the foursome attracted for charity.

It was nothing short of a match of champions in supreme form. Of course the champions weren't under the strain of a tournament match and there were some "busts," but when they occurred they only gave the champions a chance to show the gallery just what kind of a recovery a champion can make.

The match showed the kind of golf by which Tolley won the French open title and the British amateur championship. He was in the national amateur and the national open by which Adair twice won the southern title and by which Ridley stepped into the place of the mighty among Georgia golfers a few months ago over the same course.

Tolley Outdrives Jones.

Bob Jones is given credit for doing some terrific driving, but Tolley, the British wallflower of the pale poets, outslammed Jones from the tees most of the time. Bob came right back at Tolley, however, on the iron shots and that's how the story ends with everybody living happily ever after.

Both Jones and Tolley were off on their putting a bit, although they did sink plenty of putts that looked like miracles to anybody who doesn't play for the 18 holes, which is two above par. Adair shot an 80 and Ridley an 85. Eighty-five, while it looks way up there beside the medal scores of Jones and Tolley, is no mean card over the East Lake course, which has enough traps and water hazards to give it resemblance to a Chinese puzzle.

There were some people after the match who did a little quiet insisting that an extra hole be played to name the winners, but what was the use? Here were four friends, champions, who went out there to show their stuff for charity. They showed it and why hold them down to a decision? At a dollar a head that match made Tuesday bargain day at East Lake.

Shooting Spree.

Tolley started back on his shooting spree for an advantage on No. 4 where he had a par four against Jones' unheard-of six and Ridley's five. Adair had a five. Tolley and Adair went one up here and then came right back on No. 5 where Tolley picked off another birdie, this time a four. It was on this hole that he showed the terrific driving power in his big frame. He cut at the ball from the tee and sent it zooming up, up, up to where it later dropped nearly 300 yards from the tee. He was well past Jones on the drive and he followed up his advantage by shooting a spoon shot to within a few feet of the green.

Battling against him two down across the water in an effort to enhance the Jones collection of ornate and titular silverware. Tolley once held the title, so there's no doubting that he'll be there to shoot for it again.

Incidentally, while mentioning Walter Hagen, it occurs to us that he has been called the best brummel of the links. That's apple-sauce, sister, apple-sauce. Something like 320 women on who saw Cyril Tolley yesterday at East Lake will pass the gravy to him on that deal.

Among these 320 women, more or less, in the gallery was another national champion, Miss Alex Stirling, formerly holder of the women's title of this country and playmate of Bob Jones and Perry Adair, when all were taking their first lessons in driving, chipping, pitching and putting under the careful guidance of Stewart Maiden.

At Was There.

The match did just what the sponsors of it said it would, for it drew those who are only remotely interested in golf out there. For instance, Al Doonan, who stays holed up at the Athletic club most of his spare time, was there in a brand new enthusiasm over the occasion laid him open to a summons from the Sinn Fein by wildly displaying a British flag.

Tom Paine, who engineers practically every big exhibition they have at East Lake, was officiating yesterday as referee.

The foursome started off with a halve on the first hole. Tolley, Jones and Ridley getting par fours, while Adair took a five after whipping into the rough on his tee shot.

The second hole went to Jones and Ridley and gave them the only advantage they had during the entire afternoon. A beautiful shot from the tee to the edge of the green gave Jones two putts for a par three. Tolley was on his heels with a four, but Adair and Ridley suffered from a double attack of fives.

A birdie three by Tolley on No. 3 after a drive of almost 290 yards from the tee gave him a fairly easy approach shot. Then he turned his wrist and sank a putt of 15 feet. All the others did their best to ret par fours. That squared the match!

Battling against him two down

Continued on Page 24, Column 2.

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

YOUR Boy's Suit for Sunday—for ANY Day

Johnny Tupants

The Suit with the Extra Trousers

—What pride Mother feels as she sees her Boy of Six to eighteen square his shoulders and walk off in a "Johnny Tupants" Suit.—"Johnny Tupants" exclusively at Rich's—known the country over for fine tailoring, wonderful all-wool fabrics, and exclusive patterns.

—Of tweeds, cassimeres, and blue serge. Cut along loose, easy English lines that allow for growth and freedom of action. The extra pair of trousers doubles the wear.

—Suits reinforced at all points of strain. All seams taped. Full-lined.—Distinctive features of "Johnny Tupants" suit.

"Johnny Tupants" Suits—2 Trousers
—Some with Vests, $13.95 to $24.95

THE BOYS' SHOP—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

APPEALS FOR LIFE DENIED YOUTHS

Gervis Bloodworth and Willie Jones, 19-year-old Taylor county boys, drew one step nearer death in the electric chair when the state supreme court Monday refused their appeal for a new trial. The two boys were convicted in Muscogee superior court for the murder of Howard F. Underwood, a traveling salesman, and were sentenced to death.

Final hopes of escaping the extreme penalty of the law for the two slayers from Bloodworth, who was sitting on the front seat near Underwood who was driving. They had been walking on the road and had asked Underwood for a ride when he passed them.

Testimony indicated that Jones, who was seated on the rear seat of the car, shot Underwood on a signal from Bloodworth, who was sitting on the front seat near Underwood who was driving. They had been walking on the road and had asked Underwood for a ride when he passed them.

The youths were first sentenced to be hanged on January 1, 1924, less than a month after the trial took place, but delays were made necessary when they appealed their case to the higher court.

Lodged in the Columbus jail, the two boys are reported as receiving the news of the supreme court decision with deep disappointment. Homer Beeland, their attorney, was not in Columbus on Tuesday and could not be reached for a statement, but it is understood he has announced that he will do his utmost to save his clients and will carry their cases both before the prison commission and to the governor in a last effort to save them from legal execution.

YOUTHS HOPEFUL AS APPEAL IS DENIED.
Columbus, Ga., October 14.—Gervis Bloodworth and Willie Jones, Taylor county youths confined in the Muscogee county jail under sentence to be hanged for the murder of Howard F. Underwood, a traveling salesman, declared today when informed that the state supreme court had denied their appeal for new trial that "we won't give up hope."

The youths were told of the action of the court by newspapermen. Jones was visibly affected, but Bloodworth who remained seated on his bunk in the jail, did not appear to have expected any other action.

For a few moments Jones stood with his head bowed and had the appearance of being near breaking down. Raising his head slowly and in a quivering voice, he said:

"It doesn't matter to me so much, but my mother! I know it will almost kill her. She has done so much for me."

The only comment Bloodworth made on the decision was to ask the questions.

"If they appeal to the prison commission and the governor will they be as long as the supreme court?"

PHI DELTA THETA'S TENDER BANQUET TO HIGH OFFICIALS

Charles A. McCauley, of Detroit, Mich., international president of the Phi Delta Theta collegiate fraternity, will be the principal speaker and honor guest at a dinner to be held at the Ansley hotel tonight.

Mr. McCauley is on a tour that will take him to many of the principal cities in the south, visiting alumni and active college chapters of the fraternity, which is one of the oldest and largest in the United States. He arrived in the city yesterday and while here will make an inspection of chapters of Georgia Tech and Emory university. The dinner will start promptly at 7 o'clock, according to the announcement Tuesday by Roy Mitchell.

Members who have not made reservations are urged to get in touch with Mr. Mitchell at Walnut 1131.

Dr. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the Second Baptist church, and a Phi Delta Theta alumnus also will make a short address.

ATLANTA WEATHER CONTINUES IDEAL, SAYS FORECASTER

"Ain't gonna rain no more." In so far as indications at the local office of the U. S. Weather bureau go, the insanity of the song is the fact of the moment. For there isn't a sign of any brew in the glorious weather Atlanta has enjoyed for two weeks now.

The forecast for Wednesday is like that of every day for a week past, "Fair, little change in temperature. Which means a thermometer range between 58 and 60, the low and high of Tuesday.

Not only is Atlanta enjoying these gifts from the meteorological gods, but the whole country is basking in like blessings. "Unusually fine weather continues to prevail throughout the entire United States," says the report. "No rain fell anywhere Tuesday except small amounts at Miami and Key West, Fla."

"The weather is clear almost everywhere. Temperatures are moderate in all sections. A light frost occurred in Denver. Temperatures were slightly below freezing at Winnetka and Havre."

BIG SAVANNAH PLANT SOLD TO STEEL FIRM

Sale of 40 acres of land, including the main buildings of the Terry shipbuilding plant of Port Wentworth, in Savannah, Georgia, eight miles west of Savannah, by the American Industrial corporation to Elliott W. Reed, G. Leonard Allen, Harry Koppen and Evans M. Allen, the proposed formation by these men of an organization to be known as the Savannah Steel corporation, with capital stock valued at $200,000, was announced in Atlanta late Tuesday by Mr. Haas, who is attorney for the American Industrial corporation.

Fronting 850 feet on the Savannah river the Terry shipbuilding plant will be transformed, according to the announcement, into a plant the main business of which will be the operation of a rolling mill for the rolling of concrete, reinforcing bars and complete line of structural shapes and bars. Equipment has been ordered and the plant will be in operation by the first of the new year, officials of the proposed organization said.

The property purchased includes the main buildings of the Terry shipbuilding plant consisting of the main structural building, three divisions of the main building, a machine shop, 400 feet long, power house, transformer building, machine shop, field office buildings, concrete water reservoir, water tank and complete pump and water distribution equipment.

Raw material for the plant will be purchased from railroads of the south each approximately 70 feet wide and 400 feet long, power house, transformer building, machine shop, field office buildings, concrete water reservoir, water tank and complete pump and water distribution equipment.

Practically all of this material, amounting to approximately 150,000 tons annually, it was stated, will be hauled by railroads to Pittsburgh, Pa., Wheeling, W. Va., and Indiana points.

NEW YORKER HERE LAUDS DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET

Dr. Maurice J. McCarthy, prominent New York attorney, political campaign organizer and ardent supporter of John W. Davis for the presidency, is registered at the Atlanta Biltmore. Dr. McCarthy's visit to Atlanta, where he has many friends, will be devoted largely to legal business, but he is taking advantage of his visit here, as he is in various other sections of the country, to give enthusiastic boost to the Davis campaign, he asserted.

Mr. Davis and Dr. McCarthy have been personal friends for many years, and conversation with the latter is sufficient to convince anyone that the Davis campaign in New York will not suffer if all democrats support their candidate as this prominent man is doing.

Dr. McCarthy has just returned from a trip through the New England states, and reports that he found much enthusiasm in that section of the country for the Davis-Bryan ticket.

ATLANTIC MEMBERS IN REGULAR MEET
The Atlantic met in regular session Tuesday at the Kimball house breakfast room.

The meeting was devoted to the disposition of business matters, with a short entertainment program. Attendance prizes were awarded Leon and Jacobus and A. A. Payne. The program at the next luncheon will be in charge of E. B. Ray.

CITY CHARTER EXPERT WILL LECTURE HERE

Dr. A. R. Hutton, of Cleveland, Ohio, who will deliver a series of lectures in Atlanta on city, state and county government during the week

DR. A. R. HUTTON.

October 22-23, under the auspices of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, is probably the best known charter expert in the United States. Practically every city charter of any importance drafted in the United States during the past five years either was drafted by him or submitted to him for an opinion, according to reports received here.

Dr. Hutton's lectures, which will be given in the Watkins building, corner of Poplar and Forsyth streets, will consist of two series—morning and night—the former on "City Government" and the latter on "State and County Government." The purpose of his visit to Atlanta, it is said, is to stimulate interest in securing a new charter for this city.

Mr. Hutton was born in Switzerland county, Indiana, and was graduated from Franklin college in 1898, where he specialized in history and political science. He was instructor and professor in that college for two years, later becoming a fellow, graduate student, instructor and associate professor at the University of Chicago, with which institution he was connected from 1900 to 1907. While there he was given the degree of doctor of philosophy for work in political science.

Well-Known Educator.
Since 1907 Mr. Hutton has been professor of political science in Western Reserve university. He received the honorary degree of L. L. D. from Franklin college in 1920.

He has been consulting specialist on city charters and state constitutions for the National Municipal league since 1917, and is author of "Digesting City Charters," published in 1906. He drafted and led the campaign for the home-rule provision of the Ohio constitution, adopted in 1912. A year later he was elected a member of the Cleveland charter commission and drafted the city charter adopted in that year.

Dr. Hutton was progressive candidate for congress in 1912, running second in a three-cornered race. He drafted the Cleveland city-manager charter approved by the voters in 1921 and led the campaign for its adoption. In 1923 he was elected a member of Cleveland's first city-manager council and is at present a member of that body.

He has just returned from a conference in Prague under the auspices of the Czechoslovakian government, at which he was requested to speak on "State and City Management." While abroad he also delivered two addresses in England, one in London and one in Manchester.

For some time Dr. Hutton has been adviser to the efficiency in government division of the League of Women Voters.

Maddox Heads Drive.
Rome, Ga., October 14.—(Special.) G. E. Maddox, chairman of the Georgia democratic executive committee, has been named Floyd county chairman of the finance committee of Georgia for the national democratic campaign. The appointment of Mr. Maddox was made public by Victor Allen, of Atlanta, who is state chairman.

ATLANTA DOCTORS' LICENSES VOIDED BY MEDICAL BOARD

Election of officers for the ensuing year and the revocation of licenses issued to Dr. N. A. Hughes and Dr. T. W. Hughes of Atlanta, were features of a meeting of the state board of medical examiners held in the hall of the state capital, Tuesday morning. Charges of advertising certain cures of social diseases and of having been convicted in Texas for violation of the federal laws governing use of the mails were causes of action taken against the two local physicians, it was stated by members of the board.

J. G. Foster, of Marietta, represented the state board, while Norman Miller represented the defense. The physicians have appealed for a new trial. Officers elected at the meeting are: Dr. J. W. Palmer, of Albany, president; Dr. C. Williams, of Cochran, vice president; and E. T. Nolan, of Marietta, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the state board present at the meeting were: Dr. A. E. White, of Louisville; Dr. N. Peterson, of St. Paul; Dr. O. B. Walker, Bowman; Dr. H. C. Maxey, Maxey; Dr. C. M. Paine, Atlanta; Dr. H. F. McDuffie, Atlanta and Dr. B. T. Wise, of Plains.

FULLMAN SURCHARGE STIRS COMMISSION

Pointing out that the commission is informed that the Pullman surcharge is not collected by railroads in West Virginia and North Carolina, and possibly in other states, the public service commission Tuesday morning adopted resolutions calling on the Interstate Commerce Commission to consider this situation and take action at the earliest possible date.

Resolutions adopted by the Georgia commission were introduced by Commissioner J. D. Price, after resolutions offered by Commissioner James A. Perry were voted down. The Perry resolution, while reciting practically the same facts in regard to the success of the Pullman surcharge, colored Georgia carriers to appear before the commission on October 15 and show cause why they should not be prohibited from making this charge in Georgia at once instead of referring the matter to the federal commission.

The vote in the commission in favor of the Price resolutions was said to be three to one. Commissioners Boffeillet, MacDonald and Price voted for it, and Commissioner Perry against it.

In his resolutions Commissioner Perry recites that on December 5, 1921, the Georgia commission issued an order prohibiting the charging of Pullman surcharge between points within the state of Georgia. This order was later set aside by the Interstate Commerce commission on the ground that elimination of the surcharge in Georgia would work a discrimination.

Comptroller Perry's resolutions, after reciting that the surcharge is not collected in certain other states, declared that the situation works a discrimination against Georgia carriers and proceeds to issue the order to abolish it within this state.

The resolution adopted, introduced by the home of Mr. Price, recites practically the same preamble as the Perry resolution, does not embody the definite order abolishing the surcharge, but calls for action upon the Interstate Commerce commission, at a general inquiry on the reasonableness and lawfulness of the surcharge.

While the Georgia situation and take such early action in the premises as it deems reasonable and proper."

DISABLED VETERANS TO BE REMEMBERED
At a joint meeting held Tuesday afternoon at Edison hall of the Atlanta War Mothers and Service Star league and officials of the Georgia state department of Disabled American Veterans of the World War, preliminary preparations were begun for the observance of the fourth national "forget-me-not" day, to be held in Atlanta on November 7.

Mrs. Sam D. Jones, who presided over the meeting, stressed the importance of assisting in every way possible in making of this day the most successful since the late President Harding issued the first "forget-me-not" day proclamation four years ago.

Mrs. Marcus Beck pledged the active support of 50 women workers to the cause. Dr. Louis Proterman has been designated by State Commander A. Harbort as general chairman for the state department disabled veterans' organization to work in collaboration with Mrs. Sam D. Jones, who has been appointed executive chairman of the "forget-me-not" day committee. As direct representative of the state commander, Dr. Proterman will be assisted by H. L. Felker and Edward Gavin, commander and adjutant, respectively, of Atlanta chapter of the Disabled American Veterans.

Mayor Walter Sims on Tuesday afternoon informed State Commander Harbort that he would issue a proclamation designating Friday, November 7, as "forget-me-not" day.

BANHAM TO ADDRESS TRAFFIC EXECUTIVES
W. J. L. Banham, of New York, general manager of the Otis Elevator company and president of the Associated Traffic clubs of America, will be the principal speaker today at a meeting of the association to be held at the Biltmore hotel, beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

A delegation of about 250 traffic executives, representing shippers and railroads from every section of the United States, will attend the three-day session.

A national traffic program is to be outlined and discussions will be held on coordination of railroad and bus service, legislation affecting transportation and the valuation of railroads, it was announced Tuesday.

RED CROSS SPENDS BIG SUM FOR RELIEF
For each dollar received by the southern division of the American Red Cross, during the past year, it has expended $4.67 for disaster relief work, assistance to disabled veterans and other services, according to a financial statement made public Tuesday.

The report shows that southern headquarters received its part of the membership fees from the south this year, $96,966, while it has expended $453,375. These figures do not include funds received or expended by the 700 local chapters of the Red Cross in the south, it is added.

EATONTON MAN JOINS ATLANTA CLOTHIERS

Coming to his new position with a record of achievement already established in the Georgia business world, John DeJ. Turner, of Eatonton, has accepted a position with Pollock & Berg, widely-known Atlanta clothing firm, according to announcement Tuesday by officials of the company.

JOHN DeJ. TURNER.

Mr. Turner is returning to his "first love" in accepting the position with Pollock & Berg. While it is the first time he has ever been connected with this firm, he is experienced in the clothing business. He started his business career in this field but later became connected with the state banking department.

Mr. Turner's remarkable success in the banking field was observed by business men over the state, particularly in his home city of Eatonton. He was induced to enter the banking business for himself in Eatonton after he had been with the state department for some years and has remained in Eatonton since leaving the state service.

In taking up his connection with Pollock & Berg, Mr. Turner feels confident that his past experiences will be of immense value, giving him a combined knowledge of the clothing business and the underlying principles that govern all successful trade. Officials of the Atlanta company have expressed great pleasure because of this added member to their force.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH IN REVIVAL SERIES

Rev. J. A. Davis, of Jacksonville, Fla., is conducting a revival each night this week at Friendship Baptist church. Tuesday night he delivered a sermon on "The Power of Faith."

Dr. F. R. Carter announced that the meeting would run through the entire week and asked the membership to go out into the city and invite the unsaved.

Home for Incurables Work Aided by Community Chest

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth of a series of articles being furnished by the Atlanta Community Chest to acquaint the public with the work of the agencies in the chest, which The Constitution is running to help the Community Chest.)

BY MRS. BARBOUR THOMPSON.
May 1, as a member of the Home for Incurables association, say a word of appreciation for what the Community Chest has done for us in this its first year?

This particular institution has hitherto found the raising of necessary funds a difficult undertaking, requiring stupendous effort on the part of our fraternal means committee to stage golf tournaments, concerts and other enterprises for the entertainment of the public and bleeding our generous merchants for prizes.

For, as every one knows, it is hard to get sufficient sympathy for revenue when the effect of giving is so little apparent, as is of necessity true of a hospital where those treated do not go forth restored to health and usefulness. These can only hope for home and amelioration of their sufferings as far as human sympathy and skill can afford, and then leave their room to another in like condition.

There is no other retreat for such cases in Georgia. These, our citizens, are perpetual sufferers and need care, and while not all are without homes and loving friends, yet even with these it is impossible for such homes and friends to care for invalids who need hourly and skillful attention. This, the Home for Incurables, offers at minimum costs to who can pay, gratuitously for those who can not.

With a monthly average of 55 in family one can understand that means in the way of expenses and that the Atlanta Community Chest has met fully, cheerfully and with such friendly expressions of commendation for the efficiency of our executive board that we feel most grateful and inspired not only to go on with the work but to invite all who have true sympathy for the shut-in to become members of the association, which, by the way, is composed of not only "live wires" but women charming enough to make the monthly board meeting an agreeable and compensating hour.

The Peaches Garden club is another valuable ally which has volunteered this year to care for the home and make them attractive not only to the patients but to the city of Atlanta.

Loze life to the Garden club and to our friend, "The Community Chest."

Elephant Puzzle Game Attracts Wide Interest

How would you like to earn $1,000? If you're interested—and what man, woman or child isn't?—keep on reading and you'll find out just how this can be done.

In this issue of The Constitution you'll find a big advertisement of the famous Elephant Puzzle Picture, that interesting beast that has so many people at work nowadays compiling his weight.

To the man, woman or child who will first prize in the contest of adding up the figures composing the elephant will go $1,000 in cash. In addition, there are 29 other prizes in cash awaiting as many winners—the entire prize list totaling $2,510.

Contest Just Starting.
The contest is just getting well under way, and many people are taking part. Whole families are interested in the guessing game, and everywhere the elephant is a current topic for conversation.

Only a simple process of addition is involved, but accuracy will count heavily and those who enter the contest may depend upon the fact that earnest and careful effort will have its just reward.

Many requests for extra prints of the elephant are being received by the contest manager, and these requests are being complied with as rapidly as possible.

Unqualified Answers.
Quite a number of people have sent in their answers to the puzzle without qualifying them for the 30 big prizes, and the management Tuesday drew attention to the fact that people whose unqualified answers may be prospective prize-winners will very deeply regret their failure to qualify their solutions and need them to lose a valuable cash award. Qualify your answer before it is too late and thus avoid any chance at regret after the contest is over.

Meanwhile, if you haven't gotten into the game don't fail to turn to the big advertisement in this issue and read the details carefully and in full.

The contest is just getting under way, and you have ample time to enroll yourself and win one of the 30 big cash awards in this most interesting of all puzzle picture games.

YOUTHFUL ORPHAN GIRL IS VICTIM OF DEADLY POISON

A victim of poison she had swallowed several hours earlier, Miss Julia Ashwood, 16, of 15 Linwood avenue, died at Grady hospital early Tuesday morning, despite efforts on the part of physicians failing to save the young woman's life.

Miss Ashwood swallowed the poison, the home of Mrs. and Mrs. M. Weinberg, who had been father and mother to her since they took her from the Georgia Baptist Orphan's home at Hapeville. Mr. Weinberg could ascribe no reason why the girl should desire to end her life, but admitted Tuesday night that she deliberately swallowed the poison.

She was rushed to Grady hospital and lived several hours, but died during the early morning. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Greenberg & Bond.

VAN PAASSEN TALKS AT STANDARD CLUB ON "ANTI-SEMITISM"

Speaking on "Some Phases of Anti-Semitism" at the Standard club Tuesday night, Pierre Van Paassen, writer of "The World's Window," in The Constitution, launched a strong attack against racial nationalism, particularly against anti-Semitism against the Jews in the United States.

The causes for discrimination found their origin, according to the speaker, in the Jew's Oriental bloodness and in his mental superiority. The Jew was not discriminated against because of his religion, nor because of his race, but because of a sense of family solidarity and his gift of bringing success to his own undertakings. The speaker said that enmity against the Jew even antedated the advent of Christianity and cited the instances of Tacitus and the Egyptian pharaohs.

PLEA FOR SCHOOLS MADE BY SUTTON

"The one hope to care for the school situation is by a larger appropriation," the board of education was told Tuesday afternoon by Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools. Mr. Sutton explained that the constantly increasing attendance demands more money and asked the board to outline anticipated expenses for 1925 in order to present the sheet to the finance committee of city council as soon as possible.

He stated that a number of the best teachers in Atlanta's schools are threatening to leave now to accept more lucrative positions, and said that with an attendance of 47,000 the schools are being operated on an extremely economic basis. He also told of the many great improvements during the past two years, not only in the city's school system, but in the teachers, and quoted figures showing that of 1,300 teachers only nine have not received certificates from the state.

Adopt Finance Sheet.
The September finance sheet was adopted as submitted. It showed that the payroll account is heavily overdrawn, but resolutions were adopted to use $75,000 to be received from the city on November 1, and an additional $175,000 to be received December 1 to pay November and December payrolls.

Following a number of speeches the board voted to ask the city attorney's ruling on the status of non-resident students in Atlanta schools. Two cases were presented in which the children's parents recently had moved from the city and in which the parents asked that the children be allowed to attend school without paying tuition. It was ruled by all must pay tuition but that if the city attorney's report, to be presented at the next meeting of the board, permits refunding of tuition such action will be taken.

It also was decided that supervisors and teachers in Atlanta schools will be allowed to give normal courses to other teachers. Twelve teachers will be selected as instructors and those taking such courses will be charged $5 for minor courses and $10 for major courses.

The board voted to take over supervision of the Urban League schools for negroes, which correspond to the Opportunity school for white students. This action was taken to enable Urban schools to qualify for financial assistance from the Smith-Hughes fund.

A number of routine matters also were transacted.

GOVERNMENT WHIPS HONDURAN REBELS

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, October 14. Government forces have inflicted a defeat at Coray upon General Julio Heredia, a rural leader who was attempting to reach the Nicaraguan border. Traffic has been resumed between Tegucigalpa and San Lorenzo.

"The remedy against discrimination is denunciation of it. Let us ask those who hate and place restrictions against a certain group whether they are not tired of their hatred," said the speaker. "To me humanity is a symphony of great collective souls. The men who can not understand this symphony without first having to hate and discriminate, and destroy part of it, has not arrived at a level of true culture. He is still a barbarian. For the finer and discerning spirits of this world there is but one race that transcends all bounds of frontiers, all nationalities and all languages."

J. Wilkens, president of the B'nai B'rith association, occupied the chair.

Here Are Values
Beautiful Fall Styles

Oxfords, Straps and Pumps
All Going At One Price

$2.85
A PAIR
Every Pair
Worth Double

ALL LEATHERS AND ALL HEELS
WARD'S SHOE STORE
21 Peachtree St. At 5 Points

BANHAM TO ADDRESS TRAFFIC EXECUTIVES

W. J. L. Banham, of New York, general manager of the Otis Elevator company and president of the Associated Traffic clubs of America, will be the principal speaker today at a meeting of the association to be held at the Biltmore hotel, beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

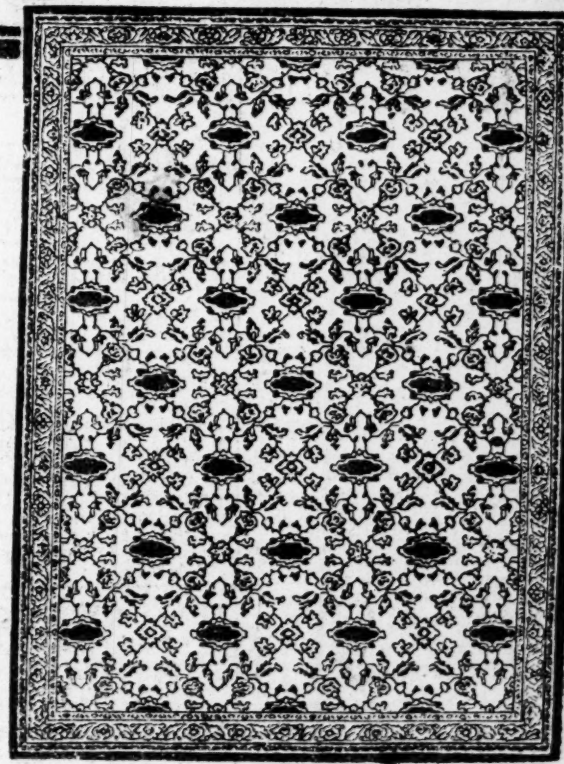

A delegation of about 250 traffic executives, representing shippers and railroads from every section of the United States, will attend the three-day session.

A national traffic program is to be outlined and discussions will be held on coordination of railroad and bus service, legislation affecting transportation and the valuation of railroads, it was announced Tuesday.

RED CROSS SPENDS BIG SUM FOR RELIEF
For each dollar received by the southern division of the American Red Cross, during the past year, it has expended $4.67 for disaster relief work, assistance to disabled veterans and other services, according to a financial statement made public Tuesday.

The report shows that southern headquarters received its part of the membership fees from the south this year, $96,966, while it has expended $453,375. These figures do not include funds received or expended by the 700 local chapters of the Red Cross in the south, it is added.

Special Sale of 9x12 Axminster

9x9 feet Congoleum
Rugs, exceptional
values $9.75

9x12 feet Linoleum
Rugs, in good patterns $19.75

Terms: $1.75 Cash, $5 Monthly

$29.75

We have never known of such a value as this astounding sale offers! 9x12 feet Axminster Rugs for $29.75. Imagine this! Every rug fresh and clean. One hundred of them, in rich patterns and glowing colors. Get yours!

Special Terms: $2.75 Cash, $5 Monthly

Look at These Values!

9x12 feet Brussels Rugs, in good patterns $18.50

6x9 feet Axminster Rugs, choice of colors $18.50

Very Heavy Axminsters, 9x12 feet (seamless) $45.00

CONVENIENT TERMS

HAYERTY
FURNITURE CO.

Corner Edgewood Avenue and Pryor St.

Rich's Harvest Sale for Homes—Remarkable Purchases from America's Foremost Rug Manufacturers—These

2000 Beautiful New Rugs ~ Rich's

—THE time of all the year to buy beautiful rugs for the home! For months we have planned and purchased for this event, gaining extraordinary price concessions from nationally-known rug makers. Brand new! No shop-worn, picked-over rugs among these! All new and beautiful designs—soft, rich colorings. All fresh and clean—direct from the manufacturer to you at these genuine savings.

New Wilton Rugs, $87.50

—The rugs that regularly sell for $97.50. Genuine Wiltons! Their soft color harmonies and true oriental designs inspire the admiration of all lovers of beautiful floor coverings. All worsted rugs. Size 9x12 ft. Room size.

Wilton Velvet Rugs, $53.50

—Regular $75 Quality! Just feel the silky pile. The very popular plain rose taupe rugs with darker shade band border. Heavy quality, seamless. Size 9x12 ft.

Axminster Rugs, $39.75

—The quality that regularly sells for $49.50. Unusually good-looking Axminster rugs these! New and different designs and pleasing colorings. Size 9x12 ft.

Axminster Rugs, $29.75

—The regular $37.50 quality. Think just what it means to save nearly $10 on this moderate priced Axminster! Bright, new patterns. Size 9x12 ft.

Fine Axminster Rugs, $44.75

—The regular $54.75 quality. Absolutely the heaviest and most serviceable rugs that money can buy! See them—judge for yourself. Designs and coloring that you will enjoy living with. Size 9x12 ft.

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Pay a Little at a Time
Without Interest
Charges

$99.50 Dining Suite

Rich's Harvest Sale for Homes, Reg. $169

—YOUR dining room can look like the one pictured if you take advantage of the special Harvest Sale offerings today! Genuine American walnut veneer—a suit of hospitable proportions and graceful lines! TEN PIECES—large sideboard, semi-closed china cabinet, oblong extension table, cabinet service table, and six tapestry upholstered chairs! Please remember that only because we bought TWO SOLID CARLOADS of these fine suites, is the price possible!

Take Ten Months to Pay—Without Interest Charges!

10-Pc. Dining Suite, $238.75

Masterbuilt Throughout! Reg. $375!

—You who know good furniture will be quick to note the splendid construction throughout—the beautiful two-toned mahogany—the dustproof construction, 66-inch sideboard, extension table, china cabinet, serving table, five chairs and one host's chair—upholstered in tapestry. Imagine! $238.75!

Cane Living Suite, $94.75

Wait and You'll Pay $150, $179!

—Homekeepers of Atlanta! This is YOUR chance! Excellent three-piece living room suite of cane and mahogany, not at the regular price, $150, $179—but special HARVEST SALE price, today, $94.75! Loose spring-filled cushions—extra pillows and bolster. And you can pay $9.47 cash, and $9.74 monthly without interest charges!

—RICH'S, FIFTH FLOOR

Hooked Rugs, $12.95

—Reg. selling $15, $16.50 and $18. A much-used rug in modern interior decorating. Quaint designs and coloring. A convenient size for scatter rug—size 24x48-in.

Scatter Rugs, $2.95

—Regularly selling $3.75 and $3.95. Every home needs so many of them! Velvets or Axminsters. Designs and colorings that you are sure to approve. Size 27x54-in.

Broad Loom, $6.75 sq. yd.

—Genuine Wilton Carpet—the desirable Broad Loom. Deep, soft pile and soft rose-taupe shade. No seams. Size 9 ft. wide. This carpet can be cut any length to fit your room.

Overstuffed Suites, $129.75

3-pc.—Full $225 Quality

—If you desire homeworthy furniture for lifetime comfort and beauty—you can't go wrong in investing in this splendid living room suite.

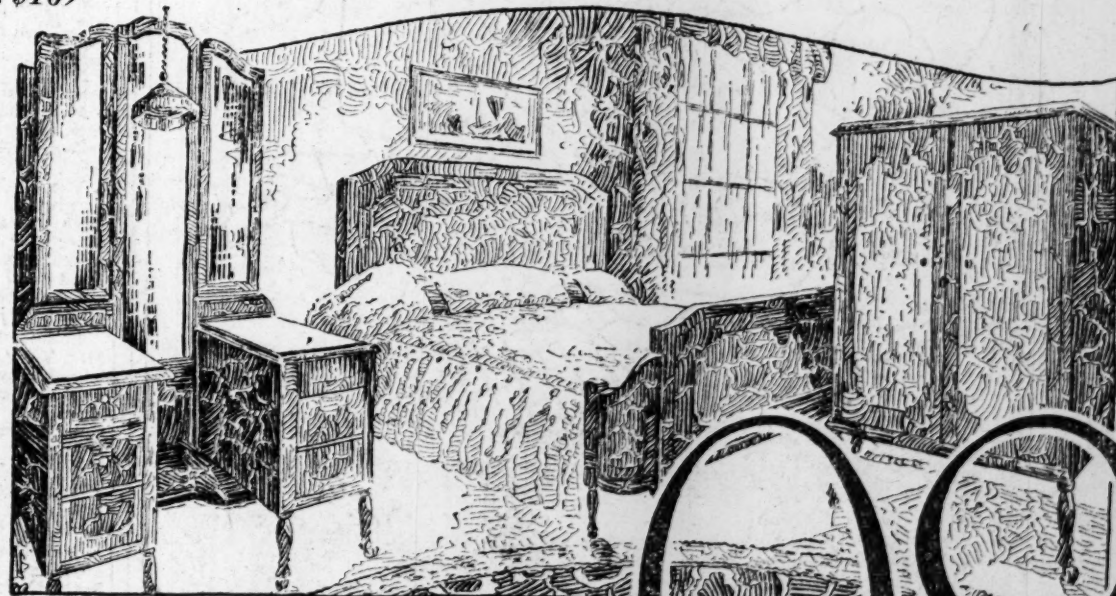

—Excellent workmanship throughout—and an exclusive design. Deep, soft, luxurious cushions—spring-filled. Hand-tied seat springs. Full-length davenport, large fireside wing chair and club chair. Harvest Sale, $129.75.

Louis XVI Living Suite, $134.75

—You will see at a glance that this compares favorably with any $200 to $225 suite you have seen.—Kidney-shaped sofa, club chair, and ottoman. Velour-upholstered—with loose spring-filled reversible cushions—topped with silk damask.

Sale Chairs, Rockers, $16.95

—Reg. $20 to $39. Chairs you'll like to see in your living room, sitting room, or hall. Windsor and cane and mahogany chairs and rockers—with flag or cane seats.

Bedroom Suite, $98.75

—Study the sketch! You'll KNOW this suite to be regularly priced $185! Genuine American walnut combination. Mahogany drawer bottoms; dustproof construction—important features, found only in the higher priced suites! Bow-end bed, chiffrobe, six-drawer vanity!

—RICH'S, FIFTH FLOOR

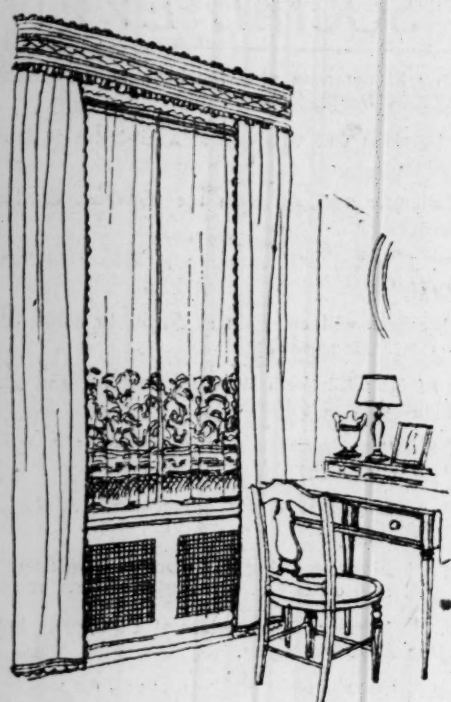

M. RICH & BROS. COMPANY

WHLN, 4636

BROAD, ALABAMA AND FORSYTH STREETS

WHLN, 4636

Take Ten Months to Pay
Little at a Time
—RICH'S, FIFTH FLOOR

New Ruffled Curtains $1.79

—Regular $2.25 quality. Sheer, dainty, ruffled curtains for so little! Dotted and figured marquisette—that launders so soft and fresh! You'll want many pairs at this Harvest Sale price of $1.79 pair.

—Equally lovely and appropriate for bedroom, breakfast room, dining room and informal living room. Size 24 yds. long.

Curtain Gauze 59c

—Regularly selling 69c yd. Mercerized, silky curtain gauze that makes a lovely glass curtain and a rich background for heavy silk window draperies. Pongee color. Net figured pattern. 36-in. wide. Very good quality indeed.

Ruffled Curtains $1.29

—The usual $1.69 quality. Very dainty ruffled curtains—and a remarkable buy for only $1.29. Think—could you possibly buy the materials and make the curtains yourself for this price? Ruffled edges and tie backs to match. Cross bar marquisette. Size 24 yds. long.

Inlaid Linoleum $2.15 sq. yd.

—The quality that regularly sells for $2.65 sq. yd. Very finest quality inlaid linoleum. Extra heavy. Cool, clean-looking tile patterns—many styles to choose from. Harvest Sale price $2.15 sq. yd.

Drapery Silks 98c

—You'll quickly recognize the usual $1.25 to $1.50 quality. You'll take double pleasure in brightening up the home for winter when you are saving while doing it! Beautiful figured silks. 36-in. wide. Blue, rose, mulberry, pongee shades.

Cheery Cretonnes 49c

—The kind that regularly sells for 59c to 75c yd. Bright, colorful cretonne for rejuvenating the living and bedrooms for winter. Bought at price concessions for the Harvest Sale. 200 pieces in all.

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Beautiful Weddings Take Place At Homes and Church

Glorious autumn days bring beautiful weddings of much interest to many people.

Miss Anne T. Parish Weds Stanley McArthur.

An interesting event of Tuesday evening was the wedding of Miss Anne T. Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parish, and Stanley McArthur, which took place at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's mother, at 101 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Dr. J. B. Mitchell performed the impressive ceremony, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

Howard Parish, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. Throughout the house was a lovely decoration of palms and ferns, backed by an effective arrangement. Baskets and tall vases of yellow and white chrysanthemums in lovely display were placed on mantels, bookcases and tables.

The bride and groom descended the stairs, and through an aisle formed of white ribbons held in place by white pedestals, and bunches of white chrysanthemums, entered the living room where the wedding took place.

An improvised altar was formed before which the ceremony took place. Tall palms formed a background of greenery, and ferns and southern hollyhocks were arranged gracefully interspersed with tall white baskets holding long-stemmed white chrysanthemums. Brass cathedral candelabra holding white burning tapers were placed at intervals.

Beautiful nuptial music was rendered, the soft plaintive tone of the violin predominating.

Attendants. First to enter was Miss Grace

For Wednesday and Thursday only — on the Main Floor —

We will sell 700 Pairs $7.00 to $11.00 Slippers, selected from our Fall stocks due to incomplete size ranges, at one price—

Satins—
Patents—
Suedes of Gray or Brown—
Black Kid
Spanish,
Black or High Heels

$5 Pr.

Over ninety styles included of the season's best. (No Tans are included.)

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

All Sales Final

Snowdrift makes such good things to eat because it is so good itself.

Snowdrift is made by the Wesson Oil people out of oil as good as fine salad oil—hardened and whipped into a creamy white fat—and packed in an airtight can to keep it as sweet and fresh as the day it was made. There couldn't be anything nicer for making cake, biscuit or pie crust or for frying.

Beautiful Sponsor

Photograph by Mathewson & Price, Staff Photographers.

Miss Mary McCarty, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCarty, who has been selected sponsor of the Tech band for this year.

Moore, maid-of-honor. She wore a lovely gown of pink chiffon, with a dainty trimming of ostrich and carried a cascade bouquet of delicate pink roses.

Preceding the bride came the little flower girls, Betty Ann Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parish, and Anne West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. West. Dressed alike, these attractive children wore exquisite little frocks of blue chiffon and lace in alternate rows, and wore over a foundation of flesh satin. They wore bandeaux of pink roses. On their arms they carried graceful baskets filled with pink roses.

The bride entered with her brother, Howard Parish, by whom she was given in marriage, and at the altar, was met by the groom, and his best man, Clarence Laws.

The bride was a figure of loveliness in her beautiful bridal robe of white georgette crepe, fashioned in a becoming basque style. A long court train of georgette fell in soft graceful effect from the shoulders. The misty white silk tulle veil was caught to her head by a wreath of orange blossoms. The veil was worn in cap of feet, most becoming to the beautiful bride.

Her gorgeous bouquet was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, and sprays of valley lilies fell to the hem of her gown.

Reception. Following the ceremony Mrs. Parish entertained at a wedding reception in the living room the table was overlaid with a lovely cloth, and held as a central decoration a silver basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums. Graceful sprays of smiling garlanded the chandelier. Yellow tapers burned in four silver candleholders.

Receiving with Mrs. Parish, were the wedding party.

Mrs. Parish was groomed in a handsome model of black satin and cream lace, and with this she wore a corsage of Ophelia roses.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. McCarty left for a motor trip through Florida and upon their return will be at home at 101 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Sewell-Canty Wedding Solemnized Tuesday.

Of wide interest was the marriage of Miss Thelma Sewell to Bernard Canty on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in the Sacred Heart church, Father Howe officiating.

The matron of honor and only attendant was Mrs. Roscoe Gann. She was becomingly groomed in dark brown georgette, heavily beaded. Her bouquet was of Ophelia roses.

The best man was Dan McLaughlin, of New York city.

The bride was lovely in a Peggy Paige model of brown satin, with accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sewell. She is a graduate of the Girls' High school. The groom is the son of Mrs. Emma Canty, of Rutland, Vermont. He graduated from the Rutland High school, where was a popular member of the football and track teams. Later he attended New York university.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the bride's home.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Canty left for an extended wedding trip to Florida.

Taylor-Steadwell Wedding Solemnized.

An interesting event of Tuesday afternoon was the wedding of Miss Edith Margaret Steadwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Steadwell, to John Ewing Taylor, which was marked by beautiful simplicity.

It was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Peachtree road, at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Father Philip Hasson, of the Sacred Heart church, in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Beautiful nuptial music was rendered. Miss Louise Barlow, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was groomed in a beautiful model of pink chiffon over satin. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses showered with swainsons.

Miss Caroline Rhodes, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a frock of orchid georgette over pink with touches of Dresden flowers and silver ribbons.

The beautiful bride descended the stairs with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Charles Collins, of Miami, Fla.

The bride's wedding gown of white crepe over satin was fashioned along straight lines, hand-embroidered. Her wedding veil of tulle was caught to her blonde hair in cap effect and held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms. A gorgeous bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies completed the costume.

Mrs. Fenn, the bride's mother, wore blue crepe with tulle embroidery and trimmings of narrow fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Allsworth left by motor during the afternoon for a wedding journey. They will be at home after October 20 in Miami, Fla.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Fenn. She is sister of Mr. Frank Fenn and Mrs. Washington Fenn, completing her education at Hollins college, Virginia, where she received her diploma in music.

Mr. Allsworth is the son of Mrs. N. E. Allsworth and the late Mr. Allsworth, of Denver, Colo. He is an honor graduate of the University of Colorado, receiving two degrees at that college. He was prominent in athletics and a star player on the football team. He is a member of the Kappa Psi fraternity. He served with distinction in the aviation corps during the world war.

Mr. Allsworth is the son of Mrs. N. E. Allsworth and the late Mr. Allsworth, of Denver, Colo. He is an honor graduate of the University of Colorado, receiving two degrees at that college. He was prominent in athletics and a star player on the football team. He is a member of the Kappa Psi fraternity. He served with distinction in the aviation corps during the world war.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was given. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Steadwell in entertaining was Mrs. W. F. Shaw.

Mrs. Steadwell wore black georgette headed elaborately in jet. Mrs. Shaw wore brown lace and a corsage bouquet of Anyon Ward roses.

Mrs. Thomas W. Wrenn, of Nashville, kept the bride's book. She wore yellow chiffon trimmed in golden ostrich.

The dining room was elaborately decorated with Venetian lace cover over pink satin. It held as its central decoration a large silver basket filled with pink roses, and silver candelsticks holding pink tapers were placed at intervals around the table.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for Signal mountain, where they will remain for several weeks before going to Nashville, where they will make their home in the Washington apartments on the Hillsboro road.

The bride's traveling costume was a russet colored ensemble, suit, with which she wore a sable fur and a small hat of brown and tan.

A number of prominent out-of-town guests attended the wedding, including John Nathaniel Steadwell, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Annie Lou Taylor, of Bolling, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shaw and Miss Ethel Maroon Shaw, of Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Wrenn, Jr., Philip J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Cleary, all of Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Virginia Fenn Weds Emerson Allsworth.

The wedding of Miss Virginia Fenn and Emerson Allsworth was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on Piedmont avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles L. Bass in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Munger Mueller on the violin, with piano accompaniment. Liszt's "Liebestraume" was played before the ceremony and the bride's parents presented the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the ceremony, "On the Wings of Song" was softly rendered. Ferns and palms formed a background in the living room for the bridal party, and placed among the foliage were brass cathedral candelabra holding white tapers which reflected a soft glow over the scene. The reception room and library were decorated with palms and tall baskets overflowing with cut flowers. The table in the dining room was lace-covered and the color scheme of pink and lavender was carried out. A silver basket filled with roses and budding grace graced the center of the table.

Miss Elizabeth Merritt, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was groomed in a beautiful model of pink chiffon over satin. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses showered with swainsons.

Miss Caroline Rhodes, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a frock of orchid georgette over pink with touches of Dresden flowers and silver ribbons.

The beautiful bride descended the stairs with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Charles Collins, of Miami, Fla.

The bride's wedding gown of white crepe over satin was fashioned along straight lines, hand-embroidered. Her wedding veil of tulle was caught to her blonde hair in cap effect and held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms. A gorgeous bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies completed the costume.

Mrs. Fenn, the bride's mother, wore blue crepe with tulle embroidery and trimmings of narrow fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Allsworth left by motor during the afternoon for a wedding journey. They will be at home after October 20 in Miami, Fla.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Fenn. She is sister of Mr. Frank Fenn and Mrs. Washington Fenn, completing her education at Hollins college, Virginia, where she received her diploma in music.

Mr. Allsworth is the son of Mrs. N. E. Allsworth and the late Mr. Allsworth, of Denver, Colo. He is an honor graduate of the University of Colorado, receiving two degrees at that college. He was prominent in athletics and a star player on the football team. He is a member of the Kappa Psi fraternity. He served with distinction in the aviation corps during the world war.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was given. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Steadwell in entertaining was Mrs. W. F. Shaw.

Mrs. Steadwell wore black georgette headed elaborately in jet. Mrs. Shaw wore brown lace and a corsage bouquet of Anyon Ward roses.

Mrs. Thomas W. Wrenn, of Nashville, kept the bride's book. She wore yellow chiffon trimmed in golden ostrich.

The dining room was elaborately decorated with Venetian lace cover over pink satin. It held as its central decoration a large silver basket filled with pink roses, and silver candelsticks holding pink tapers were placed at intervals around the table.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for Signal mountain, where they will remain for several weeks before going to Nashville, where they will make their home in the Washington apartments on the Hillsboro road.

The bride's traveling costume was a russet colored ensemble, suit, with which she wore a sable fur and a small hat of brown and tan.

A number of prominent out-of-town guests attended the wedding, including John Nathaniel Steadwell, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Annie Lou Taylor, of Bolling, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shaw and Miss Ethel Maroon Shaw, of Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Wrenn, Jr., Philip J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Cleary, all of Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Virginia Fenn Weds Emerson Allsworth.

The wedding of Miss Virginia Fenn and Emerson Allsworth was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on Piedmont avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles L. Bass in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Munger Mueller on the violin, with piano accompaniment. Liszt's "Liebestraume" was played before the ceremony and the bride's parents presented the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the ceremony, "On the Wings of Song" was softly rendered. Ferns and palms formed a background in the living room for the bridal party, and placed among the foliage were brass cathedral candelabra holding white tapers which reflected a soft glow over the scene. The reception room and library were decorated with palms and tall baskets overflowing with cut flowers. The table in the dining room was lace-covered and the color scheme of pink and lavender was carried out. A silver basket filled with roses and budding grace graced the center of the table.

Miss Elizabeth Merritt, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was groomed in a beautiful model of pink chiffon over satin. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses showered with swainsons.

Miss Caroline Rhodes, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a frock of orchid georgette over pink with touches of Dresden flowers and silver ribbons.

The beautiful bride descended the stairs with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Charles Collins, of Miami, Fla.

The bride's wedding gown of white crepe over satin was fashioned along straight lines, hand-embroidered. Her wedding veil of tulle was caught to her blonde hair in cap effect and held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms. A gorgeous bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies completed the costume.

Mrs. Fenn, the bride's mother, wore blue crepe with tulle embroidery and trimmings of narrow fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Allsworth left by motor during the afternoon for a wedding journey. They will be at home after October 20 in Miami, Fla.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Fenn. She is sister of Mr. Frank Fenn and Mrs. Washington Fenn, completing her education at Hollins college, Virginia, where she received her diploma in music.

Mr. Allsworth is the son of Mrs. N. E. Allsworth and the late Mr. Allsworth, of Denver, Colo. He is an honor graduate of the University of Colorado, receiving two degrees at that college. He was prominent in athletics and a star player on the football team. He is a member of the Kappa Psi fraternity. He served with distinction in the aviation corps during the world war.

Chaperons, Sponsors Are Announced For Tech R.O.T.C.

The chaperons and sponsors for the R. O. T. C. of the Georgia School of Technology are announced as follows:

Regiment, Mrs. E. D. A. Pearce; First battalion, Mrs. W. A. Howland; Second battalion, Mrs. T. M. Chase; Third battalion, Mrs. R. E. Stafford.

The sponsors include: Regiment band, Miss Loui Dean Stephens and Miss Mary McArthur; First battalion, Miss Mary Inman Pearce; A company, Miss Mary Jo Merritt; B company, Miss Jean Williams; C company, Miss Emma Frances Brotherton; D company, Miss Nan Lindheim; E company, Miss Josephine

Second battalion, Miss Edna Belle Youngs; F company, Miss Alice Smith; G company, Miss Mildred Vinson; H company, Miss Pauline Vane; I company, Miss Geraldine Cook; J company, Miss Elizabeth Johnson; K company, Miss Clara Bates; L company, Miss Marion Carlock; M company, Miss Isabelle Matthews; N company, Miss Louella Everett; O company, Miss Louella Everett; S and band, Miss Frankie Mueller.

This announcement is one of the most important made each year in the social and military life of the Georgia School of Technology.

Miss Adrienne Botley has returned to New York where she will spend the winter, after having spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Botley, at their home on West Fourteenth street.

Mrs. Ledlie W. Conger entertained at a tea at her home on East Eighth street on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. O. A. McFarland, of Burlington, Vt., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Dunlop, on Juniper street.

Mrs. Norman Sharp left Atlanta Monday for a two weeks' trip to New York and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Frank Holland has returned to Greenville, S. C., after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Charles McAllister, and is the guest of Mrs. Charles A. Sisson at her home on West Eleventh street.

Mrs. Edgar Paulin is in Lynchburg, Va., where she is visiting Mrs. Allen Johnson for a week before going to New York.

Mrs. Archibald P. Brantley, president of the Georgia Federation of Women's clubs, has returned from a five weeks' visit to relatives and friends in New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia. Mrs. Brantley is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Willet, on the Prado.

Will H. Godwin, mechanical engineer, fortification division of the ordnance department, Panama Canal, after 14 years in the Canal Zone, has been spending the past two months with his aunt, Mrs. M. L. Whitman, and sister, Miss Godwin, at 723 Peachtree street. Mr. Godwin leaves today for New Orleans, where he will sail at once via Havana to Cristobal, Canal Zone.

Dr. Guy C. Murray and Vernon Hogan have returned to their homes in Columbus after several days' visit with Mrs. Annie Cheek.

A. J. MacDonald is at the Seminole hotel in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. A. Farnsworth Drew is in Franklin, N. C., where she will spend several weeks sketching and painting landscapes.

Miss Eva Brewster of Hartwell, is visiting relatives in Atlanta and Fairburn.

Ernest Clark has returned to his home in Louisville, Ga., after an illness of three weeks at Wesley Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Arthur M. Reid is ill at St. Joseph's infirmary.

Dr. and Mrs. Dan Elkin are in Kentucky.

Mrs. Calla Pointevant has returned to her home in New Orleans after a visit to Mrs. Beverly du Bose at her home on Peachtree road. She has been very popular during her visit in Atlanta and was among the most beautiful and admired visitors of this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus S. Baker, Jr., announce the birth of a daughter, October 9, who has been given the name of Fanny Augusta.

William Dunlop, of Anseley Park, has just returned from a pleasant trip to Europe of two months, spending most of the time in Great Britain and Ireland.

Mrs. S. R. Patton has returned to her home in Hartwell after a short visit in the city.

A. P. Baylis is in Cincinnati for a few days.

The friends of Mrs. Homer Dawson will be grieved to learn that she is seriously ill at her home on Park street.

Brewer Swearingen, of Elberton, has gone to Florida after spending some time with his sister, Mrs. B. F. Bennett, on North Moreland avenue.

Floyd Arnold returned Sunday from a visit of two months in Florida.

Henry Ethridge and Rucker Brown, of Hartwell, were in the city for the first time last week.

Miss Grace Reynolds, of Newnan, is taking a training course at Wesley Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell Spier are at Hot Springs, Ark., for a month's stay. Mr. Spier is convalescing from a serious illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Lucy Akers Taylor and Miss Lucy Thompson are at the Hotel Commodore, New York.

Mrs. John Reynolds, of Augusta, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John S. Reynolds at their home on East Fifteenth street.

Miss Frances Newman has returned from New York, where she spent several months, and en route to Atlanta she visited her sister, Mrs. John L. Patterson, at her home on St. Andrews lane, in Richmond, Va. She also visited in New England and was a guest of Mrs. T. Darrington Sample at her home on Central Park West, in New York.

Mrs. W. W. Scott, of Athens, Ga., who has been the guest of Miss Lydia Hummick, on Briarcliff road, returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Read York Marries Brooks Clarke in Atlantic City

Announcement is made today of the marriage of Mrs. Mary Read York, of Baltimore, Md., formerly of Atlanta, to Iverson Brooks Clarke, a former Atlantan now residing in Chicago, Ill., the marriage having taken place on Friday, October 10, in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke are prominently known in Atlanta, where they have a wide circle of friends, who will be interested in this announcement. The lovely bride was Miss Mary Read, daughter of Mrs. Luther C. Read and the late Mr. Read, of University Park way, Baltimore, who resided in Atlanta before moving to Maryland about nine years ago. She is the widow of the late Roy York, a wealthy and influential citizen of Cleveland, Ohio. She possesses a charming and attractive personality and is unusually pretty.

Mr. Clarke is identified with the automobile manufacturing business. He made his home in Meridian, Conn., for a number of years, but has recently moved to Chicago. He is a graduate of Cornell university, where he was a prominent member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will spend several weeks in Atlantic City.

The Fifty club will entertain at a luncheon at the Atlanta Biltmore in honor of the 1924-25 Debutate club.

Mrs. DeSales Harrison will entertain at a bride-tea in honor of Miss Mary Scotia Dunwoody.

Miss Mary Ballenger will entertain the members of the Debutate club at tea.

Mrs. James H. Johnston will entertain at dinner in honor of Miss Lucy Elizabeth Harper.

Mrs. Samuel Weyman will entertain at dinner in honor of Miss Mary Scotia Dunwoody.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Wardlaw Lockhart and Victor Manget Davis will take place at 8:30 o'clock.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity will entertain at a banquet at the Ansley hotel in honor of Charles A. MacCauley, of Detroit, Mich.

There will be a "Debutate night" dinner-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore.

There will be a business meeting and election of officers of the Nine O'Clocks this evening at 6 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving club.

Mrs. Katie D. McGorrey will be hostess at a dinner in honor of Miss Musa Hardy and Roy Boyd McGorrey.

St. Mary's Guild of St. Philip's Cathedral will be "at home" this evening from 8 until 11 o'clock, to meet Miss Grace Chalmers Thomson, organist, at 2040 Peachtree road.

The Elks will have their regular weekly dance at the Elks' home this evening.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Railway Mail Service will give a benefit bridge at 2:30 o'clock in the dining-room of the Imperial hotel.

There will be a parish supper in the Sunday school hall of the church at Central avenue and East Hunter this evening, given by the ladies of the Immaculate Conception Altar society.

The wedding of Miss Lucy Bernard Tucker and Joseph Berret Violette will take place this afternoon at 5:30 at the home of Mrs. Payne Tucker at 61 Orme circle.

Miss Eleanor Smith, of Valdosta, Ga., is the guest of Mrs. Felton Davis at her home on Seventeenth street. Miss Frances Locke has invited a few friends for luncheon Wednesday to meet Miss Smith.

message them with a rotary motion using cocoa butter or any other nourishing oil. If you are underweight drink plenty of milk, at least a quart each day, taking a pint of it hot on retiring.

Tomorrow—Alopecia Areata.

My Beauty

Is all due to beauty helps

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I was a plain girl with little distinction. I made myself a famous beauty. Now, after 25 years as a star, I remain a beauty still. The thousands who see me daily on the stage know that I look 19.

When I was a girl, my rich mother took me on a world search for the supreme beauty helps. Those helps made me famous. Since then I have kept in touch with every new discovery. I have made many trips to France, so what I was and what I am are due to scientific help.

Now women have convinced me that I should share these helps with others. Millions of girls and women want what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations with 52 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggists and toilet counters offer them to all who want them.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. Lucie Langme, the famous Parisian beauty, first told me what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser which man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

My Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable fat. It cannot in any way assimilate with the skin. It simply cleans to the depths, then departs. All the grime, dead skin and clogging matter comes out with it.

That is the first beauty essential—an utterly clean skin. But I never dreamed what a clean skin meant until I found this Facial Youth.

Now Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. The cost is 75c.

Write me for Beauty Book and I'll send it with something else to please you. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of calomine powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The calomine powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the skin free and clean and in their natural condition.—(adv.)

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of BED-WETTING. Don't blame the child; there is a cause for this trouble. If your children are afflicted, try Mrs. Sumners' home treatment for bed-wetting, which has proved a blessing to hundreds of families. Ask your druggist for Mrs. Sumners' Bed-Wetting Remedy, or send for FREE TRIAL by addressing The Sumners Medical Co., Box EB, South Bend, Ind.—Adv.

It's as easy to choose a good soap as a bad soap.

Brilliant Victory Dinner Honors Bobby Jones at East Lake Club

Bobby Jones, recent winner of the national amateur championship golf tournament, held at the Merion Cricket club, Ardmore, Pa., was the distinguished and honored guest at the brilliant victory dinner given Tuesday evening at the East Lake Country club by the members of the Atlanta Athletic club.

The handsome clubhouse was elaborately decorated for the occasion with a profusion of palms, ferns and dahlias, red and white, the colors of the athletic club, prevailing.

The chandeliers and ceiling were garlanded with ropes of smilax, red tulips shading the lights and adding a soft illumination to the beautiful scene.

The long table placed in the center of the spacious living room, where the honor guest, officers of the club, speakers, associate members and other distinguished guests were seated, presented a scene of beauty in its decoration of red and white dahlias used effectively with smilax and ferns. Marking the honor guest's place was the magnificent cup which he so recently won in the national amateur tournament. Other handsome trophies won by this noted golfer were on display at an individual table placed near the honor guest. Individual tables around the outer edge of the room where dinner was served to more than 300 members and guests were adorned in the center by French baskets holding red and white dahlias.

Seated at the speakers' table were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tyne Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Al H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Wimberey Peters, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wilson-Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Paxon, Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Smith, Thomas B. Paine, Miss Douglas Gay Paine, Lowry Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Heinz, Richard Hickey, T. N. Bradshaw, John W. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Small, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Felker, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan, Governor and Mrs. Clifford Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hudson, Dr. and Mrs. Plato Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Owens, Dr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Lloyd, Major and Mrs. John S. Cohen, Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Hinman, Keith Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adair, Mrs. Dorian Lowndes, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Ortle, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Yates, A. A. Doonan, Larry McCormick, Miss Alexa Stirling, Colonel W. L. Peel, Stewart Maiden, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Stirling, O. B. Keeler, Ed Dauforth, George Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Toler, Chick Ridley, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Candler.

Lowry Arnold acted as toastmaster and speeches of tribute to Bobby Jones were made by Governor Clifford M. Walker, Dr. Plato Durham, O. B. Keeler, Dr. Ashby Jones and Scott Hudson.

Among those having reservations for this brilliant affair were W. D. Tope, C. J. Hendrix, J. B. Osborn, R. W. Crenshaw, T. D. Harmon, H. D. Vorhees, H. E. Richardson, Stephen Hartney, J. L. Ellis, H. A. Roohan, Colonel W. L. Peel, George B. Griffin, R. L. Fayer, F. O. Stone, P. L. Meyer, W. M. Wood, Arthur Howell, Frank Harrison, C. F. Stoner, D. M. Dickerson, S. S. Bean, Dr. C. P. Hodge, E. C. Connell, S. L. Hunt, Graham Williams, Meier, W. W. Orr, Dr. E. T. Ballenger, Dr.

Sutton, Jackson Dick, Mac Ashill, A. W. Armand, Dr. McDuffie.

Miss Ruth Gable Weds Mr. Cothran.
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ruth Gable, of 102 Delmar avenue, to Joseph R. Cothran, which took place at High Point, N. C., on October 5. Mr. Cothran is a member of the firm of Case & Cothran, engineers and contractors.

Mrs. McCrory to Give Dinner This Evening.
Mrs. Katie D. McCrory will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of Miss Musa Hardy, whose marriage to Roy Boyd McCrory will be an interesting event of Saturday.

Covers will be laid for Miss Musa Hardy, Miss Mildred Hardy, Miss Goldie Hardy, Miss Martha McCrory, Roy Boyd McCrory, Joseph B. Cook, S. M. McKenney and W. Brooks McCrory.

Mrs. Johnston to Honor Miss Harper.
Mr. and Mrs. Houston Johnston will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of Miss Lucy Elizabeth Harper, an attractive debutante.

Covers will be laid for Miss Lucy Elizabeth Harper, Miss Mary Ann Lipscomb, Miss Ellen Newell, Miss Margaret Middleton, Mrs. George Griffin, James Johnston, Stewart Coleman, Eunice Stewart and Elliot Stewart.

Misses Hardy Entertain at Tea.
Misses Goldie and Mildred Hardy entertained at the Biltmore hotel at the tea-dance Tuesday afternoon as a compliment to their sister, Miss Musa Hardy, whose marriage to Roy Boyd McCrory will be on Saturday.

The tea table was beautifully appointed, and held as a center decoration, lovely bowl of pink roses.

Miss Musa Hardy wore rust-colored plaid Elizabeth crepe gown.

Miss Goldie Hardy wore a gown of old blue canton crepe trimmed in georgette.

Miss Mildred Hardy wore a lovely gown of powder-blue crepe de chine, trimmed in gray fur.

Covers were laid for Mrs. H. A. Bennett, Mrs. Pliny S. Cornwell, Miss Katherine Littlejohn, Mrs. P. L. Johnson, Miss Martha McCrory, Miss Margaret Thomas, Misses Berta and Sara Sanford, Mrs. H. F. White, Miss Goldie and Mildred Hardy.

Birthday Party For Miss Oliver.
Mrs. M. E. Oliver will entertain today at her home on East Seventeenth street in honor of her attractive little granddaughter, Georgia Bries Oliver, who will celebrate her fourth birthday anniversary.

Little Miss Oliver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver, who are former members of Atlanta's young married society contingent.

The little honor guest will wear a dainty frock of orchid crepe snuck in lavender threads.

Thirty-two little friends of the honor guest have been invited, including Misses Eloise Ellis, Martha Inman DuBoise, Jane Lawless, Rudene Leach, Irene Woodruff, Gladys Burke, Anna Lane, Katherine Lane, Mildred White, Betty Yopp, Ann Coppedge, Kate Westmoreland, Elsie Hunter, Mary Dean, Medora Fitten, Claire Hunnicutt, Matthew Briggs Brown, George Brown, III, John Ellis, Frankton Ellis, Louis Estes, James West, Lloyd Walker, Roy LeCraw, Kendrick Scott, John L. Tyne, III, John H. McCord, Lawrence Crankshaw, Ewell Gay, Ellis Gay and Robert Troutman.

Mrs. Clements Honors Miss Harriet Mack.
Mrs. Myrick Clements was hostess at a beautiful bridge-bridge Tuesday in honor of Miss Harriet Mack, a charming bride-elect of this month.

A color scheme of pink and white was used in the decorations and refreshments. Pink and white dahlias in baskets graced the mantels and consoles.

The bridge games the bride-elect was surprised by a miscellaneous shower. The gifts were concealed in a large pink umbrella made of petals like a flower and suspended over the dining table. Pink tulle streamers ran from this to the edge of the table, to which they were caught by a spray of pink dahlias. A miniature bride and groom stood on the table, with a mound of pink dahlias in the center as a background.

The pink candles were held in silver candlesticks tied with pink tulle. Mrs. Clements' costume was of black satin. She was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Charles Weekes, and her sister, Mrs. Dan White.

Miss Mack wore a black satin tunic dress trimmed in white satin, and a powder-blue hat.

The guest list was as follows: Miss Harriet Mack, Miss Nell Candler, Miss Marie Pearce, Miss Mary Will Montgomery, Miss Irene Heath, Miss Katie Lucia Sams, Miss Myrick

Stephenson; Mrs. Fraser Wilson, Mrs. Hugh Burgess, Mrs. Boyd Sutton, Mrs. Dan White, Mrs. Jim Pittman, Mrs. Pittman Sutton, Mrs. Cone Bond, Mrs. Hugh Trotti, Mrs. Stanley Hastings, Mrs. Donald Hastings, Mrs. Louis Rooney, Mrs. Hugh Flake, Mrs. Joe Mack, Mrs. Ben Rhet, Mrs. Charles Weekes and Mrs. T. A. Branch, Jr.

Lockhart-Davis Bridal Party Is Complimented.
Mrs. Henry Rice entertained the Lockhart-Davis wedding party and out-of-town guests at her home in Decatur at a beautiful buffet supper following the wedding rehearsal on Tuesday evening.

The house was elaborately decorated with quantities of fall flowers. The supper table was overlaid with a handsome lace cover and a tall basket of dahlias graced the center; at intervals were silver candlesticks holding unshaded blue candles and silver dishes of bonbons.

Mrs. Rice received her guests wearing a gown of green chiffon and lace. Miss Elizabeth Lockhart's gown was of yellow georgette trimmed with silk lace.

Miss Helen Lockhart wore orchid georgette and lace.

The party included the wedding attendants and a large number of out-of-town guests.

Benefit Bridge For Old Ladies' Home.
A card party will be given Wednesday, October 29, on the Ansley roof for the benefit of the building fund of the Home for Old Ladies.

There will be a prize for each table and several attractive consolation prizes will be out for. Those desiring to contribute to this worthy cause please phone Hemlock 4506-W for reservations.

Phi Delta Theta To Give Banquet.
The Phi Delta Theta fraternity will entertain the president of the fraternity with a banquet at the Ansley hotel this evening at 8 o'clock. Charles A. MacCaulley, of Detroit, Mich., will be the guest of honor and the principal speaker of the evening.

MacCaulley is president of the fraternity. Every Phi Delta Theta is requested to notify Ithel L. Mitchell, 1715 Candler building, for reservations.

Mrs. Massengale Entertains Circle.
Mrs. W. N. Massengale was hostess to circle No. 5 of Westminister Presbyterian church Monday afternoon.

The guests included Mrs. R. B. Pearce, Mrs. John Swain, Mrs. J. C. Dabney, Mrs. C. V. Vellines, Mrs. J. J. Hughes, Mrs. H. A. Massengale, Mrs. W. C. Elrod, Mrs. E. M. Deale and Mrs. M. I. Huie.

Adhiboco Club Gives Dance.
A bright affair of Tuesday evening was the dance given at the Atlanta Woman's club by the Adhiboco club.

The charperons were Captain and Mrs. Fred Leister, Mrs. A. S. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chandler. Tucker's Entertainers furnished music during the evening. "Angels of Adhiboco" include: Miss Alma Lee, Miss Frances Colley, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Helen Adams, Miss Rose Bontenreiter, Miss Lillie Mae Wiggins and Miss Nettie Ewing.

Tech Sponsors For Vandy Game.
Widespread interest attaches to announcement of the sponsors for Georgia Tech at the Vanderbilt-Tech game which will be played November 14 on Grant field.

Those invited were: Miss Sarah Boyd, Miss Irene Thomas and Miss Emma Frances Brotherton have been invited to represent the local institution.

After the game these ladies will be honored at a tea-dance to be given by the Chi Phi fraternity.

Miss Sarah Boyd Is Honor Guest.
Miss Nettie Whistle and Miss Leita Thompson entertained recently at the home of the former on North Boulevard in honor of Miss Sarah Boyd, whose marriage to Fred Barrett will be solemnized October 16.

Those invited were: Miss Sarah Boyd, Miss Emily Boyd, Mrs. Ellen Donnelly, Miss Cyrene Ehrhidge, Miss Enid Cantrell, Miss Hester Mae Wain, E. C. Adams, Mrs. Harry Truitt, Mrs. Mabel McDaniel and Mrs. S. J. Tiller.

KIWANIANS HEAR HEALTH OFFICIALS AT WEEKLY MEET.
An address by Thomas F. Abercrombie, secretary of the state board of health, and discussion of plans for a delegation of Kiwanians to attend the Georgia district convention to be held in Rome next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, were features of the regular weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club held at the Ansley hotel Tuesday at noon.

Dr. Abercrombie reviewed the progress made by the state board of health in a fight against malaria fever as well as tuberculosis and yellow fever, during the past 10 years. He stated that only five cases of yellow fever have been reported to the board in the last few years, due to efforts being put forth by physicians throughout the state who are cooperating with the state board.

"One of the needs of the entire state at present is to have better medical attention in the rural districts," he said. "This could be easily remedied by adequate hospitals in the community centers of the state."

In concluding the address Dr. Abercrombie asked Kiwanians to cooperate with the board in having an ordinance passed by the state legislature at the next session for the laying aside of a sufficient sum of revenue to aid the public health work. The program was in charge of Kiwanian Hal Miller.

An appeal by various members of the club for a large delegation to attend the Rome convention was heard and a number of the clubmen who

POEMS THAT LIVE

THE HILL.

Breathless, we flung upon the windy hill,
Laughed in the sun, and kissed the lovely grass.
You said, "Through glory and ecstasy we pass,
Wind, sun, and earth remain, the birds sing still,
When we are old, are old —"
"And when we die
All's over that is ours; and life burns on Through other lovers, other lips," said I.
"Heart of my heart, our heaven is now, is won!"
"We are earth's best, that learnt her lesson here, Life is our cry. We have kept the faith!" we said;
"We shall go down with unreluctant tread,
Rose-crowned into the darkness!"
Proud we were,
And laughed, that had such brave things to say.
And then you suddenly cried, and turned away.
—RUPERT BROOKE.

He: "Why does that man always refer to you as his baby girl?" She: "Oh, I don't know, I suppose it is because I keep him up so late at night."
—West Point Pointer.

have not made reservations for the convention stated that they would do so, thus making a total delegation of about 75 to represent the Atlanta club.

Kiwanian Harry Adams, district governor of the Carolina district, was present at the meeting and made a short talk.

A meeting of the board of directors was called immediately following the public health program.

Genuine Orange Blossom Wedding Rings and Diamond Mountings at E. A. MORGAN'S Jeweler
10-12 East Hunter St.
There is Economy in a Few Steps Around the Corner.

THE ERRING WIFE AND MOTHER

is the woman who sacrifices her health and consequent happiness to her ambition. We all know such women,—anxious that their homes shall be kept immaculately neat and attractive and their children well dressed they overdo and soon bring on some feminine ailment which is evidenced by nervousness, irritability, headaches, backache and other aches and pains attending such ills. Every woman should remember that the best successful remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which for fifty years has been restoring women to health, strength and happiness.—(adv.)

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

The Newest Quality Fabrics of Silks—Woolens

The dress or wrap for autumn wear is sure to be a success when made of real quality fabrics such as these—not the cheapest, but always the very best that the price will buy! We cordially invite careful inspection and comparison of quality and price.

The Most Popular Silks

Charmeuse, in black, navy, brown, 40 inches wide. Quite exceptional value. Yard... $1.95
Charmeuse, in finer grades, black and all the best shades of the season. Yd... $2.95 to $7.50

Satin Crepe, of best all-silk grades, black, white, all the popular shades for both street and evening wear. Yard... $2.95 to $6.95

Dotted Faille, a new self-figured faille silk in black, navy, tan, brown, unusual value. Yard... $2.95

Plain Faille, of superior quality all silk, shown in black and the best street shades. 40 inches. Yard... $3.95

Bengaline, silk and wool fabrics of very fine qualities—black, navy, grey, brown, henna, shutter green, 40 inches wide. Yard... $4.50 to $7.95

Some New Wool Fabrics

Suede Cloth, a very beautiful fabric like softest chamois, for dresses and wraps. Black, cocoa brown, henna. 54 inches wide. Yard... $7.95

Cloakings for sport coats and wraps—striking plaid effects in beautiful soft wool fabrics, combining many beautiful colors. 54 inches wide. Yard... $2.95 to $6.95

Astrakhan Cloth, in black, navy, brown, silver, grey, tan. 54 inches wide. Yard... $4.95

McCALL PRINTED PATTERNS

McCall Printed Patterns 3896, 3879, 3898

Where Smart Gowns Meet

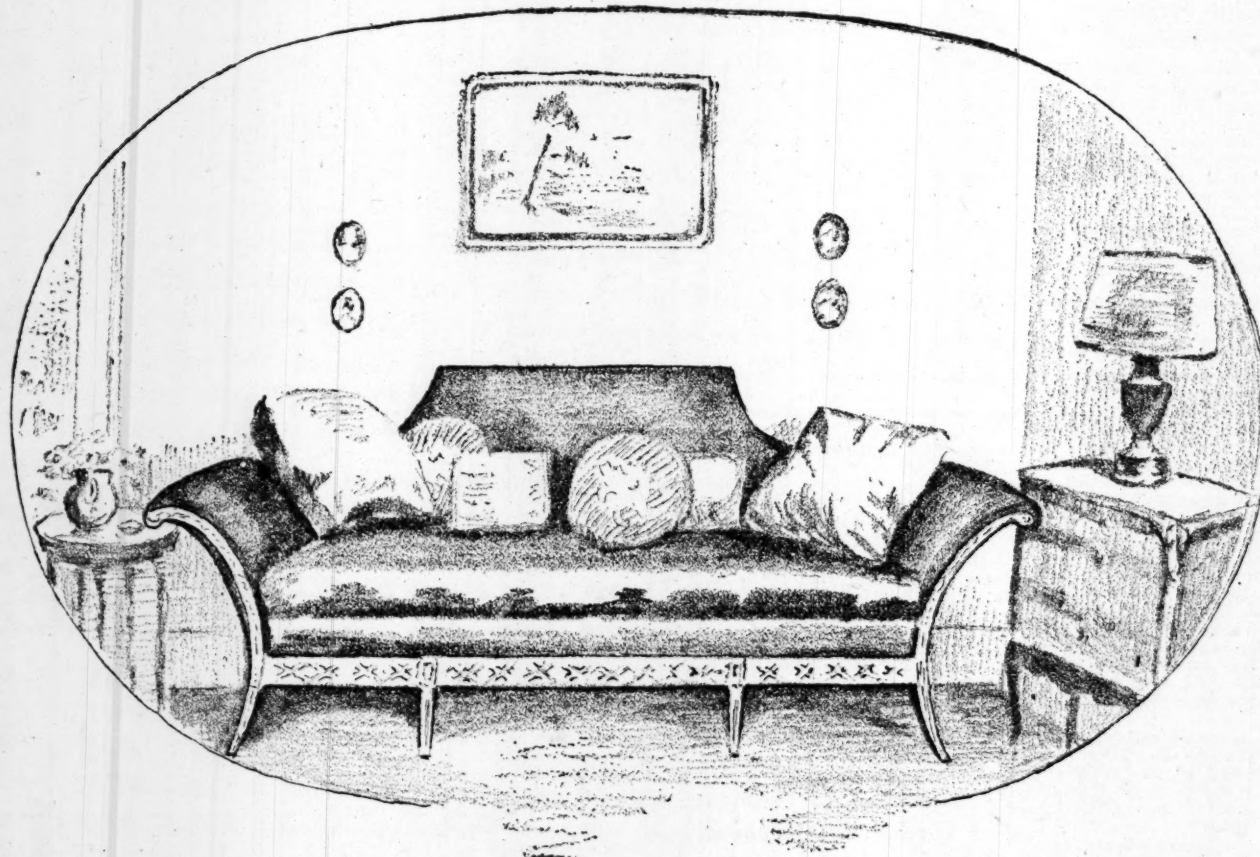

There you will find the tunic dress (like that on the left); the frock slightly bloused with a higher waistline (the one in the center); and the perfectly straight frock, tighter and shorter than last season (the one on the right, as you can see). These styles are all to be found in the new McCall Printed Patterns for autumn.

The Winter Quarterly of Styles Is Out

McCall Patterns—Main Floor Front

Reintroducing The House of Ideas In Charming New Attire

With a cordial invitation to all to come and enjoy the many attractive features in beautiful ideas for the home to be found in its nine, newly furnished rooms.

The Living Room

Walls and woodwork of apricot color form a charming background for an exquisite ensemble of beauty and comfort. Some rarely beautiful French pieces, commodes and hand-carved chairs, are combined with luxuriously comfortable sofa, chaise lounge, and chairs of American make.

Draperies of daintiest rainbow stripes hang over curtains of silver gauze. Lamps, pictures and other objects of art complete the picture.

The Sun Room

Very modern and very pleasing color-blending will be seen in the sun room with walls and woodwork of robin's egg blue, furnished in dull green and tan parchment furniture with bright rose cushions.

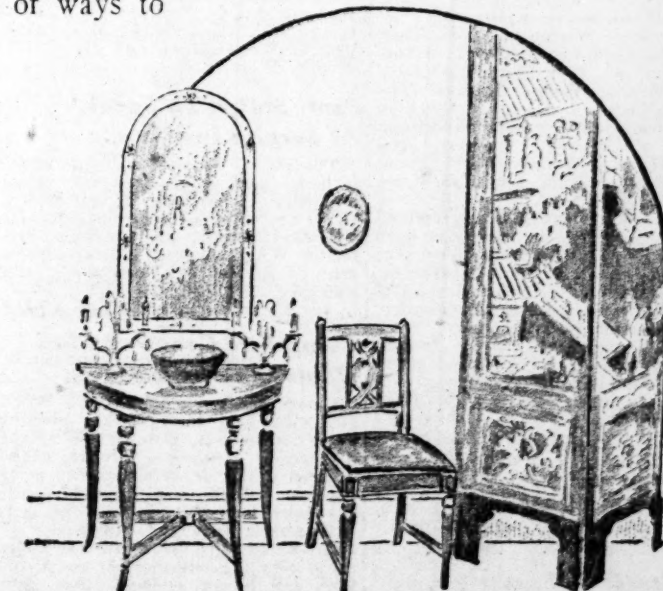

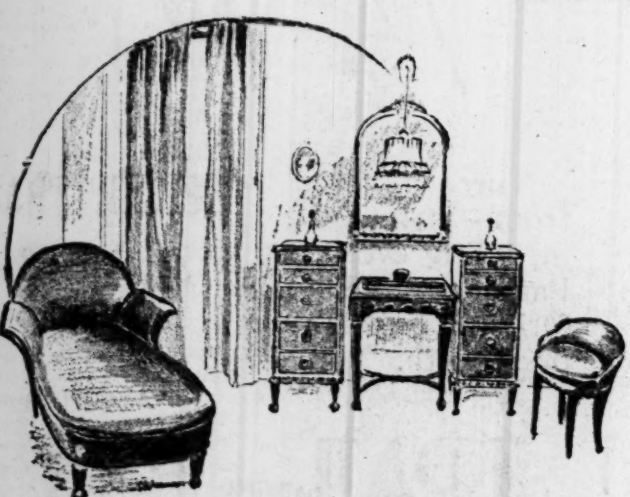

Old-gold gauze curtains are framed with charming valence in gaily flowered glazed chintz, pleated. Side draperies of solid green chintz.

The House of Ideas, a complete modern home, from living room to bath, is built in a corner of our vast furniture floor. It is primarily for the pleasure of our friends of Atlanta and the South—to give complete, definite ideas of ways to make the home attractive.

Its beautifully furnished rooms, as illustrated, express a few of the charming schemes our Furniture and Interior Decorating Departments are prepared to carry out in your own home.

Fourth Floor

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

Beautiful Prima Donna Comes Today for Saturday Concert

Madam Maria Jerizta, brilliant Viennese soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, will arrive in Atlanta today, according to a telegram received today by Mrs. George Wight, president of the Atlanta Music club. She sings at the auditorium Saturday evening.

In the party will be Maximilian Rose, violinist, and Emil Polak, who will appear on the program with Madam Jerizta, and they will be guests of the Atlanta Biltmore.

In a recent interview with this celebrated artist, she refused to discuss skyscrapers or prohibition, but was enthusiastic about American women.

No foreign artist who steps on these shores is allowed a moment's peace until he or she has answered three leading questions. What do you think of our skyscrapers? Of prohibition? Of our women? Maria Jerizta, the Viennese soprano of the Metropolitan, who in three years of operatic and concert appearance in this country has established herself as the idol of the American public, refuses to comment on the first two subjects, but is more than anxious to expand on the third.

"Your skyscrapers? Magnificent! What else can I say? I am a singer, not an architect. Prohibition? Personally, I never drink, so your dry laws do not affect me. Theoretically, I believe in as much personal liberty as is possible without harming anyone else. However, I feel that you can get just as much stimulus out of life as from liquor, if you only try."

"But your women! That is something to talk about!" exclaimed the prima donna with enthusiasm. "The American woman has impressed me more than anything else in this country. What has particularly struck me is her vitality, her marvelous combination of vivacity, energy and poise. I am myself an animated person, and languorous poses—except when demanded by some stage impersonation—are foreign to me. I love movement, and though I do not 'dally' with it, I am capable, on occasion, of turning a few hand springs in the privacy of my boudoir, an accomplishment probably not included in every singer's repertoire."

"Again, I admire the American woman's independence. In Austria we women defer far more to masculine opinion than in this country, and I have often been startled by the vigor of thought and action of some of my American friends, as well as by the direct interest they take in politics. From childhood, my operative training has been in accordance with the creed that the artist is an international figure and should have nothing to do with politics. Probably that is why it is hard for me to share the American woman's excitement over casting a ballot and her pity for her poor Austrian sisters without the voting privilege."

Judge Sibley To Speak Today

The Atlanta chapter D. A. R. will meet at Craigie house, 986 Piedmont avenue, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Following the business meeting an attractive program has been arranged by the regent, Mrs. Ben Wylie. A quartet will sing and their appearance is anticipated with keen interest. They will be accompanied by Miss Lily Allen.

Judge Samuel H. Sibley will be the orator of the day. Mrs. Aurelia Roach McMillan will read a paper on the "Life of Columbus," as the month of October is devoted to the D. A. R. as a memorial to Columbus.

Mrs. Wylie is especially desirous that the very members of the chapter attend this first business meeting of the new season, in order that they may be thoroughly acquainted with the plans of the year and may be able to select the phase of work to which they would prefer to give their attention and services.

Afternoon tea will be served.

Columbus Day To Be Celebrated

Columbus day will be fittingly celebrated by the Habersham chapter, D. A. R., at Habersham hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The speaker of the occasion will be Dr. W. H. Faust. There will be a musical program of songs, including a group of songs by Mrs. W. Earl Quillian.

Mrs. O. F. Kauffman will give an interesting talk on the subject of current events.

The regular meeting of the chapter will be held at 3 o'clock preceding the celebration program, at which matters of importance will be discussed and all members of the chapter are urged to be present.

All visiting D. A. R.'s in the city are cordially invited. Mrs. Allison Greene, assisted by Mrs. Fred Coolidge, Jr., and Mrs. Stillwell Robinson, will receive the guests.

Mrs. J. W. Moxley To Conduct Literary Meeting

Mrs. J. W. Moxley, chairman of the literary department of the Woman's Civic club of West End has arranged a program for the regular literary meeting this afternoon.

Centering around the life and works of Kate Douglas Wiggin, papers have been especially prepared so that the members may gain a more intimate knowledge of the character of this author.

Mrs. Moxley is principal of the Moxley School for girls, and a well-known leader in educational work in the city. Under her regime the club is looking forward to an interesting literary season. The course of study to be followed is "Present-Day Literature," and every effort has been made to secure the latest contributions to the literary field.

Following is the complete program for the meeting today: Piano solo, Mrs. J. A. Murphy; reading, "Wood Ticks," by Mrs. McArva Allen; reading, "The Evening Idyll," by Mrs. Mabel Davis; and Mrs. Margaret Allen; piano solo, Mrs. J. A. Murphy.

The barbeque recently given by the club proved a success, and with the funds the club has on hand it expects to go forward with plans for beautifying this section.

Children Will Give Matinee Parties.

A number of the young people in Atlanta will entertain at the better hotels at the Gordon street Baptist church, Mrs. J. W. Dalhouse will be in charge of the program.

All W. M. S. members and any interested are cordially invited to come. Each lady is requested to bring a box lunch.

Peachtree Hills Club To Hold Meeting.

The Peachtree Hills Woman's club will hold its regular meeting Thursday, October 16, with Mrs. W. C. Flournoy, the president, at her home on Peachtree Hills avenue. It is hoped every member will be present, as there are several important matters to be brought before the club at this time.

The barbeque recently given by the club proved a success, and with the funds the club has on hand it expects to go forward with plans for beautifying this section.

Children Will Give Matinee Parties.

A number of the young people in Atlanta will entertain at the better hotels at the Gordon street Baptist church, Mrs. J. W. Dalhouse will be in charge of the program.

All W. M. S. members and any interested are cordially invited to come. Each lady is requested to bring a box lunch.

Peachtree Hills Club To Hold Meeting.

The Peachtree Hills Woman's club will hold its regular meeting Thursday, October 16, with Mrs. W. C. Flournoy, the president, at her home on Peachtree Hills avenue. It is hoped every member will be present, as there are several important matters to be brought before the club at this time.

The barbeque recently given by the club proved a success, and with the funds the club has on hand it expects to go forward with plans for beautifying this section.

Jerizta Program Is Announced By Music Club

The big audience which is expected to hear Mme. Maria Jerizta, sensational Viennese prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera company, on Saturday evening at the city auditorium, will find that the program for the first appearance of the noted singer in Atlanta, as announced Monday by the Atlanta Music club, includes selections from French, German and Italian operas, also gems of song from French, German and American composers.

This last fact is of special significance to opera lovers and concert goers who have followed the career of the beautiful Viennese.

Mme. Jerizta will be assisted by Maximilian Rose, violinist, and Emil Polak, accompanist.

The program is as follows:

- (a) Larghetto Handel-Huber
- (b) Rondo Mozart-Kreisler
- (c) "Divine du St. Jean" Gluck
- (d) "Divine du St. Jean" Gluck
- (a) Widmung Schumann
- (b) Song of the Lark W. Korngold
- (c) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (d) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (a) Le Manoir de Rosemound Verdi
- (b) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (c) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (d) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (a) Andante Verdi
- (b) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (c) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (d) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (a) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (b) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (c) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss
- (d) "The Opera 'The Dead City'" Strauss

Mme. Jerizta appears as the first attraction of the civic concert series under the auspices of the Atlanta Music club.

The concert will be held at the city auditorium, October 16, at the Cable Piano company. Prices obtain at $3 down to $1.25, according to location of seats.

Many attractive features have been planned.

White Cross Workers Hold Meeting.

The White Cross workers of the woman's auxiliary of the Central Presbyterian church held their meeting Monday morning from 10 to 11 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. W. R. Heston, 130 St. Charles avenue.

The meeting was well attended and the members were enthusiastic over the work which they had undertaken.

Those present were Mrs. Harry Alexander, Mrs. Paul Brown, Mrs. John Murrell, Mrs. S. S. Morris, Mrs. Samuel Young, Mrs. W. R. Armstrong, Mrs. J. A. White, Mrs. Richard Clark, Mrs. Frank L. Tizer, Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Mrs. J. G. Califf, Miss Mary Dickey, Mrs. W. U. Cotton and Mrs. L. A. Jones.

The next meeting will be a spend-the-day party on October 20, Mrs. W. R. Heston again being hostess.

Memorial Medals For 12,000 Children.

The bronze medals for the children enrolled as members of the Children's Founders' roll of the Stone Mountain Confederate memorial have been received by the association and will be sent out this week to the 12,000 children already enrolled.

The medal, which was designed by Guizot Borglum and made by Whitehead & Hume, is very attractive. It is bronze, hexagonal in shape and finely moulded. The face of the medal shows three of the figures of the central group, Lee, Jackson and Davis.

The ladies of the Altar society will be assisted in serving by the young ladies of the Immaculate Conception club.

Parish Sapper To Be Given.

A parish sapper will be given by the ladies of the Immaculate Conception Altar society in the Sunday school hall of the church, at the corner of Central avenue and East Hunter street, this afternoon.

The ladies of the Altar society will be assisted in serving by the young ladies of the Immaculate Conception club.

All-Day Prayer Service.

An all-day prayer service and program in the interest of state missions among the Baptists will be held at the Gordon street Baptist church, Mrs. J. W. Dalhouse will be in charge of the program.

All W. M. S. members and any interested are cordially invited to come. Each lady is requested to bring a box lunch.

Peachtree Hills Club To Hold Meeting.

The Peachtree Hills Woman's club will hold its regular meeting Thursday, October 16, with Mrs. W. C. Flournoy, the president, at her home on Peachtree Hills avenue. It is hoped every member will be present, as there are several important matters to be brought before the club at this time.

The barbeque recently given by the club proved a success, and with the funds the club has on hand it expects to go forward with plans for beautifying this section.

Children Will Give Matinee Parties.

A number of the young people in Atlanta will entertain at the better hotels at the Gordon street Baptist church, Mrs. J. W. Dalhouse will be in charge of the program.

All W. M. S. members and any interested are cordially invited to come. Each lady is requested to bring a box lunch.

Peachtree Hills Club To Hold Meeting.

The Peachtree Hills Woman's club will hold its regular meeting Thursday, October 16, with Mrs. W. C. Flournoy, the president, at her home on Peachtree Hills avenue. It is hoped every member will be present, as there are several important matters to be brought before the club at this time.

The barbeque recently given by the club proved a success, and with the funds the club has on hand it expects to go forward with plans for beautifying this section.

Children Will Give Matinee Parties.

A number of the young people in Atlanta will entertain at the better hotels at the Gordon street Baptist church, Mrs. J. W. Dalhouse will be in charge of the program.

All W. M. S. members and any interested are cordially invited to come. Each lady is requested to bring a box lunch.

Musical Circles To Hear Illustrated Lecture Today

Miss Madeline Keipp, well-known lecturer and music educator, who is chairman of program for the morning musicale of the Atlanta Music club to be given at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel at 10:30 o'clock today.

The second morning musicale of the Atlanta Music club will be given this morning, at 10:30 o'clock in the ballroom of the Atlanta Biltmore.

The first of a series of study programs on musical understanding will be given as an illustrated lecture—the subject to be "The Development of Notation," the course to be followed by the one authorized and adopted by the National Federation of Music Clubs, Gehrken's "Fundamentals of Music," a course designed to promote a united study of the essentials of music culture by club women.

Miss Madeline Keipp, well-known lecturer and music educator, who is chairman of the morning musicale, illustrating with some of the earliest known examples of written music, including the Hymn to Apollo (second century before Christ); Hymn to John the Baptist; Hymn to Charlemagne; Lament for Charlemagne (ninth century); and "Crusader's Hymn" (eleventh century). Under the leadership of Miss Keipp this series of lecture recitals will be given on the third Wednesday of each month, with different chairmen to illustrate the various phases of music development.

Mrs. Cliff C. Hatcher, membership chairman, will be present at 10 o'clock to receive new members. Those desiring to attend the morning programs of the club may do so by paying the lecture and membership fee, $5. To non-members the price of single admission is 50 cents.

Final arrangements were completed for the Halloween dance to be given at the club October 31 from 4 o'clock until 7 o'clock.

Plans are being made to present in the near future a musical comedy or play.

Members of the executive board and special committees of the Southern Woman's Educational Alliance met yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Samuel M. Inman, to act upon proposed plans for the development of the work in Atlanta.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Blair Foster, and Miss Jessie Muse read the minutes of the last meeting of the educational committee. Dr. O. Latham Hatcher, of Richmond, then outlined the four phases of work carried on at the Atlanta office and explained how these activities could benefit the women and girls of Georgia.

Miss Harriet Hough, of Atlanta, reported on the work of the Atlanta office at 219 Ivy street since October 1.

Mrs. John K. Ottley presented a resolution thanking the Chamber of Commerce for its courtesy in sharing its booth at the Southeastern fair with the alliance, and for its hospitality throughout the period of the fair, which was passed unanimously.

Officers of the alliance are: President, Mrs. Inman; vice presidents, Mrs. Charles A. Conklin, Mrs. Albert Thornton, Jr., Mrs. Edwin K. Large; secretaries Mrs. Blair Foster, Mrs. Rembert Marshall, treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Alexander, Eugene R. Black, Dean Nannette Hopkins, Mrs. Henry A. Inman, Mrs. John K. Ottley, Kendall Weisiger, David Woodford, and Eugene R. Black, chairman, Preston Arkwright, Thomas B. Paine, William Lawson Peel, Mell R. Wilkinson, educational committee, J. R. McCain, chairman; H. B. Bixler, Miss Jessie Muse, Willis A. Sutton, Kendall Weisiger, Carol Woodford, Mrs. Anne E. Wise.

Theosophical Lecture For Wednesday Evening.

"The Great Truth of Truths," will be the subject of the regular theosophical lecture for Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, 313-314 Grand theatre building. The lecture is free and the public is invited.

Mrs. Hancock To Talk on Astrology.

"The Quality of the Four Fixed Signs" is the subject of the astrological lecture to be given by Mrs. Marie Louise Hancock, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the 313 Grand theatre building. The lecture is free and all interested are invited.

Music Club To Entertain Group of State Leaders.

All members of the Music club are invited to attend the luncheon to be given Thursday at 1 o'clock at the Atlanta Woman's club complimentary to the state officers of the National Federation of Music Clubs. Members are privileged to bring guests, but reservations must be made in advance to insure places at the table.

Friday afternoon, October 10, at the clubhouse. Mrs. Tom Brooke, chairman of junior department, was guest for the afternoon and discussed camp-fire work, also entertaining the girls with photographs and literature.

An automobile drive into the country concluding with weiner roast and cake will be an activity of this group of energetic girls will enjoy Saturday, October 18. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Farnham and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Coleman.

Final arrangements were completed for the Halloween dance to be given at the club October 31 from 4 o'clock until 7 o'clock.

Plans are being made to present in the near future a musical comedy or play.

Members of the executive board and special committees of the Southern Woman's Educational Alliance met yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Samuel M. Inman, to act upon proposed plans for the development of the work in Atlanta.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Blair Foster, and Miss Jessie Muse read the minutes of the last meeting of the educational committee. Dr. O. Latham Hatcher, of Richmond, then outlined the four phases of work carried on at the Atlanta office and explained how these activities could benefit the women and girls of Georgia.

Miss Harriet Hough, of Atlanta, reported on the work of the Atlanta office at 219 Ivy street since October 1.

Mrs. John K. Ottley presented a resolution thanking the Chamber of Commerce for its courtesy in sharing its booth at the Southeastern fair with the alliance, and for its hospitality throughout the period of the fair, which was passed unanimously.

Officers of the alliance are: President, Mrs. Inman; vice presidents, Mrs. Charles A. Conklin, Mrs. Albert Thornton, Jr., Mrs. Edwin K. Large; secretaries Mrs. Blair Foster, Mrs. Rembert Marshall, treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Alexander, Eugene R. Black, Dean Nannette Hopkins, Mrs. Henry A. Inman, Mrs. John K. Ottley, Kendall Weisiger, David Woodford, and Eugene R. Black, chairman, Preston Arkwright, Thomas B. Paine, William Lawson Peel, Mell R. Wilkinson, educational committee, J. R. McCain, chairman; H. B. Bixler, Miss Jessie Muse, Willis A. Sutton, Kendall Weisiger, Carol Woodford, Mrs. Anne E. Wise.

Theosophical Lecture For Wednesday Evening.

"The Great Truth of Truths," will be the subject of the regular theosophical lecture for Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, 313-314 Grand theatre building. The lecture is free and the public is invited.

Mrs. Hancock To Talk on Astrology.

"The Quality of the Four Fixed Signs" is the subject of the astrological lecture to be given by Mrs. Marie Louise Hancock, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the 313 Grand theatre building. The lecture is free and all interested are invited.

Music Club To Entertain Group of State Leaders.

All members of the Music club are invited to attend the luncheon to be given Thursday at 1 o'clock at the Atlanta Woman's club complimentary to the state officers of the National Federation of Music Clubs. Members are privileged to bring guests, but reservations must be made in advance to insure places at the table.

Friday afternoon, October 10, at the clubhouse. Mrs. Tom Brooke, chairman of junior department, was guest for the afternoon and discussed camp-fire work, also entertaining the girls with photographs and literature.

An automobile drive into the country concluding with weiner roast and cake will be an activity of this group of energetic girls will enjoy Saturday, October 18. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Farn-

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

Atlanta chapter D. A. R. will meet at Craigie house, 986 Piedmont avenue at 3 o'clock.

Habersham chapter D. A. R. will meet at Habersham hall at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Piedmont chapter of D. A. R. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the Ansley hotel.

The Wednesday Morning Study club will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. J. W. Mason, 292 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Oglethorpe Chapter No. 122 Order of the Eastern Star will entertain its members and their friends at a home-coming evening this evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple on Peachtree road at Buckhead.

The regular meeting of the Mothers' club of the Misses Van Hook private school and kindergarten will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at 52 Inman circle, Ansley Park.

The P-T. A. of Grew Street school will meet at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will be held at the church at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon. An interesting program has been arranged.

The Hoosier club of Atlanta will hold an all-day sewing at the Home of the Friendless this afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Atlanta Truth center will be held this morning at 11 o'clock in rooms 7 and 8 on the mezzanine floor of the Biltmore hotel. The evening class will be held at 6 o'clock in the study of the Central Congregational church.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Decatur Junior High school will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Moses W. Formwalt Parent-Teacher association will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Forrest Avenue P-T. A. will meet at the school this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Kirkwood P-T. A. will meet in the school auditorium at 2:30 o'clock.

The regular meeting of Highland P-T. A. will be held at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon in the school auditorium.

There will be a call meeting of all of the Parent-Teacher presidents and council chairmen this morning at 10 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce.

The executive board of the Council of Jewish Women will meet this morning at 10:15 at the home of Mrs. Frank Neely, 619 Piedmont avenue.

The Modern Topics club will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. B. Sanders at 83 Springdale road.

The regular executive board meeting of Moreland Parent-Teacher association will meet today at 12 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The College Park Woman's club will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian church.

The literary department of the West End Woman's club will hold its regular meeting at 3 o'clock in the club rooms at 305 Gordon street.

There will be a morning musical of the Atlanta Music club at the Atlanta Biltmore at 10:30 o'clock in the ballroom.

The citizenship department of the Atlanta Woman's club will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the club house.

There will be a Baby Health center at Joel Chandler Harris school at 2 o'clock with Dr. Hoppe and Mrs. Otis in charge.

The executive members of the Emory Grammar and Junior High P-T. A. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. T. Benson on Springdale road.

Circle No. 1 of the Woman's auxiliary of the Central Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Samuel Young at the home of Mrs. Paul Brown, 35 La Fayette drive, Ansley Park.

The civic committee of the Woman's Civic club will meet at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. J. Merrill, 20 Gordon place.

The literary department of the Woman's Civic club of West End will meet at 3 o'clock at the club, corner Gordon street and Grady place.

Mrs. John A. Mangel will entertain the North Side Embroidery club Friday afternoon at 3:30 at the Woman's club.

George Wight, Mrs. Armond Carroll, member ambassador from England to the United States, Professor McClain honorary president of the club and past president for Georgia of the National Federation of Musical Clubs, will give a short talk on club activities in Atlanta and Georgia.

Mrs. Charles Downman and Mrs. DeLoe Hill, past presidents of the club, will make brief talks. Response will be made on behalf of the state board by Mrs. W. P. Bailey, president for Georgia.

The guests of honor will include the members of the state executive board, who are Mrs. W. P. Bailey, of Savannah, president; Mrs. T. D. Durrett, of Cordele, first vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Jackson, of Atlanta, second vice president; Mrs. C. M. Dunn, of Barnesville, third vice president; Mrs. Frank Pogue, Atlanta, recording secretary; Mrs. T. E. Mann, Savannah, corresponding secretary; Miss Annelia Berry, Rome, treasurer; Mrs. W. P. Harbin, Rome, director of Junior club; and other members of the board who will attend with Miss Gertrude Barnett, Mrs. T. C. Collier, Mrs. L. A. Collier, Mrs. W. C. Martin, Miss Katherine Sneed, Miss Ruth Gaines, Mrs. Lillian Harris, Mrs. Louis Bradley, Mrs. Heide and Miss Nat. Stephens, vice president of the national board.

Decorations are in charge of Mrs. Ben Lee Crew, chairman of the house committee.

Club Starts Study Of World Relations.

The Atlanta Woman's club yesterday afternoon launched one of its largest features of its program—a study of the international politics and the conduct of nations.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. B. M. Boykin, former president of the club and chairman of the international relations committee of the club.

Signor B. Arrieta Gallagos, vice consul from Salvador, was the first speaker. He stated that university students who formerly attended colleges in Europe are now studying in the United States because they are anxious to learn the ideals and democracy as taught and practiced in the United States. He attended the Pan-American congress recently held in Atlanta. Signor Gallagos stated that he had traveled and studied conditions in France, Italy and Spain, but he had never met such women as those in Atlanta who are studying the problems of the world, and he trusted that when the Pan-American congress next convenes in Salvador there will be present delegates from the international committee of the Woman's club. The members of the club elected the speaker as an honorary member of the committee.

One of the foremost speakers who addressed the meeting was Professor R. H. McClain, instructor of European history at Emory university, who spoke on foreign relations. Professor McClain is a former member of the staff of historical research of the United States and was located at Washington. Professor McClain said that now Europe is sending her students to this country to study international law as well as the laws of the United States, and many of whom are in the school of some of the best in Emory and Bessie Tift in Georgia. Professor McClain suggested strongly that a school of politics be established by the Woman's club within itself. He called attention to the chair established at Furman university in South Carolina through the instrumentality of Lord Bryce, for-

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Faintly Portented.
A tiny muslin bag containingorris root boiled along with the handkerchiefs will give them a delightfully delicate perfume.

The Refrigerator.
Monday morning is a splendid time to clean the refrigerator, as it usually contains less ice at that time. Place the ice on the drain board and replace the ice trays, racks and drain pipes. Wash them in hot water containing soda or soap and wipe dry. Wash the entire inside of the refrigerator with the same solution before returning the various articles. Be sure every Monday without fail no great amount of dirt will accumulate.

Handy Hints.
Sponging with salt water will revive colors in rugs and carpets. A mixture of warm milk and turpentine will make oilcloth look like new.

The tops of long kid gloves come in handy to cover the buffer of the manicle set.

A dampened chamois used as a duster for furniture will give it a fresh, new look.

A little ammonia in the hot water in which the tea towels are washed will remove any disagreeable odors, besides helping to loosen the dirt.

THE GUMPS—THE GILDED CABOOSE

Red Riding Hood

By ELIZABETH JORDAN

SYNOPSIS.

Mrs. Morgan Schuyler, one of New York's leading philanthropic and social lights, advertises for a young woman to work in her apartment mornings. The advertisement is answered by a girl evidently of birth and breeding. In spite of the fact that she admits a desire to hide her identity, Mrs. Schuyler accepts her on trust and tags her with the name of Hope Emerson.

Mrs. Schuyler's family consists of her mother, Mrs. Van Dorn; a young brother, Jim Van Dorn, and an older brother, Bertie, who is away.

The second morning of her employment Hope fails after receiving a mysterious telephone call. Mrs. Schuyler summons Mr. Horace Osborne. Hope tells the doctor she is employed during the afternoon hours on East Seventieth street. He offers to drive her there. By strange coincidence the doctor has an appointment at the house where Hope is employed. He has been called in consultation with two other doctors. The patient is a boy of five years, about whom the entire household mysteriously revolves. The closest guardian being a uncle named Scaroska. All of the members of this household are foreigners except Hope, who is known here as Sonia. A day or two later a mysterious visitor, Colonel Van Saanen, a man of obvious importance, calls at the Seventieth street house. He tells Hope that he may send her to Europe, but she says it would be impossible for her to go.

INSTALLMENT XXVII.

THE TARTAR.

The girl before Van Saanen, the visitor realized, was finding herself. She had been angry at first and self-forgetful; then she had been nervous, afraid of losing her position; now she had obviously remembered the difficulty they would have in filling her place.

"One pays well for such service," he suggested. "I may be able to make you an offer which will lead you to change your mind."

Hope dropped her hands, raised her head, and met his eyes with a straight look.

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

"You're very kind. But I cannot leave New York."

I'M TIRED OF THIS KNOCKING AROUND THE COUNTRY LIKE A COUPLE OF HOMELESS GIPSIES—YOU'RE ALWAYS HOGGING THE LIME LIGHT WHILE I'M ABOUT AS IMPORTANT AS A SAFETY RAZOR IN RUSSIA—MAYBE YOU THINK THIS CINDER WAGON WE ARE TRAVELING IN IS WONDERFUL BUT FOR ME IT'S JUST LIKE BEING BURIED IN A TRAVELING GRAVE-YARD—ALL I'M GETTING OUT OF THIS TRIP IS HARD WORK AND HEADACHES—

GOSH, MIN—DON'T CRY—I KNOW YOU'RE NOT HAVING MUCH FUN BUT IT'S NO CINCH FOR ME EITHER—A POLITICIAN OFTEN SMILES TO HIDE HIS ACHING TONSILS—I'M DOING IT FOR YOUR SAKE—I WANT YOU TO REIGN IN THE WHITE HOUSE AS FIRST LADY OF THE LAND—YOU WERE JUST MADE FOR THAT JOB—YOU'LL FEEL AS MUCH AT HOME IN WASHINGTON AS AN IRISHMAN DOES IN DUBLIN—

JUST THINK—YOU'LL HAVE A PRIVATE YACHT ALWAYS AT YOUR COMMAND—YOU'LL CREATE ALL THE NEW STYLES—IF YOU WANT TO WEAR A GREEN KIMONA FOR A BALL GOWN ALL THE WOMEN OF THE WORLD WILL HAVE TO FOLLOW THEIR LEADER—JUST THINK OF ALL THE FUN YOU WILL HAVE SHOPPING IN WASHINGTON—PICKING OUT ANYTHING YOUR LITTLE HEART DESIRES AND TELLING THE CLERK TO CHARGE IT TO THE PRESIDENT—I GUESS THAT'LL BE BAD, EH?

The Fun Shop

MAXSON PICTorial JOURNAL

MRS. DANIEL.
By Wallace M. Boyliss.

In ancient times to be a prophet's wife was not a cinch by any means, for life in those days was a rather rough affair. When Daniel to his office would repair To do his prophesying, Mrs. D. Could never tell if in the evening he would walk back home or be brought home feet first. And so, poor soul, she always feared the worst. And well she might; if trouble was on hand Dan would be in it up to his neck-band. An instance: Once the supper had grown cold With Dan nowhere in sight. By fear made bold She went out hunting him at half past ten And learned they'd chucked him in the lion's den.

She hustled home and started in to wait. Also to sew upon her widow's veil. When, in the morning, he showed up O. K. She took one look and fainted dead away. Her story proves to wives, both old and new. That over husbands you should never stew. For Mrs. D. died young, a nervous wreck. While on till ninety Daniel stayed on deck.

The Other Side of the Story.
Blink: "I'm girl shy." Blank: "Shy how many?" —Arthur Gatlin.

Doan in Alaham
"One Pair: "Luce, ain't you 'shamed to shoot so loud 'bout you got religion."

and des last week you stole Mistic's goose?"

Luce: "Hub! You think I'm gwine let des a goose stand 'twixt me 'n' my Maker!" —M. Y.

Should the dishonest grocer be classed among those who lie in weight to deceive?

His Preference.
Father: "Would you sooner have a little baby brother or sister?" Son: "If it's immaterial to you, I'll have an ice cream cone." —Herman Optiz.

False.
Lips over-red, and eyes untrue: Completely fied, the soul of you. A heart as cold as Arctic ice: And e'en that sold at bidder's price. All day you grin, it grieves me sore—A dummy in a woman's store. —Will H. Hendrickson.

Conscience Stricken.
Roy: "Did your wife open your letters?" Lee: "No; she is afraid they might be bills she's run up." —Frances Burt.

THE EDITOR'S GOSSIP SHOP.
Another adventure along the line of what we wish you to write for Dr. George A. Bullpat: I've seized his opportunity and, an instant later, rushed over the falls carrying with him my rod, line, and a cherished reel studded with twelve jewels which had been presented to me by the Duke of Argyll.

"I lost my fish—but I had saved a thousand lives. The passengers later presented me with this fish which, as you see, bears upon one side a canal-boat, on the other a fish-head. But you can imagine why I, perhaps more than most men, realize that it is always the biggest fish which get away."

Boomerang.
"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

Readers are invited to contribute. All humor—epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires and bright sayings of children—must be original and hitherto unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at the rate of $1 to $10 per contribution and from 25 cents to $1 per line for poetry according to its character and value in the judgment of the editor. Unaccepted contributions cannot be returned. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only and should be addressed Constitution Fun Shop Headquarters, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

Just Nuts

WHY ARE YOU PAINTING SO FAST, HENRY? WHAT'S THE IDEA?

I HAVEN'T GOT MUCH PAINT LEFT AN' I HAVE TO HURRY TO MAKE IT LAST.

Boomerang.

"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

Readers are invited to contribute. All humor—epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires and bright sayings of children—must be original and hitherto unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at the rate of $1 to $10 per contribution and from 25 cents to $1 per line for poetry according to its character and value in the judgment of the editor. Unaccepted contributions cannot be returned. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only and should be addressed Constitution Fun Shop Headquarters, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

Just Nuts

WHY ARE YOU PAINTING SO FAST, HENRY? WHAT'S THE IDEA?

I HAVEN'T GOT MUCH PAINT LEFT AN' I HAVE TO HURRY TO MAKE IT LAST.

Boomerang.

"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

Readers are invited to contribute. All humor—epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires and bright sayings of children—must be original and hitherto unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at the rate of $1 to $10 per contribution and from 25 cents to $1 per line for poetry according to its character and value in the judgment of the editor. Unaccepted contributions cannot be returned. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only and should be addressed Constitution Fun Shop Headquarters, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

Just Nuts

WHY ARE YOU PAINTING SO FAST, HENRY? WHAT'S THE IDEA?

I HAVEN'T GOT MUCH PAINT LEFT AN' I HAVE TO HURRY TO MAKE IT LAST.

Boomerang.

"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

Readers are invited to contribute. All humor—epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires and bright sayings of children—must be original and hitherto unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at the rate of $1 to $10 per contribution and from 25 cents to $1 per line for poetry according to its character and value in the judgment of the editor. Unaccepted contributions cannot be returned. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only and should be addressed Constitution Fun Shop Headquarters, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

Just Nuts

WHY ARE YOU PAINTING SO FAST, HENRY? WHAT'S THE IDEA?

I HAVEN'T GOT MUCH PAINT LEFT AN' I HAVE TO HURRY TO MAKE IT LAST.

Boomerang.

"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

Readers are invited to contribute. All humor—epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires and bright sayings of children—must be original and hitherto unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at the rate of $1 to $10 per contribution and from 25 cents to $1 per line for poetry according to its character and value in the judgment of the editor. Unaccepted contributions cannot be returned. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only and should be addressed Constitution Fun Shop Headquarters, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

Just Nuts

WHY ARE YOU PAINTING SO FAST, HENRY? WHAT'S THE IDEA?

I HAVEN'T GOT MUCH PAINT LEFT AN' I HAVE TO HURRY TO MAKE IT LAST.

Boomerang.

"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

Readers are invited to contribute. All humor—epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires and bright sayings of children—must be original and hitherto unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at the rate of $1 to $10 per contribution and from 25 cents to $1 per line for poetry according to its character and value in the judgment of the editor. Unaccepted contributions cannot be returned. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only and should be addressed Constitution Fun Shop Headquarters, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

Just Nuts

WHY ARE YOU PAINTING SO FAST, HENRY? WHAT'S THE IDEA?

I HAVEN'T GOT MUCH PAINT LEFT AN' I HAVE TO HURRY TO MAKE IT LAST.

Boomerang.

"T'posits: "It's better to let the public do its own censoring." Foyer: "I guess that's so. When a play gets too warm it becomes a frost." —Gertrude Marie Heller.

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—Routine

A RED HOUSE! STRANGE—I'VE NEVER BEEN 'ROUND THIS WAY BEFORE YET I FEEL SOMEHOW THAT IT'S ALL FAMILIAR! I COULD SWEAR I'VE STOOD HERE JUST LIKE THIS BEFORE!

MIGHTY STRANGE SENSATION! WONDER IF MAYBE IT'S AN ECHO OF A FORMER LIFE!

"DUCHESS, DID Y'EVER FEEL WHEN YOU WERE DOIN' SOMETHING THAT YOU HAD DONE THE SAME THING SOMEWHERE BEFORE?"

YOU BET! EVERY DAY—365 DAYS A YEAR!

DON'T NEED ANY MORE STENOGRAPHERS! JUST HIRED A GIRL! GOOD DAY!!!

THAT'S THE SAME ANSWER I GET EVERYWHERE! IT'S JUST HEARTBREAKING!

NO! TH' LAST VACANCY HERE WAS FILLED A HALF HOUR AGO!!

UPTOWN AND DOWNTOWN—THAT'S ALL I'VE HEARD ALL DAY THINGS CERTAINLY SEEM TO BE GOING AGAINST ME!

ANOTHER DAY GONE AND STILL NO SIGN OF A JOB!!

TAKE MY SEAT MISS! I KNOW HOW TIRED YOU MUST BE, WORKING IN AN OFFICE ALL DAY

THANK YOU—ER—YOU FLATTER ME!!!

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie is Tired Doing Nothing

GASOLINE ALLEY—WONDERFUL NEWS FOR AVERY

WALT, I GUESS I'LL LET YOU HAVE YOUR WAY, YOU CAN HAND OVER YOUR INTEREST IN MY CLAIM TO AVERY IF YOU WANT TO. BUT I TELL YOU YOU'RE A CHUMP.

BUT MR. FIDGITT, IT'S HIS. HE WON IT.

IT MAY BE A FORTUNE, WALT.

WELL, THE PRINCIPLE IS THE SAME.

AVERY, MR. FIDGITT, HAS AGREED TO TURN OVER TO YOU HALF OF HIS NEW GOLD CLAIM.

AN' YOU CAN THANK WALT, NOT ME.

PUT IT THERE, MR. FIDGITT. THAT'S FINE.

TUM DIDDY UM DUM A TRA-LA-LA!

WHY AVERY! WHAT HAS GOT INTO YOU ANYWAY?

THE DOCTOR SAID ALL YOU COULD EAT WAS A LITTLE OATMEAL, MOON.

HE'S CRAZY, MUSHMOUTH'S GONNA BRING ME A FRIED CHICKEN.

MORNIN', MISTAH MOON.

SAY, YOU TOLD ME DAY BEFORE YESTERDAY YOUR CO

The Over-Subscription of the German Loan—American Telephone Will Show Substantial Surplus Over Its 9 Per Cent Dividend, According to Earnings Statement.

the stock market opened heavy. In the decline, there was only one street today—the big success on bid for the bonds shortly before 10 points above the offering price had been a great success. The first ed had been padded in order to pay by customers.

[illegible]

American Telephone will show a substantial surplus over its 1924 dividend this year, according to its earnings' statement for the first nine months given out today. With the exception of the best months of the year, it will be reported, the company's earnings this year shows a surplus for dividends of $1,080, equal to $8.31 per share on the $77.080, equal to $8.31 per share on the outstanding stock. For the first nine months of 1923 the surplus for dividends was $1,256,142, equal to $8.56 on the $14,563,000 of outstanding stock. American Smelting is also going to have a good year. President Guggenheim's statement for the first nine months of 1924 surplus for dividends of $3,690,000, equal to $6.46 a share of common stock. Allowing for the provisions for depreciation for the first nine months of 1923 this surplus, with of $96,000, equal to $5.43 a share of the common stock. Mr. Guggenheimer says that on June 30 of this year his company had $1,000,000 in bank loans; that it had cash, notes, bank acceptances and government securities aggregating $22,654,300; and that it had an increase of over $1,000,000 an increase over a year ago of $1,816,000.

Electric is not doing so well in the new business being booked in orders for the September quarter. It was officially estimated today to have $58,339,000 against $65,483,000 for the same three months of last year. This is a decrease of 11 per cent. For nine months new business fanned $2,747,000, new business fanned $2,747,000 for the same months of last year. This is a decrease of 12 per cent. For months after general trade began to slow down, early this way the electric utility business kept on showing seasonal increases. Around the end of June, however, bankers were alerted to the effect that General Electric, Westinghouse and other similar companies were beginning to feel the effects of general conditions.

Washington, October 14.—Total exports of merchandise from the United States in September were valued at $27,000,000, against $33,700,000 in September, 1923. Value of imports was $285,000,000 against $253,045,000 in September, 1923, the exports exceeding the imports by $1,700,000. The increase in both imports and exports for the past nine months over the pre-war year of 1913, on the present basis, is $1,000,000,000. The increase, according to Secretary Hoover, is in the expansion the figures, disclosed, announcing the largest over the world. He added that the figures confirmed that the United States is taking a large position in the world's production of new trade.

The imports of gold for September are valued at $6,555,341 against $5,579,501 for the same month last year. The exports last month were valued at $5,579,501 against $862,697 for the corresponding month a year ago.

The exports of silver for September are valued at $6,916,402 against $1,917,971 for September, 1923. Exports of silver last month totaled $10,000,000.

Visible Supply of American Grain

Markets at a Glance

Brussels, October 14.—American investors will be asked to purchase two issues of Belgian government bonds within the next twelve months, it was reported here today.

Negotiations for a $26,000,000 loan to the Belgian Congo already are under way, and a second issue, the amount of which will depend on Belgian domestic requirements, is contemplated. The amount of the second loan has not been stated.

OFFERINGS

7½%

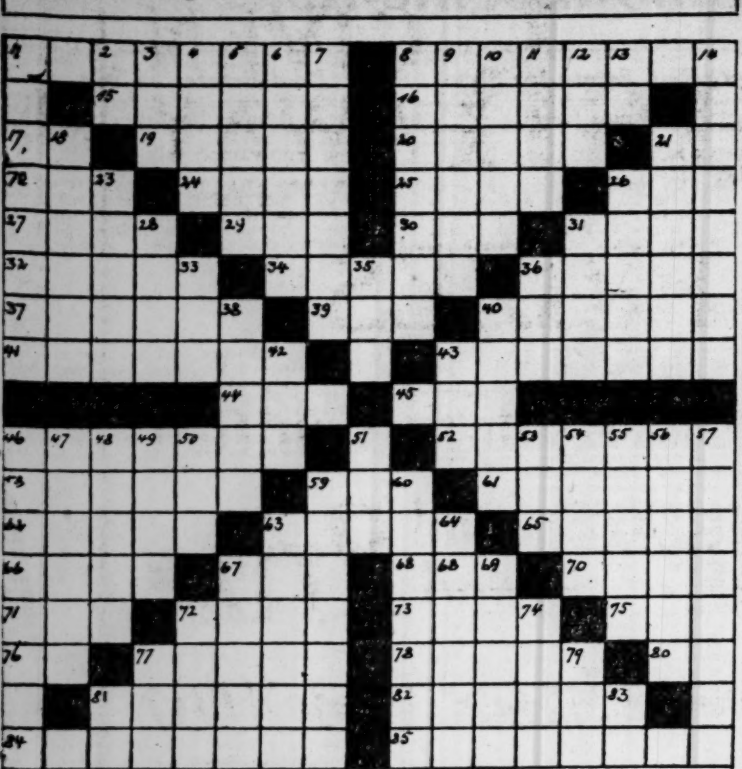

% Gold Bonds....@	market
Refunding Series A....@	market
Refunding Series D....@	89
1st & Refunding....@	93
Refunding.....@	100

8 to 40 years.

Department

pherty any
- ATLANTA, GA.
PRINCIPAL CITIES

Today's Cross Word Puzzle

© 1924 BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE 29

HOW TO SOLVE CROSS-WORD PUZZLES

The numbered squares are the starting points for words extending horizontally or vertically or both. One letter to a square. Words end at first black square encountered on border of puzzle. Pick out a word that fits a given definition and space. This gives you a clue to other words that cross it, and they in turn to still other words.

- THE DEFINITIONS.
- Horizontal.
- Wanders.
 - Ascendable.
 - Slight width.
 - Case bird.
 - Nay.
 - Polish.
 - Debate.
 - Exist.
 - French for friend.
 - Particle.
 - Filled with fish eggs.
 - Eccentric motion transmitter.
 - Jewels.
 - Ribbed fabric.
 - Sick.
 - Infant.
 - Make joyful.
 - Shoals.
 - Wading bird.
 - Beam.
 - Larva.
 - Breadstone.
 - Instruction.
 - Ultra-radical.
 - Struck.
 - Wealthiest.
 - Oriental.
 - Stick.
 - Adjust.
 - Alliance.
 - Joie Ray.
 - Insolent glances.
 - Veers.
 - Pond.
 - Drunkard.
 - Above (poet).
 - Ennamp.
 - Unreturned tennis service.
 - Particular thing.
 - Share.
 - Threw.
 - Far off (prefix).
 - Railway (abbr.).
 - Belief.
 - New England state.
 - Grinder.
 - Breath.
 - Pitless.
 - Stace again.
- Vertical.
- Directors.
 - One.
 - Sister.
 - Thump.
 - Mistake.
 - Roll.
 - Cleaner.
 - Lacinate.
 - Sings.
 - Celestial being.
 - Prize.
 - Part of "to be."

Newport vs Southampton

BY JULIA HOYT

(Copyright, 1924, in U. S. and Canada by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.)

It is curious that in America, where we pride ourselves on being democratic, our so-called fashionable summer resorts are the most exclusive and snobbish places in the world. That is one reason why they are less attractive than European places of the sort. We may not want to make everyone our bosom friends or even want them as our dinner guests, but unquestionably people of different kinds lend color and amusement to any place. You find them abroad; you don't have them at home.

At European summer resorts there are hundreds of sets. None of them feel out of it because they don't happen to know someone who is kind of amusing or entertaining. They are open to them. At Newport, on the contrary, if you do not know people you might as well be in China. There is no feeling of amusement that being in a place and yet not a part of the life.

What is offered at Newport in the way of amusements for people who do not happen to have friends there? The fashionable Bailey's Beach is very small and a stranger who is not brought there by someone known and trusted at and then left in solitary grandeur—solitary in the midst of a small number of people all of whom know each other. Can one imagine anything more perfect for those who are not of the party? There are no dances for the public; there is no casino at which to play; in short, there is no entertainment offered the stranger.

Newport has changed to the extent that now if one has money enough to take a house, knows a few people and is not too old to be taken into the life, it is a part of life. In days gone by I believe it was much more difficult. But then that is true of "society" all over America. Nevertheless, it still remains a small unrepresentative place; a place unrepresentative to strangers.

For those who have friends Newport is, of course, delightful. It is very beautiful, there is good golf, tennis and bathing and the houses and gardens are perfect for those who are not of the party. Like most American places, there are few men around on week days, so that, with the exception of "ten parties," the entertaining is done over the week-ends. Tennis week is usually an exception to this, or used to be, and there was a dance almost every night during the week.

The life at Southampton has become very much like that at Newport. When I first went to Southampton many years ago it was very small and absolutely informal and it remained so up to six or seven years ago. There were perhaps two or three dances during the summer and a few parties on Saturday night.

Most of the houses were lived in by people who had grown up there and whose children were growing up there. There was no attempt at great magnificence and it was undoubtedly a paradise for young people. Now it

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Line	Station	Time
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 am
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	3:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	4:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	5:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	6:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	7:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	8:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	9:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	10:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	11:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	12:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	1:45 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:15 pm
Atlantic Coast	Atlantic City	2:

The "Rooms For Rent" Ads Make it Easy to Find Comfortable Living Quarters

Real Estate for Sale

To Exchange—Real Estate

HOUSES
Good two-story frame house near McDaniel Street. Value $1,000. Clear. To trade for larger house suitable for rooming house. Price not over $10,000. Mr. Cox or Mr. Young with Evans & Dodd, Candler building, Walnut 1420; residence Walnut 4062.

LOTS
Two good level lots with all improvements down, value $1,500 each to trade for larger house. North side or Inman Park. Mr. Cox or Mr. Young with Evans & Dodd, Candler building, Walnut 1420; residence Walnut 4062.

RENTS
We exchange real estate. Ralph R. Martin Co., 311 All St. Bldg., WA. 0027. $15,000—Kendall central corner, well located, for exchange. Walnut 1508, Cone.

Wanted—Real Estate
HOUSES—Wanted, several small, must be bargain for quick sale. H. J. Cranshaw, 601 Rhodes building, Walnut 1551.

LIST your property for sale with Pittsburgh Knox, 212 Peachtree street.
TO BUY—Kendall central corner, bungalow around $7,500; like $2,000 cash. Call Walnut 0021.

Auctions—Legal

Auction Sales

OLESBY REALTY AUCTION COMPANY.
Auctioneers. John P. Olesby, manager. J. P. KING AUCTION COMPANY—World's Foremost Auctioneers, 227 Candler building, Walnut 1000.

Classified Display

Merchandise

Mr. Merchant:
If it is Children's Shoes, see us

Ellison-Walker Shoe Co.
Wholesale Only
45 Trinity Ave., MAIN 3665

Real Estate

KATHERWOOD DRIVE

NEW frame bungalow; hardwood floors, cement porch, level lot, paved street; built for a home, just as can be. Only $5,250; note only $28. Will take light car as cash payment. Call Mr. Maddox.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

Bonaventure Arms

541 Ponce de Leon Ave.

WE still have available a few choice units in this modern, fireproof apartment. See us for information and rates.

Burdett Realty Company
Candler Bldg. WA. 1011

QUICK SUB-LEASE

APT. NO. 8, ELMWOOD—1422 Peachtree Road, First floor, front, through ventilation, every room outside; living room, dining room, two bedrooms, kitchen and bath. Am paying $100.00 per month. Transferred from $124.00 per month. Will sublease for $80.00. Call Mrs. Passmore, Walnut 1908.

STEWART AVE.

STUCCO on hollow tile, six rooms, beautiful interior finish, hardwood floors, tile bath, furnace heat, level lot $14,200; one-half block east line. Built for a home; owner leaving for Florida. Price and terms right. Call Mr. Maddox.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

We Can Supply A LOCATION For Any Business

Phone for Our Rent List
Massell Realty Co.
434 Peachtree St.
WA. 1697

PEACHTREE HEIGHTS

$2,500—TERMS to suit. Practically new bungalow; six rooms and breakfast room; beautiful interior finish, furnace heat, level lot. A sacrifice. Call Mr. Maddox.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

ANDREW'S DRIVE SECTION

SIX ACRES with 677 feet of frontage on Andrew's Drive, West, and Austell Way; a picturesque building site, magnificent trees and a stream crossing the property.

Best Buy South of Pace's Ferry Road.

CHARLES L. GREENE
WA. 4208. 110 Peachtree St.

NEW BUILDING

ONE and two-room bachelors, Saint Andrews, 505 W. Peachtree; seven stories, elevators, cafe and maid service; fireproof and soundproof. $45.00 to $80.00. Will furnish. Only nine left in building.

Wynne Realty Company
Walnut 1808-2427.

WEST END

$6,750—SPLENDID home, near Gordon and Peoples streets; not new, but clean and neat; seven rooms, four bedrooms, level, shady lot $14,750; convenient to car line. Let us show you.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

Classified Display

Real Estate

VIRGINIA HIGHLAND SECTION

$6,750—NEW six-room bungalow, hardwood floors throughout, tile bath, furnace heat, large basement, drive and garage. New section where enhancement is a certainty. Call Mr. Oliver Dolvin.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

WEST END

OLYMPIA CIRCLE—Beautiful red brick bungalow, built by the present owner; finished hardwood floors, tile bath, tile porch; seven rooms and breakfast room; walls all painted. Bath has been transferred to another house and will sell cheap.

Joe J. Battle & Co.
512 Atlanta National Bank Bldg.
Walnut 0901.

Cascade Ave.

BEAUTIFUL six-room frame bungalow, just finished; hardwood floors, furnace, walls painted, side drive and garage. Very attractive price and good terms can be arranged. Let us show you this.

Dishro & Toy
903 Fourth National Bank Bldg.
Walnut 3241.

A REAL BARGAIN $5,500.00

SOUTH SIDE bungalow, near Grant Park; all conveniences; lot 50x100. Owner going to sell quick. Call promptly. Mr. Dobbs.

EVANS & DODD
3rd Floor Candler Bldg. WA. 1419

WEST END PARK

$4,900—$500 CASH. Cozy little home of five rooms and large sleeping porch, arranged for two families; every convenience; one block of Lullie Avenue and Gordon Street. This is a dandy buy for the money. Call Mr. Buckner.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

SOUTH SIDE LOT 50x300

SIX-ROOM new frame bungalow, beautifully finished and on paved street; two blocks from car line. $6,000. Easy terms. Call Mr. Ruppert.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
WA. 5256. 1010 Candler Bldg.

Bargain Vicinity Georgian Terrace

14% INVESTMENT
TWO-STORY 12-room residence, all city conveniences, two-room servant's house on rear of lot, large lot, running frontage to another street. Place rented for $1,344 per year. Owner must sell at once and has cut the price from $12,500 to $9,200. Terms $2,500 cash, balance $7,500. This is an extra good speculation as well as investment. First come, first served. Pick this up.

EVANS & DODD
WA. 1419. 3rd Floor Candler Bldg.

TODAY'S BEST VALUES

$7,500—LINWOOD, brick bungalow, a dandy little home in one of the most popular sections of the city.

$8,250—BRICK home sacrifice, Clinton road section; one of the best values we have offered recently.

$7,800—TWELVE-ROOM home, suburban section; lot 100x300; good condition; right at car stop. Call us.

EVANS & DODD
WA. 1419. 3rd Floor Candler Bldg.

EAST LAKE

$3,400—$200 CASH, balance $50 month, or will accept vacant lot, diamond ring or automobile as cash payment. Dandy little new four-room wide board bungalow; hardwood floors throughout; most attractive electric and plumbing fixtures; 1/2 block car line. Owner's sacrifice. For appointment call Mr. Burton or Mr. Devereaux.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

FOR SALE—Oakhurst section Decatur

near Oakhurst circle, story and half bungalow. All modern improvements and excellent repair, new wide paved street, lot 50 ft. by about 120 ft.; two blocks North Decatur car line, near school, also churches. First floor living room, dining room, two bedrooms, kitchen, two porches and bath; upstairs one large sleeping porch and attic for storage. Leaving screens, curtains, awnings, kitchen linoleum and stove and hot water heater. Phone DIXIE 0713.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

BRICK Bungalow Special

BEST north side section, six-room brick bungalow, strictly modern; it has two baths, steam heat, hardwood floors, many other attractive features; situated on large lot with side drive, garage and servants' house. Owner leaving state, has reduced price to $9,500, with $1,200 cash. Call Mr. Dobbs.

EVANS & DODD
3rd Floor Candler Bldg. WA. 1419

JONESBORO ROAD

FIVE-ROOM frame cottage, all city conveniences. One block of car line. Price $3,000; $500 cash, no loan, terms to suit.

LEMON-PASCHAL CO.
WA. 5224. 510 Candler Bldg.

WEST END

$6,750—SPLENDID home, near Gordon and Peoples streets; not new, but clean and neat; seven rooms, four bedrooms, level, shady lot $14,750; convenient to car line. Let us show you.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

Classified Display

Real Estate

308 Rawson St.—6-r. apt....$33.50

25 Druid Circle—8-r. apt.... 45.00
20 Columbia Ave.—5-r. apt.... 65.00
104 Lee St.—10-r. apt.... Special
54 E. 13th St.—5-r. apt.... 40.00
54 Grand Place—5-r. apt.... 45.00
185 Myrtle St.—5-r. apt.... 75.00

EMPIRE TRUST CO.

37 N. Broad St. WA. 4700

WEST END—Will Trade

A SIX-ROOM red brick bungalow, near Gordon street, for a small five or six-room frame. This is your opportunity. Call Mr. Casey.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
WA. 5256. 1010 Candler Bldg.

SOUTH SIDE

WILL TAKE VACANT LOT
BEAUTIFUL six-room red brick bungalow, hardwood floors throughout, tile bath, large rooms and beautiful fixtures. Furnace heat, garage and side drive; on good lot and paved street; close to Grant Park. Will take good building lot as cash payment. Balance easy. Call Mr. Ruppert.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
WA. 5256. 1010 Candler Bldg.

For Rent—Apartment

ON Jackson street, near North avenue, we offer 3-room apartment at very reasonable rental. All conveniences and splendid neighbors.

Ben Padgett Co.
520 Grant Bldg.
Walnut 1278

NORTH SIDE

SACRIFICE SALE

$8,500—OTT Highland avenue near Morningstar Drive. A new cream brick bungalow, on corner lot. This is $1,500 below actual worth. No sale to call for appointment to see this.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
WA. 5256. 1010 Candler Bldg.

Whitehall St. Corner

WE have for sale a very prominent corner, same being leased to desirable tenants. This property is owned by out-of-town client. He has asked us to offer to. To party with cash, can secure one of the choice corners in the city shopping district. For appointment call Mr. Reynolds.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

BUSINESS PROPERTY WAREHOUSE

FIFTY THOUSAND square feet excellent railroad trackage, on leading road; also 150 ft. frontage on thoroughfare. Electric elevator, sprinkler system, four stories. Will sell outright at a bargain and take some trade, or will lease an excellent lease. Call Mr. Cassels, Walnut 1119.

EVANS & DODD
Candler Bldg.

BOULEVARD PARK

SEVEN-ROOM brick bungalow, steam heat, hardwood floors throughout, cement basement, laundry tubs, nice level lot with garage and drive. This is a beautiful place, carries a small loan. Can be handled on small cash payment for this type property. Call Mr. Reynolds.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

NORTH SIDE

IN the heart of the Virginia Highland section on a beautiful paved street, a modern new red brick bungalow for $5,500. $750 cash, $50 month.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
WA. 5256. 1010 Candler Bldg.

DRUID HILLS

NEW six-room red brick bungalow in one of the best sections of the city, near car line, good street; has nice large rooms, plenty of closets, arranged for Murphy bed, beautiful brick plan, clear oak floors, terrace walk inland with red tile. This is strictly an up-to-date place, built for a home. Special price to sell this week. Can arrange some terms. Call Mr. Williams.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

APARTMENT HOUSE

THIS is a good one, well built, location cannot be improved, no vacancies, all rented, income satisfactory to a real business man; our client will take a good piece of Atlanta property, if it is worth the money. It is an up-to-date place, with one loan on this apartment at 5% per cent, 5 years. Call Mr. Reeves, Walnut 1119.

EVANS & DODD
Third Floor Candler Bldg.

BROOKWOOD HILLS

NORTHWOOD AVE.—Red brick bungalow, seven rooms and breakfast room, hardwood floors, furnace heat. Owner moved from city. A bargain.

HUNTINGTON ROAD—Beautiful brick bungalow on east front lot, six extra large rooms, conveniently arranged. Price $2,000 lower than real value.

INVESTIGATE these homes before making a selection.

Burdett Realty Company
116 Candler Bldg. WA. 1011

Classified Display

Real Estate

We Rent Business Property

RETAIL stores, warehouses, lots, offices, industrial sites, community stores, ground leases, railroad tracks, garages.

NO matter how big or how little or what sort of location you want we have it or will get it for you.

A. R. ADAMS-CATES CO.
Grant Bldg. WA. 5477

COMMUNITY STORES

ON NORTH SIDE—The best location in the city of Atlanta. They are new, pretty and well-constructed, on a good corner; all rented; 5-year leases; tenants first-class; income good. If you want some stores that are located right and where there can be no argument as to increased valuation, buy these. No information given over phone, but will come to see you if you will call Mr. Reeves, Walnut 1419.

EVANS & DODD
Third Floor Candler Bldg.

WEST END

NEW six-room dark red brick and breakfast room, cement garage and side drive, furnace heat, hardwood floors, tile porch, tile bath, large lot located in one of the best residential sections.

West end, one block of car line. $7,500; $1,000 cash, terms to suit.

LEMON-PASCHAL CO.
WA. 5224. 510 Candler Bldg.

EAST ATLANTA

$1,250—$450 CASH, balance $30 month. New five-room wide board bungalow, hardwood floors throughout, built-in features, beautiful electrical and plumbing fixtures, elevated shady lot, paved street, all city conveniences. See 2 1/2 blocks of car line, convenient to school, churches and business center. Will accept vacant lot, diamond ring or automobile as cash payment. See this quick. Call Mr. Burton or Mr. George.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WA. 3585. 1409-10 Candler Bldg.

APARTMENT HOUSE

North Side

A COMPARATIVELY new brick building of 24 units; excellent location and completely rented. Shows an income of almost 20 per cent. Price $75,000. Will consider some trade in Atlanta property valued correctly. See Mr. Law.

EVANS & DODD
3rd Floor Candler Bldg. WA. 1419

PEACHTREE ROAD

ON beautiful lot 100x300, red brick veneer, slate roof, two-story home. You enter loggia through columns of a colonial entrance, you pass through arches of the loggia into the living room or dining room; solarium off living room which gives a perfect view of Peachtree Road; breakfast room overlooks pretty garden; porch overlooks garden; electric range in kitchen and built-in cabinet; stairway enclosed in private hall which contains toilet and laundry. Three bedrooms and sleeping porch upstairs with two tile baths. Servants' room and bath in basement; also storage room. Steam heat, double garage. Attractive price. Terms will be given to responsible party.

GRANT-JETER CO.
Grant Bldg. WA. 1600

NORTH DECATUR ROAD

TEN-ROOM brick, two-story, two baths, five rooms downstairs, five upstairs; hardwood floors downstairs; two blocks of Emory University, three blocks of car line. This house is suitable for keeping boarders or roomers. No trouble to fill with either, and the price has been reduced from $10,000 to $9,250, $1,000 cash.

LEMON-PASCHAL CO.
WA. 5224. 510 Candler Bldg.

APARTMENTS--

Ponce de Leon Avenue

Grandleon, 624 Ponce de Leon Ave.

FOR immediate possession we have a five-room front apartment in this attractive building with a big front porch and equipped with Murphy bed. The rooms are all good size with southern and western exposures, cool in the summer and well heated in the winter.

361 Ponce de Leon Ave.

IT'S hard usually to find a good three-room apartment on Ponce de Leon avenue for $50.00 per month, but we have it in this building ready for immediate occupancy. Situated between Kenesaw avenue and Ponce de Leon Court, it is convenient to the car lines and the Boulevard-Ponce de Leon shopping district.

Grant-Jeter Company
GRANT BLDG.—GROUND FLOOR. WA. 1000

APARTMENTS--

NORTH BOULEVARD

McIntosh, 571 North Boulevard

LOCATED in the best section of North Boulevard, near North avenue, this building has at present several desirable apartments available for immediate possession. All have three rooms and are completely equipped. $45.00 to $50.00 per month. Call at apartment No. 2, or see us for an appointment to look them over.

Bowden, 559 North Boulevard

DUE to a new arrangement, we are now able to offer these three-room units with complete equipment, including Murphy bed, at unusually attractive prices. Talk it over with us.

Grant-Jeter Company
GRANT BLDG.—GROUND FLOOR. WA. 1000

Classified Display

Real Estate

WE WILL FINANCE THE BUILDING OF YOUR HOUSE

THE MINTER HOMES CO.
Krog and Lake
Phone IVy 1700

MORRIS BROTHERS

SPECIAL DECATUR VALUES
$5,250—$500 CASH, $35 month. Brand-new six-room bungalow on good east front lot, near Agnes Scott college. Has furnace heat, tile bath, screened throughout, beautiful interior decorations and fixtures, side drive and garage. Price has been reduced $500.

$6,250—$550 CASH, beautiful new six-room brick home with furnace heat and every other modern convenience; on shady east front lot. This is a real bargain and will sell this week.

$6,700—TERMS to suit purchaser. Dandy seven-room brick bungalow on East Lake Drive near Country club. Has everything to make a home complete. This home must be seen to be appreciated. Phone us; our salesman will take pleasure in showing you these places.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
WA. 5256. 1010 Candler Bldg.

SMALL HOME DE LUXE

BEAUTIFUL brick, 5-rooms and breakfast room, built by present owner. Only finest material used from foundation to roof. Every convenience including tile porch and bath, side drive, etc. Very artistically arranged, with flower boxes, shrubbery and trees, on elevated lot one block car line. Phone Ashton Padgett.

Ben Padgett Co.
520 Grant Bldg.
Walnut 1278

SPRINGDALE ROAD

Cream Brick Bungalow $15,000

IN Druid Hills on beautifully elevated lot with 100 feet frontage with plenty of shade in front and back, we have a cream brick 7-room bungalow. This house is modern in every respect. Let us show you this place today, for it will sell quickly at the price we have.

Rogers Realty & Trust Co.</

